

THE SUNSET SOCIAL WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The annual dinner to the members of the Sunset Club was served Wednesday noon in the Methodist church parlors by the Lutheran ladies. About forty-five ladies and six men were present, all of whose ages were from seventy to ninety some years. After a delightful dinner had been served, a short program consisting of musical numbers by Mrs. Gilfoyl, Mrs. Arthur Tramp, Miss Florence McKay and Miss Irma Huffman was rendered. Several children also gave recitations which were very much appreciated by the old people. In the absence of Rev. Koch, Rev. Mackintosh said grace and made the address of welcome.

At the end of the program Mr. McNichol, who is eighty years of age, told of the founding of the society five years ago, and gave some of the experiences of his life, ending with a tribute to the old people "who have gone on before and who are now waiting in the dawn of a new life for those of us who are crossing the bar at sunset."

Reception to Teachers.

The members of the Presbyterian church held a reception in the lecture room at the church Wednesday evening for the teachers of the city schools. After a short welcome by Rev. Curry and a response by Supt. Tout a short musical program was given. In the receiving line were Rev. and Mrs. Curry, Mr. and Mrs. Streitz, and the elders of the church and their wives, Misses Ruth Hogsett, Lottie LaRue, Frances Edwards and Mary Ellsworth were in charge of the punch bowl.

COUNTY FAIR INFORMATION.

Product Display Will be Fine

The display of agricultural products at the fair will be the largest and best in the history of the fair. This is due to the fact that farmers have taken greater interest in furnishing exhibits than ever before. Down at Wallace a couple of truck loads have been brought in by the farmers and will be sent in here Monday. Otto Mesmer and five other farmers living northwest of town have gathered together a couple of truck loads, and in other parts of the county farmers are showing the same interest.

Race Horse Men are Pleased.

Race horse men who have visited the fair grounds are "bugged" over the fine condition of the track, pronouncing it the best track they have seen this year. The recent rain gave an opportunity to again use the five-ton roller and the track is now packed so hard that even the turns will not be affected by the tire traction in the auto races.

Free Attractions.

For attendants at the county fair next week three free attractions have been provided. These are Sanger's performing razor back pigs that do a lot of stunts that you would not think a pig could be taught to do; the Skating Macks, in which they exemplify the poetry of motion, and the Wilhat Troupe, who introduce the Krazy Kar and do a lot of cycling feats that are grotesque and fantastic. These three features will appear each afternoon.

Race Horses Galore.

All the trotting, pacing and running horses which are in the races at the Buffalo county fair this week will be entered in the races in the Lincoln county fair next week. This means that the string will not be less than forty in number, not counting local entries. To accommodate these racers an additional horse barn is being erected on the grounds.

Gould Reserves Fourteen Stalls

Gould, the Kearney race horse man, has reserved fourteen stalls in the fair ground stables for his string of trotters and pacers. Among these horses is Emma Dee, who paced a mile at Lexington last week in 2:13 1/2 and on the North Platte track, which is considerably faster than the Lexington track, even better time may be expected.

Many Concessions

Secretary Birge says he is kept busy answering phone calls from those who desire concessions at the county fair. If only a part of these concessions come, the midway on the fair grounds will be a hummer.

Children's Day

Next Wednesday, the opening day of the fair, all school children of the county will be admitted free to the grounds. This will give the boys and girls an opportunity to see the big show without the expenditure of a cent. The city schools, we understand, will be dismissed for the afternoon.

Wanted to Buy—A carload of barley. Address Charles Smith, Motor Route B, North Platte, Neb.

N. O. Johnston and J. E. Nelson purchased the Beer section of land ten miles southwest of town several months ago. This week Mr. Johnston sold his half interest in the tract to Fred McClymont for $42,000.

Dresses! Dresses! Here you don't have to choose your dress from a handful of them. Hundreds of dresses in tricolette, tricotine, poulette, serge, satin, and georgette, up to the minute in style and priced at the lowest prices possible, at BLOCK'S, the busy ladies' store of the town.

Reservations for Stock.

The unusual demand for reservations for stock exhibits has made it necessary for the county fair officials to erect two additional cattle barns. Dave Lawlor, of Paxton, has asked for twenty stalls in which to exhibit horses and cattle. Mr. Bengler, of Callaway, who is showing his cattle at the Buffalo county fair this week, has asked for fourteen stalls, and a dozen or more other breeders have asked for stalls ranging in number from four to a dozen.

The display of hogs also promises to be very large.

