The local Dodge Brothers agent, J. V. Romigh, is taking considerable interest in the motor truck train which will be in North Platte this week. He has just been informed by Dodge Brothers that if the run is made on schedule, that the train will arrive in North Platte Saturday evening, August 2nd. On account of the large number of Dodge cars and light trucks used, it is the desire of the local agent that as many Dodge Brother car owners as is possible will go to Maxwell to meet the train there and help welcome them to our city.
