POULTRY

EASY WORK FOR YOUNGSTERS

Training and Experience Which Boys and Girls Realize is of Great All-Round Value.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Teaching poultry club boys and girls the rudiments of poultry keeping was begun by the United States department of agriculture about seven years ago. The average youngster takes to poultry keeping with interest, particularly when he is allowed to sell the surplus meat and eggs and invest the income in the savings bank or in better foundation stock for the improvement of his flock. The training and experience which the children realize from their daily association with hens is of great all-round value to them and is of special help in developing a love for country life and in keeping rural boys and girls on the farm. What a young school girl can accomplish in poultry raising is indicated by a letter from a poultry club girl who writes:

"I keep Barred Plymouth Rocks and single-comb Rhode Island Reds, and in setting my hens I always remove the broody hens from the laying pens and place them in some other building where they will not be disturbed. I never set hens that are exceedingly heavy, as they are more likely to break the eggs.

"When the chicks come I do not feed them anything except grit and charcoal until they are 45 hours old, when I give them either oatmeal and hard-boiled eggs chopped fine, or else biscuit crumbled up with the eggs. I feed in this manner for the first five or six days, giving the chicks small quantities four to five times a day, as these youngsters like to eat often.

"At about the end of the first week I begin feeding small grain in the morning, at midday, and in the evening, and keep a mash made of wheat bran and a little cornmeal, and 10 per cent of beef scrap before the chickens all the time.

"This spring I hatched 135 Red chicks and 110 Rocks and raised nearly all of them. I sold 30 young cockerels and have on hand 195 chicks at present, some of them very fine pullets. I have sold 59 settings of eggs this spring, while during the four months from February to June I sold 164 dozen eggs to neighbors, while we used 42 dozen on our own table. During this period my Rhode Island Reds laid 1,076 eggs, while the Barred Rocks laid 853 eggs."

PREPARE DUCKS FOR MARKET

Fowls Should Be Fattened for Two Weeks Before Killing—Green Feed Colors Flesh.

Ducklings to be marketed should be fattened for two weeks before killing on a ration made of three parts, by weight, of cornmeal, two parts of middlings, one part of bran, one-half part of beef scrap, with 3 per cent grit and 10 per cent green feed added to this mash, or a mash of three parts cornmeal, one part low-grade wheat flour, one part bran, one-quarter part beef scrap with the green feed and grit, and 3 per cent oyster shell added. Feed this mash three times daily, giving all the ducklings will clean up in a half hour. The green feed is sometimes left out of the ration during the last seven days of fattening, as it tends to color the meat and may produce a slightly flabby, rather than firm, flesh. However, it is easier to keep the ducklings in good feeding condition on a mash containing green feed.

RANGE FOR GROWING CHICKS

Young Fowls Will Not Eat Too Much If They Are Permitted to Have Necessary Exercise.

Growing chicks will not eat too much if they have plenty of range so they can get the desired exercise. A good growing mash should be accessible at all times to growing chicks. Such a mash should contain plenty of bone meal, ground very fine, and fine-ground oats and barley. Be sure to have the mash ground very fine.

QUICK! YOUR HAIR NEEDS "DANDERINE"

Check ugly dandruff! Stop hair coming out and double its beauty

A little "Danderine" cools, cleanses and makes the feverish, itchy scalp soft and pliable; then this stimulating tonic penetrates to the furnished hair roots, revitalizing and invigorating every hair in the head, thus stopping the hair falling out, or getting thin, dry or fading.

After a few applications of "Danderine" you seldom find a fallen hair or a particle of dandruff, besides every hair shows new life, vigor, brightness, more color and thickness.

A few cents buys a bottle of delightful "Danderine" at any drug or toilet counter.—Adv.

DIDN'T HELP TO GET CLOSE

Excellent Reason Why Old Gentleman Could Not Decipher the Letters on the Card.

The old man was applying at the eye hospital for some spectacles and the doctor was making a test of his eyes.