Seats on Sale

Grandstand seats went on sale at the Rexall drug store yesterday and are meeting with a rapid sale. Reservations for autos are also being made, and applications are coming in with a rush. Everybody appreciates the fact that the crowds at the fair this year will be enormous.

The Horse Races.

The fair association offers an extra fine racing program next week, and the best events ever seen on the local track will be staged. Beginning Wednesday and continuing Thursday and Friday there will be four trotting, four pacing and four running races each afternoon. There will be entries in the 2:13 trot and in the 2:15 pace, and there are horses entered that will make this time.

The Branch Special.

A special train will be run on the North River branch Saturday, leaving Gering at six in the morning and arriving here at 10:30. On the return trip the train will leave here at ten o'clock in the evening. It is understood that towns along the branch have already signified their intention of buying 500 tickets.

Contract for Carnival

A county fair without a carnival company would scarcely be a fair, hence there will be such a company here next week. The fair officers have entered into a contract with the A. G. Story Co., who have three carloads of attractions. In addition the Story Co. will have a big tent in which stage plays will be given.

Big Attendance Expected.

This has been a record breaking year for attendance at fairs. The crowd at the state fair was the largest ever known, the attendance at the Lexington fair last week averaged about 2000 a day more than usual, and at Kearney this week the attendance at the Buffalo county fair is said to be simply immense. It is therefore reasonable to expect that the attendance at the Lincoln county fair next week will break all records.

A Thousand Beans from One

W. H. O'Connell will have an exhibition at the county fair a species of a field bean which produces on an average of a thousand beans from each bean planted. This should be of interest to home gardeners as a half dozen planted beans will produce enough matured beans to supply the average family throughout the year.

To Sammy Girls.

All Sammy Girls are urged to be present at a meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. John McGraw next Monday evening. It is important that each member be present as complimentary tickets to the fair will be issued at that time.

COMPLETING PLANS FOR HOME-COMING DAY

The plans for the Lincoln county soldiers' and sailors' home-coming day on Saturday, September 27th, are nearing completion; in fact only a few of the minor details yet remain to be worked out.

The chicken dinner will be served in the grove at the city park beginning at half past eleven in the forenoon. This dinner will be served jointly by the A. R. C. Canteen members and the War Mothers.

Following the dinner the entertainment of the boys will be in charge of the members of the Sammy Girls, that organization which was so active and performed such wonderful work during the war period. These Sammy Girls will from their own treasury finance the entertainment they have provided. During the serving of the dinner the Sammy Girls will present each soldier or sailor with two tickets of admission to the fair grounds and the grandstand, one ticket for himself and one for his wife, his mother, his father or his sweetheart—which ever he may designate. These tickets will be given out only during the dinner, and in order to receive his tickets it will be necessary for each soldier or sailor to be present at that time. When the dinner is completed, which will be shortly before one o'clock, the boys, headed by the band, will proceed to the grandstand, and accompanied by the guest of his preference, will be escorted to the section of the stand which has been reserved for them and which will be decorated with national colors. Here each boy and his guest may enjoy the pleasure of the auto races which promise to be more exciting than at any previous auto meet by reason of the large number of fast men who have entered.

In the evening the Sammy Girls will give the soldiers and sailors a free open air dance. A big platform 75x100 feet will be erected at the north end of Dewey street and music will be furnished by an orchestra of twenty pieces under the direction of Earl Stamp. During the dance the Sammy Girls will serve doughnuts and coffee not only to the dancers, but to the entire crowd that may attend as spectators. It must be understood, however, that this dance is exclusively for soldiers and sailors and their ladies.

The dance will be interspersed with two stunts by Miss Irma Huffman and Miss Mayme Pizer, two of the most clever entertainers North Platte possesses. Just what these stunts will be, we don't know, but we stand ready to watch for their originality and mirth producing features.

Prior to the opening of the dance Jno. E. Evans, who issued his God-speed and good-luck to so many of the boys when they left for their respective camps, will deliver an address in which he will welcome-home the boys. During the evening there will be a display of fireworks, which will include several set pieces. It is hoped to get as one of the pieces a picture in flame of General Pershing, commander of the A. E. F.

Under the direction of Mrs. John McGraw, "mother" of the Sammy Girls, assisted by Mrs. H. R. McMichael and Mrs. A. J. Salisbury and with the help of seventy or more Sammy Girls, each of whom is a human dynamo, the home welcoming promises to be a very pleasant and enjoyable day for the soldiers and sailors of Lincoln county.

The election for convention delegates will be held in November.
