SCENE FROM
D.W. GRIFFITH'S "BROKEN BLOSSOMS"

"A Three Weeks Vacation in Two Hours of Delight"

Is a rare accomplishment—even for D. W. Griffith.

"There is nothing like it in all the annals of the screen—noth'g, perhaps, that in all the delicate shades of spiritual expression attains such subtle effects—nothing so frightfully brutal and tender by turns, as this story of a pure love that is crushed to death—the love of a Chinaman who lives in the world of opium tinted dreams—and a little white girl who has never learned to smile.

If this picture is not accepted by the public, then there little chance for GENUINE screen tragedies—because, "BROKEN BLOSSOMS" is a MASTERPIECE OF ITS KIND

THE CAST

The Girl	.....Miss Lillian Gish
"Battling" Burrows	.....Donald Crisp
His Manager	.....Arthur Howard
The Chinaman	.....Richard Barthelmess
Evil Eye	.....Edward Piel
A Prize Fighter	.....Norman Selby, better known as "Kid McCoy."
