

LINCOLN COUNTY SEVENTH Annual Fair and Races

September 24th to 27th.

Auto and Horse Race Meet

HORSE RACES, SEPTEMBER 24-25-26.

AUTO RACES, SEPTEMBER 27.

Have the promise of 40 horses in trotting, pacing and running.

Twenty Entries in the Auto Races.

TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS IN PRIZES.

Fashion insists on pearls

Pearl necklaces will be worn this winter with street suits and evening gowns. In the evening especially will pearls be an essential feature of the costume.

You can rely on satisfactory wear from the pearl necklaces we are showing. They will not crack or peel, and are safely cleaned with soap and warm water.

Color, sheen and iridescence of oriental pearls are faithfully reproduced in these necklaces.

We show 15, 18, 22 inch and longer necklaces in all sizes of uniform and graduated pearls. Each necklace is fitted with a solid gold clasp.

$3.00 to $40.00.

C. S. CLINTON,
JEWELER AND OPTICIAN.
At the Sign of the Big Ring.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Ray Ready, of Stapleton, transacted business in town Saturday.

Dr. Morrill, Dentist. Office over Wilcox Department Store.

Mrs. H. E. Mason, of Paxton, visited friends in town Saturday.

Don't forget to see the funny "The Sheriff" at the Crystal tonight.

Dixons Grind Their Lenses.
Mrs. Henry Lombard, of Flats, visited with friends in town Friday.

Cameos, you will be delighted with Dixon's stock, $3.00 to $75.00.

Mrs. Nellie Stimson, of Kearney, is visiting her son C. J. Stimson, of this city.

Rishmond Birge spent Friday in Lexington taking in the Dawson county fair.

Mrs. Kline went to Lincoln Saturday to spend several days looking after business matters.

For Sale—One 18 inch Marion Oak heater. A. O. Kocken, 220 west Sixth. 70tf

Before buying your new fall dress look at The Style Shop. Our garments and prices are right. We invite comparison.

To whom are you going to sell your Hay and Grain? The Harrington Mercantile Co. will offer the highest prices. 64tf

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Forstedt returned Sunday from a six weeks' wedding trip to San Francisco and other points in California.

Corsets from $1.50 up to $13.50. We can fit any figure. Stylish stout corsets with the youth line a specialty at The Style Shop.

Harry Bybee has been in Kansas City for several days on business connected with the Union Pacific valuation department.

Clarence C. Borggaard and Della P. Barnes drove over from Minden Saturday and were united in marriage by Judge Woodhurst.

Mrs. R. R. Dickey returned from Omaha this morning.

Mrs. Cody Boal and little daughter Virgie came down from Greeley Sunday for a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Day.

Try the Rexall first.

Dr. Krause returned yesterday from Denver and Salt Lake City where he had been buying additional equipment for his dental office.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hermansen returned this morning from Denver and Colorado Springs where they had been spending their honeymoon.

Dixon's window displays are worthy of your attention.

W. R. Maloney went to Lincoln Sunday to spend several days looking after business matters for the embalmers state examining board.

Never has there been such a run on pearls in necklaces, rings and other jewelry. Dixon has some special priced necklaces at $3.00, long string.

Dixon has a pair of diamond earrings on display at $500 that are second to none.

Misses Ethel and Buelah Pickrell, Marjorie Rogers, Wilma Talbot and Mrs. E. O. Beloit went to Kearney yesterday to spend a week with friends.

Everybody is buying diamonds of us. Reason, assortment and prices. C. M. Austin, Jeweler, Front and Dewey.

The strong wind Friday night blew off the tops of many hay and grain stacks in the section west of the city, and also blew down telephone lines in the hills.

Separate skirts made of all wool Pacific panama cloth, serge, tricotine, satin, velvet, silk poplin and wool plaids. Everything that is good is shown at The Style Shop.

The Catholic Girls' club will meet Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank McGovern. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Geo. Vosepka, Miss Florence Stack and Miss Minerva McWilliams.

