

Take extra glasses on your vacation

The loss of your glasses, or the breaking of a lens, would greatly mar the pleasure of your trip. Don't start away with only one pair of glasses. It's only good judgment to have this reserve pair anyway. come in and pick out a style a little different from those you have. You will find it just as agreeable to have a change in glasses as in hats, suits or other wearing apparel.

OYEPELA COMPANY

A DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINING AND EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM ON CHAUTAUQUA

Oyepela (Singing Water) is a beautiful Indian girl, niece of the present chief of the Creek Indians of Oklahoma. Her great, great grandfather was a warrior of the Tacomas, her grandfather led the Creek Indians from Georgia to Oklahoma and was chief of the tribe until his death two years ago. Oyepela is the literary mind of her people. She was sponsor for the Creek Indians at the recent congress in Tulsa, Okla. A graduate of the dramatic department of the Christian College, Columbia, Mo. She takes her audience back 400 years to the primitive stages of civilization, and through her own interpretation and transposition of the beautiful Indian legends, pictures and changes in the life of the First American, the Indian. Indian songs and dances in beautiful beaded costumes are a feature of the program. Oyepela will be ably assisted by two concert artists chosen personally by her for this program. Afternoon of the second day.
