RHILEY CLEANS THE PLATTER AT THE AUTOMOBILE RACES

King Rhiley, Western Nebraska's premier auto driver, again cleaned the platter at the auto races Saturday, and did it as easily as in former years. He won the track record, the North Platte Special and the sweepstakes, cleaning up $100 on the track record, $600 on the North Platte Special, $1,000 on the sweepstakes and $45 in the handicap race.

All who have witnessed Rhiley's driving admit that he is courageous and efficient and that he keeps his car in absolutely perfect condition; he is a clean racer, a gentlemanly man, and has thousands of admirers among auto race enthusiasts—but if the future races are to be held in North Platte the management must see to it that other drivers of Rhiley's ability are secured. While everybody likes Rhiley, likes his style of driving and is willing for him to take the money, there is a general demand that his competitors give him a harder race; competitors who can at least at times take the pole from him. There is not much excitement in three or four cars following each other round and round the track with the leader maintaining at all times the lead—it grows monotonous, especially in a 25-mile race, and but little enthusiasm is aroused. If, on the other hand, the drivers occasionally changed positions in the race, if one shot ahead of the other, then lost again to the one he had bested, the grandstand would rock with yells and enthusiasm. We believe that Tribune readers will agree with the above statements.

The results of Saturday's events were as follows:
Midwest race, five miles, won by B. E. Freel, of Brady in 7:32.
Track record, one mile, won by Rhiley in 1:05 1/4; Breed going in 1:08 1/4 and Ruenker in 1:09 1/4.

In the North Platte Special Rhiley took all three heats of five miles each, the first in 5:52 the second in 5:45 and the third in 5:45. In the third heat of this race Ruenker met with an accident, a broken spindle causing his car to go over and he suffered a broken wrist and three fractured ribs.

Wehn of Bridgeport took the first heat of the Lincoln county five mile special in 6:15, and Mals, of Salina, Kan., the second heat in 5:46.

In the five mile Platte Valley race, Ben Ross of Forks won in 7:29.

Rhiley won the 25-mile sweepstakes in 28:31 finishing a half lap ahead of Bullock and with Breed coming in third.

In the handicap race Bullock, who was given the longest lead, won, with Breed second and Rhiley third.

"GOLDWORTHY" TROTS MILE ON LOCAL TRACK IN 2:13

Attendants at the county fair Friday saw "Goldworthy," a three-year-old trotter owned by H. D. Gould of Kearney clip off a mile in 2:13 in the first heat of the 2:27 trot. The youngster was not permitted, however, to go his gait in the succeeding heats, and Tip Frisco took three of the five heats in 2:20, 2:22 and 2:20.

In the 2:12 pace "Whitefoot" lost the first heat and then took three straights in 2:13 1/2, 2:13 1/4 and 2:14. In the 2:22 pace Emily Axey took three out of four heats in 2:14 1/4, 2:16 1/4 and 2:18 1/4.

Friday's events closed with a seven-eighths mile race, a five-eighths dash and a one and one-half mile relay. The first was made in 1:30 and the second in 1:04. Time was not announced on the relay.

This closed three days' racing on one of the best, if not the best, track in the state by horses that were far better than any ever before seen in North Platte, and this feature was certainly a pronounced success.

Horsemen who were here were highly pleased with general conditions and especially the fine track. They were of the opinion that the result of last week's races will advertise the North Platte track and aid in securing for the 1929 fair even better horses than were here last week.

Failed to Give Credit.

In the Tribune's article telling of the arrest of Darling, the negro murderer, credit should have been given to Chief Meecomber and U. P. Detective Galyean for apprehending Darling. Every available clue had been run down, prior to Darling's apprehension, and these two officers concluded that a search of the negro quarters on east Front street was the last resort. There a crap game was raided, five negroes arrested and at the last moment a trunk in one of the rooms was broken into and the automatic revolver found which Darling had used and subsequently gave to another negro. With this evidence in hand, a search for Darling was made, he was found and jailed and his confession followed.

Chief Meecomber and Detective Galyean were also present at and took part in the inquisitorial given Darling and which resulted in the negro's confession.

New Addition on Sale Tomorrow.

In the Neville sub-division, located in the same neighborhood, and which has been on the market for about a week twenty-six blocks had been sold up to yesterday.

Low Prices in California.

In an advertisement appearing in the San Diego (Cal.) Daily Union of September 20th, it is stated "that owing to large arrivals of hogs from Omaha, Nebraska, the following decline in cuts will be made: Fine pork roasts 30 cents a pound, pork steak 30 cents a pound." Funny, isn't it that Nebraska hogs are shipped to southern California, butchered and sold at retail at a less price than here in North Platte where we ship out thousands of head.

Driver Ruenker Injured.

C. S. Ruenker, of Grand Island, one of the drivers in the auto races Saturday, is in a local hospital suffering from three fractured ribs and a broken wrist. These injuries were received during the second heat of the North Platte Special race when a spindle on Ruenker's car broke and he was ditched. He was picked up and conveyed to the hospital in an ambulance and his injuries given the proper attention.

Was Ted Dreaming?

The Wallace Winner says: Ted Funk returned from Omaha Tuesday. While in North Platte early that morning he was stopped by three masked men and covered with their guns. They quickly ascertained he was not the man whom they were after and did not bother him. Ted learned later in the morning that U. P. Conductor Massey who had come in on train No. 15 a little after midnight, as he had done, was found murdered.

Plenty of Sugar for State

Over seventy-nine thousand bags of sugar, of one hundred pounds each, are enroute to Nebraska. It is announced by the United States sugar board it is claimed that this shipment was delayed because of a strike of stevedores and a scarcity of cars. There are nearly two million pounds of sugar ordered for this state from western and southern points, in addition to the enormous shipments tied up in the east. It is announced that this shipment of sugar will go forward shortly and thus relieve the shortage which now prevails over the country.