Before buying a diamond let us show you our line. We have perfect stones, blue, blue white and other grades, and can help you to make selection. C. M. Austin, corner Front and Dewey. 70-2

The Baptist Missionary Society meets Thursday of this week with Mrs. Fred Loudon, 118 south Sycamore. Hostesses Mesdames Pease, Anderson, Gamble and Loudon. Topic "India," leader, Mrs. J. L. Loudon.

Kodaks and films at the Rexall.

Mrs. J. Downie arrived Thursday from Oakland, Cal., and will spend a month with her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Craigie. Mrs. Downie is a former North Platte resident, having made her home here until about twelve years ago, when she moved to Oakland.

"Clinton & Son" will take care of your Eye Glass trouble; we guarantee to give you satisfaction. Sign of the Big Ring.

ANOTHER LINE ADDED TO THE STYLE SHOP FALL DRESSES AND SKIRTS

Popular priced garments up to the minute in style. What they are wearing now, not what they were wearing three months ago. Tailored dresses in tricotine, serge and wool poplin at $22.50 and up.

Afternoon dresses in satin, tricotine, messaline and georgette at $19.50 and up.

Dresses for everyone in all leading fabrics and styles. Look and Compare.

Now days one cannot tell by looking at a garment how it will wear. It may look nice now but how will it look in a month? We buy only from reliable firms and if a garment does not give satisfaction we have our firms back of us. We can give you the same smile when you come back as we did when we took your money.

M. E. Scott attended the Methodist conference held at Lincoln the latter part of last week.

Ed Thompson went to Kearney yesterday to spend a few days looking after business matters.

That headache may be from your eyes. Consult Dixon & Son.

Mrs. George Finn returned Sunday from Denver, where she had been visiting her for the past week.

Earl Calhoun returned yesterday to his home in Grand Island after a short visit here with his brother Charles.

Try the Rexall first.

Emmett Shumway left yesterday for Kansas City where he will spend a couple of weeks visiting his parents.

Miss Dorothy VanCleave, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is reported to be improving steadily.

Lawrence Payne, Merrill Cross, Mancel Overman and Ed Thompson spent Sunday with friends in Keystone.

J. E. Sebastian is driving one of the newest Dodge sedans sold by J. V. Romigh, who has also delivered a Dodge roadster to R. D. Cornell and touring cars to Wm. Hite and Frank Coates, of Sutherland.

Wanted—Liberty bonds at market price. Louis Lipsitz.

The ladies' guild of the Episcopal church will meet Thursday afternoon in the church basement. Hostesses will be Mesdames House, Carroll, Sizemore and Jessups. Work has been provided for the afternoon.

Dr. H. C. Brock, Dentist. X-Ray Diagnosis. Reynolds Bldg. Phone 148
J. L. Lewis, of Maxwell, was a visitor town yesterday. He lived south of Maxwell for number of years then moved to a farm in Colorado where he spent five years. His wife's health failing, he sold out and returned to Maxwell.

No Hunting or Trespassing. Will be permitted on my land ten miles west of North Platte. I mean this and violators will be dealt with according to law.

At last Dixon has received a new shipment of Eversharp pencils, 10 dozen of them, $1.00 and up.

Girl Wanted—For general housework in small family. Leave name and address at Tribune office.

One of the free attractions at the Lincoln County Fair.

DON'T MISS THE SOUTHWEST NEBRASKA DISTRICT FAIR

MAYWOOD, NEBRASKA.

September 29-30. October 1-2-3-4.

HORSE RACES, AUTO RACES, AIRPLANE,
BAND MUSIC, FIREWORKS. OTHER BIG FREE
ACTS, MIDWAY ATTRACTIONS.

$10,500.00 in Purses and Premiums.

Write for Premium List and Speed Programs.

FRED L. BURKE, Sec'y.

SPECIAL PREMIUM

A special premium of fifteen dollars divided into five monies, is offered in the Boys' and Girls' Corn Judging and Stock Judging. Open to all Boys and Girls of seventeen years or under.

Lincoln County Agricultural Society.