A card was fixed on the wall twenty feet away from where the old man was sitting, and the doctor asked him:

"Can you read that, my man?"

"No, sir," said the old man, "I can't."

The doctor told him to go nearer.

"Well, can you read it now?"

Again the old man replied, "No, sir."

The doctor angrily pulled him forward till his nose almost touched the placard.

"Well, can you read it now?"

"No, sir," said the old man sadly, shaking his head, "You see, sir, I never learnt to read!"

Not Definite Enough.

The most particular woman in town went into an east side grocery the other day. A basket of beautiful white eggs were on the counter and she stepped over to examine them. "Are they fresh?" she asked the grocer. "Yes," he answered. "We just got them from the country this morning."

"Well, that isn't definite enough," retorted the woman. "Before I buy any eggs I must know just when they were laid."—Indianapolis News.

Many a man starts a circus downtown because he has no show uptown.

Great Convenience.

"I wish I knew what to do with all this broken crockery," said Mrs. Flatdewler. "There isn't any place to throw it away, and—"

"I have it," cried Mr. Flatdewler, his eyes aglow with the fires of genius. "Put 'em in the parcels post and mail 'em to some fictitious address, in the first zone."

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!—Adv.

Good Recommendation.

"Who was the man who taught you not to forget anything?" "Why it was—ah—er—it was—"

When a fool offers to back up his argument with a bet a wise man shuts up.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Not What She Wanted.

They were next door neighbors. She was sprinkling the lawn and he was sitting out in his yard taking the cool of the air. He's a bit slow of comprehension.

"Give me lief?" she called to him, meaning that she dared him to let her turn the hose on him.

"What's that?" he asked.

"I said do you give me lief?" she repeated.

"Sure, you can have the whole paper," he replied, reaching for a newspaper on which he was sitting. He thought she wanted a page from his paper.—Indianapolis News.

A kiss in time may prevent nine.

The Coming Crisis.

A congressman was talking about government extravagance and the fearful taxes that are its consequence.

"The government," he ended, "seems to think that it only needs to say to the American people, 'Cough up! Cough up!' But how will we cough up when our coffers are empty?"

THE HOME SECTOR

A WEEKLY FOR THE NEW CIVILIAN

CONDUCTED BY THE FORMER EDITORIAL COUNCIL OF The Stars and Stripes

All you Yanks who, far out at sea or in the muddy dugouts, lousy billets and chill barracks of the A. E. F., found the going a little easier because of The Stars and Stripes, will enjoy this new weekly by the same bunch, for the same bunch, in the same spirit.

The Stars and Stripes was hauled down and folded away a fortnight before the peace treaty was signed, but the men who wrote or drew ninety per cent. of the contents of that famous soldiers' weekly have not broken ranks. They have kept close formation in their red-chevron days to conduct this new magazine.

WALLGREN is on the job with his hilarious and disorderly cartoons. BALDRIDGE, the foremost American artist of the war, is drawing for The Home Sector. There will be fresh tidings from all the old Yank sectors in France, England, Belgium and Germany, and the latest news from the front in the fight to keep America, the home sector, the best of them all.

A department called SERVICE will try to clear up the misunderstandings and doubts existing in the minds of most former service men about such details as war-risk insurance, Liberty bonds, back pay, pensions, bonuses, legislation, etc.

You will want The Home Sector, which is out every Wednesday. Get this week's issue and see. It is 10 cents a copy. $5.00 a year with a special combination offer. To do your duty during these trying times your health should be your first consideration. These two women tell how they found health.

Hellam, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles and a displacement. I felt all run down and was very weak. I had been treated by a physician without results, so decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and felt better right away. I am keeping house since last April and doing all my housework, where before I was unable to do any work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly the best medicine a woman can take when in this condition. I give you permission to publish this letter."—Mrs. E. R. CRUMMING, R. No. 1, Hellam, Pa.

Lowell, Mich.—"I suffered from cramps and dragging down pains, was irregular and had female weakness and displacement. I began to take Lydia E.
