Weddings are Plentiful

Judge Woodhurst is breaking the record for weddings during the summer period, and so far this week has averaged one each day. Monday he united in marriage Martin Hansen and Bernice Feathers, both of Maxwell, and Dewey Johnston and Mary Wisemiller, both of Sutherland. Wednesday the Judge performed a double ceremony, in which Clyde S. Perkins and Elsie Fagg and Wm Fagg and Almada Blodgett, all of Brady, were the contracting parties.

The Judge officiated at the re-marriage of James H. Tagader and Isaires occurred Wednesday.

Divorced, Now Re-Married

Divorced fifteen months ago, James H. Tagader and his former wife, who after the decree of separation assumed her maiden name of Isabelle Merkle, were re-married Wednesday by Judge Woodhurst, and the couple are now as happy as when the first ceremony was performed. Divorce followed marital troubles in which both were to blame, and during the fifteen months of separation both regretted their action, overtures for a re-marriage were made and accepted and the consummation of their desires assured Wednesday.

Held Up on Streets

Fireman Egglehoff was held up on Front street Tuesday night by three men who went through his pockets and obtained two dollars in money. He was not relieved of his watch though the hold ups could see that he had one.

The same night Harry Schintz was stopped on west Sixth street by a man who stepped from behind a tree and ordered him to throw up his hands. He yelled for help and D. C. Congdon responded. When the thief saw Congdon coming he took to his heels.

Public Library Notes

The Library Board met Monday evening and made plans for considerable library extension. Branch libraries will be established in smaller towns along the railroad, and a branch library will be placed in the Lincoln school of this city.

A writing desk and materials for correspondence will be placed in the reading room for use of patrons.

The salary of the librarian was raised ten dollars.

Beginning July 20th the library will be closed Sunday afternoon until the first of September.

Appointed Life Guards

John E. Jones, former chief of police and Martin Bristol, have been appointed life guards at the swimming hole at the south river bridge and began their duties Wednesday. These appointments were made by the Welfare Board upon the recommendation of the directors of the Red Cross. Jones will receive $125 per month and Bristol $100.

Howe Pleads Not Guilty

Newton Howe, charged with burglarizing the house of George Talbot on the night of July 9th, was arraigned before Judge Woodhurst Wednesday. He pleaded not guilty and was placed under a bond of $2,000 for appearance at a preliminary hearing on July 30th. Failing to secure a bond he was remanded to jail. The value of the property which it is charged Howe took is seventy-five dollars.

HENDY-OGIER AUTO CO.
Elmer Taylor, caretaker at the Country Club, moved Wednesday into the lodge, a four room, white stucco bungalow, which has just been completed. Mr Taylor was also appointed deputy sheriff this week and now has the power to take up marauders or trespassers upon the grounds.

With much of the winter wheat acreage in Blaine county harvested an effort has been made to estimate the approximate yield. It is placed at an average of fifteen bushels to the acre. Some of the wheat acreage will make nothing more than chaff, for light feed, while a few tracts may reach a twenty bushel average is the opinion of experts.—Kearney Hub.

Hundreds of children's summer light weight gingham and voile dresses in all colors and sizes now on sale at BLOCK'S.

Owing to the musical entertainment given for the benefit of the Catholic choir on Tuesday night at the Keith theatre, "A Romance of Happy Valley" will be shown but one night—Monday. This picture is a special made by D. W. Griffith and should be shown to a crowded house. Griffith's past successes should do away with all necessity of telling you what this picture is, for Griffith's name in the picture field is a trade mark that sells goods.

To Tobacco Dealers.
I am now prepared to furnish tobacco licenses to all dealers in the city.
O. E. ELDER,
City Clerk.

There are Tricks in Every Trade Except Our Own

Would be wrong if applied to OUR BUSINESS. It is a trick to have the thousand and one things that you are liable to call for from day to day always on hand, and it is another trick to prevent the accumulation of ODDS and ENDS in the constant whirl of popular fancies. Of late years we have been more and more recognized as the logical clearing house for JOBBERS and MANUFACTURERS, Overstocks, Samples, SHORT LOTS, and the like, and it happens occasionally, that we are compelled to buy bigger quantities than we really want, or pass up the deal. During the fore part of July we find the time to carefully go through our whole stock and set aside every class of goods that is classed as an OVERSTOCK, and from

Saturday, July 19th, to Saturday, July 26th, we shall sell these overstocks at prices that will turn the trick.
