Should Employ Paid Secretary

Knowing the many days that President Coates, Secretary Birge and others connected with the county fair spent in arranging for the fair, time they could ill afford to take from their business, The Tribune suggests that a paid secretary be employed next year. This secretary should begin his work not later than June and keep continually employed until the fair is closed. If he is an active secretary he can easily find employment during those four months, getting out the premium list and advertising matter, collecting the exhibits, arranging for the races, arranging his forces for fair week, placing the exhibits and looking after the thousand and one things in connection with the fair.

It is absolutely unfair to ask a business man to take from his business the time required to arrange for a county fair.

Public Library Notes

Mrs. Alleen Cochran donated a collection of interesting books for wee little folks.

Miss Thea Hansen furnished a beautiful decorative border of natural autumn leaves, to be used in the children's department.

The branch library for the children of the Fourth ward will be opened in the Lincoln school this month.

The Nebraska Library Association will hold its twenty-fifth annual meeting in Omaha beginning October 20th.

In the Police Court

The police court was the scene of much activity Tuesday, nearly a dozen individuals facing his honor Judge Miltoberger on various charges. Cole, Murphy and three colored crap shooters, who had been arrested several days previously were fined $10 and costs each. Cole and Murphy cashed up, but the negroes did not have the coin and were sent back to jail.

Cy Shaw, who lives north of town, got hold of some bootleg whiskey Tuesday evening and it made him so light-headed that the sidewalk was scarcely wide enough for him to navigate. His fun cost him ten dollars and trimmings.

Jim Taylor, colored, was placed under arrest for talking "sass" and threatening a policeman. He was given his choice of going to jail for sixty days or getting out of town within twenty minutes. He accepted the latter alternative and hiked.

Louie Larson and a half breed Indian and his wife were picked up in the old Sodfoot building late Tuesday afternoon. Larson and the woman occupying one room while the half-breed was locked in another. The woman was in a stupified condition from some drink she had taken. They were carted to jail, and later Larson paid $10 and costs and the half-breed and his wife were warned to get out of town, and they got.

Mr. Land Buyer.
We are prepared to supply your every need; from the small eighty acre farm to the twenty thousand acre well improved ranch.

Our holdings are in Nebraska, Colorado, Wyoming and South Dakota. We own and control many thousands of acres in this territory. This land cost double what it did four years ago.

LISTEN MEN!—It is due for the second double in the very near future. The people are going to the middle west to find a home for themselves, realizing that their children cannot have another opportunity to acquire the best of soil at a price soon to be a thing of the past. We do not want you to take our word for it. Come and see us, or address your communication to the
