SEARCH LONG FOR BURIED TREASURE

Hidden Fortune Has Lured Men to Toil for Half Century on Iowa Farm.

TRAGEDY WOVEN IN ROMANCE

Murder of Man 46 Years Ago Brings Strange Characters into a Court—Mystery Yet to Be Solved.

Bedford, Ia.—The mystery of a hidden treasure, a mystery that has puzzled the people of southwestern Iowa for half a century, has been brought nearer solution by an investigation which has shown how a little group of picturesque characters of that section of the state toiled for years in quest of riches buried, according to tradition, on the Klondike farm.

Lying 15 miles southwest of Bedford, Ia., is the Huntsman farm, and adjoining it is the Anderson homestead. Pitted with holes and scarred with many excavations, the farms prove the arduous toil of men driven by dreams of gold.

Searching for the Treasure.

Samuel Anderson moved to Iowa in the early seventies. Soon after he located on the farm Anderson received a call from the Huntsmans, who told him that there was a lot of gold buried on the place and that they wanted to dig for it.

One day 17 years ago the searchers uncovered three stakes set in a direct line pointing to a spring. Anderson, inspired by the vision of his share of the fortune, dug on feverishly.

Soon after the discovery of the metal box the elder Huntsman died suddenly. Samuel Anderson, weary of long waiting for his share of the treasure he believed he had uncovered, filed a suit against Bates Huntsman, asking pay for his years of toil.

The woman's story seemed to throw clear light on the source of the treasure.

ure the Huntsmans had sought so long. The story, too, seemed to link the treasure with the homestead found in the cabin of old Dr. A. M. Goffiday of Bedford, whose body was found in his cabin 11 years ago.

Held on Murder Charge.

Following swiftly upon the story of Martin Collins Porter came the arrest of Bates Huntsman, Sam Scrivener, a rich farmer, and John and Hank Darnwood. They were charged with the murder of a man of unknown identity, presumably a rich cattle buyer from Missouri, 46 years ago.

JOBS SCARCE FOR BRITISH SOLDIERS

Reports Come From All Over the Country of Difficulty Demobilized Officers Have in Obtaining Employment.

London.—From all parts of the country come reports of the difficulty demobilized officers are having to find jobs. Those former officers with wives and families to support are in many cases living on meager pensions.

One of the most remarkable cases of unemployment is that of a Cambridge university graduate who for the greater part of the war held an important command in the army and subsequently a temporary post of great responsibility in a government department.

POULTRY FACTS

MAKE PROFITABLE SIDE LINE

Success May Be Attained With Pigeons by Careful Attention to Many Little Details.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Many people can keep pigeons successfully as a side issue, although this requires constant oversight and careful attention to details. The greatest difficulties confronting the successful raiser of pigeons seem to be in securing good breeding stock, and finding a market for the produce of a small flock.

Of the squab-raising varieties the Homer is considered the most popular variety. The habit of this bird of returning home if allowed freedom makes it necessary to confine pigeons purchased from other lofts.

Homer Pigeon is Most Popular.

Is one of the largest, but is not as prolific or as good a breeder or feeder as the Homer.

Some of the other varieties reported used as squab breeders are the Dragoon, White Maltese, or hen pigeon the White King, and the common pig con.

BIG RETURNS FROM POULTRY

Arizona Farmer Made Profit of Nearly $300 From Small Flock in Short Space of Time.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

A net return of nearly $300 in two and one-half months from a side line on the farm is the record made by a Glendale, Ariz., farmer who is carrying on his operations under the direction of a poultry extension expert of the United States department of agriculture.

Several weeks ago, it now is revealed, a chaplain attached to General Pershing's headquarters visited American Red Cross headquarters in Paris, asking to be shown the various phases of the work being carried on.

AUSTRIA FORCED WAR

Minutes of Mutiny of Privy Council Reveal Secret.

Count Von Berchtold Solely Responsible for Outbreak of Hostilities.

Vienna.—There were made public from the archives of the former Austro-Hungarian government minutes of the meeting of the privy council on July 7, 1914, at which it was virtually decided to begin war on Serbia.

According to this publication the ministry of Austria-Hungary, especially Count Leopold von Berchtold, foreign minister, was solely responsible for the outbreak of hostilities.

The minutes show the meeting to have been opened by Count von Berchtold, who pleaded for an immediate resort to arms against Serbia, stating that Italy and Roumania "could be compensated afterward for not having been consulted beforehand."

that Italy and Roumania "could be compensated afterward for not having been consulted beforehand."

Count Stephen Tisza, then Hungarian premier, opposed the war, demanding that diplomatic action be taken first and then that an ultimatum of an acceptable nature be sent. Only in case both failed would he have resorted to arms.

Count von Berchtold thereupon said: "Now, is the right moment because Germany is ready to assist."

Finally a resolution was adopted that such far-reaching demands be made of Serbia that she could not fulfill them and thus a way would be opened to a resort to arms.

That Breezy Western Way. They were playing poker in a western town. One of the players was a stranger, and was getting a nice trimming. Finally the sucker saw one of the players give himself three aces from the bottom of the pack. The sucker turned to the man beside him and said: "Did you see that?"

"See what?" asked the man. "Why, that fellow dealt himself three aces from the bottom of the deck," said the sucker. "Well, what about it?" asked the man. "It was his deal, wasn't it?"

If Constipated, Bilious or Headachy, take "Cascarets"

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, or sour, gassy stomach—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels. Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissues it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep.—Adv.

He Knew Donkeys.

A teacher was instructing a class in English. She called on a small boy named Jimmy Brown.

"James," said she, "write on the board 'Richard can ride a donkey if he wants to.'"

Jimmy did so to the satisfaction of all concerned.

"Now," continued the teacher, when Jimmy had returned to his place, "can you find a better form for that sentence?"

"Yes, miss, 'Richard can ride the donkey if the donkey wants him to.'" Use MURINE Night and Morning Keep Your Eyes Clean, Clear and Healthy Write for Free Eye Care Book Murine Co., Chicago, U.S.A.
