

Walter E. Perkins, Eda Ann Luke and Will Archie in scene from "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath," Keith Theatre, Thursday, January 22.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

A girl baby was born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McNeal.
 Chas. Kosmacek, of Brule, transacted business in town Wednesday.
 See the new spring volles at Wilcox Department Store.
 Mrs. John Kelher, of Maxwell, visited with friends in town Tuesday.
 Miss Julia Gleason went to Grand Island Wednesday to visit her sister.
 Dr. Morrill, Dentist, office over Wilcox Department Store.
 Leo Cronen, of Sioux City, Ia., is the guest of James and Joseph Roddy.
 H. A. Lawhead was called to Oklahoma a few days ago by the death of a brother.
 Dixon's alarm clocks are guaranteed.
 The Indian Card Club was entertained by Mrs. J. H. Stone Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Garner, of Brady, visited with friends in town Wednesday.
 M. S. Rebhausen leaves tonight for a visit with relatives in Kearney and Columbus.
 For Sale by owner:—Small Bungalow close in. Four Rooms and bath. Phone Red 1219. 2-2
 Mrs. Chas. Dixon was hostess at the session of the Tuesday evening bridge club this week.
 A special meeting of the American Legion will be held this evening at the library building.
 Dixon's gift store is always at your service.
 Mrs. Clyde Cook returned Tuesday from a week's visit in Chappell with Mrs. Homer Handley.
 Miss Anna Hermanson went to Grand Island Wednesday to consult a doctor about her eyes.
 A Shaffer pen will be a life long friend. Dixon, the jeweler. 88tf

Mrs. John Guyman and Miss Mable Crab were called to Paxton Wednesday by the death of their mother.
 Mr. and Mrs. Jens Sommer, of Maxwell, were in town Tuesday visiting and looking after business matters.
 Mr. and Mrs. Milton Marcott came down from Sterling yesterday morning to visit friends for a few days.
 A sterling silver nut set at $42.00, of exceptional beauty. Dixon, the quality jeweler.
 Miss Janet McDonald will entertain this afternoon complimentary to her cousin, Mrs. Wm. Daub, of Fostoria, Ohio.
 W. C. Ritzner left Tuesday for Newport, Penna., where he will visit old time friends until about the first of April.
 For Sale—Electric sewing machine, electric iron, electric washer and a buffet, all new. 903 East Fifth. 1-2*
 Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Daub, of Fostoria, are the guests of relatives in town. Mrs. Daub was formerly Miss Ruth McDonald.
 Relinquishment For Sale—480 acres northwest McPherson Co. Vacant land near for additional entry. Address XX, Tribune office. 2-1
 Dr. Howard Yost, Dentist, Twinem Building. Phone 307. 77tf
 Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Frederic returned Wednesday from Kansas City where they had been visiting relatives for the past two weeks.
 Dennis Breen, who has been living north of the river and sold off his personal property yesterday, will move to this city to make his home.
 Dr. H. C. Brock, Dentist, X-Ray Diagnosis, Reynolds Bldg. Phone 148
 Mr. and Mrs. John S. Nelson, living northwest of Hershey, were visitors in town Wednesday, bringing down fowls to be exhibited at the poultry show.
 Deputy Grand Marshall, Frank J. Koch, of Sidney, officiated at the installation of officers at Walla Walla chapter of the Odd Fellows last evening.
 Dixon & Son, Sight Specialists.
 Little Mary Ellen Johnston returned to her home in Grand Island Wednesday after a week's visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lochiel Johnston.
 The Gothenburg basket ball team defeated the Sutherland team Friday evening by a score of sixty-two to eight. The Gothenburg Times refers to the game as a two-act comedy.
 Special—Kettle rendered lard. Brobeck's Meat Market. 88tf

In Full Swing

This Great Stock Reduction Sale Now in Full Swing

Many thousands of dollar have already been spent with us since this sale began by wise buyers who are planning for the future.

If you have not taken advantage of our wonderful bargains do not wait another day.

We continue to offer unrestricted choice of our entire stock at

One-Fifth to One-Half Off

of regular prices. Do not let this opportunity pass you.

Edwards-Reynolds Co.

FOR MEN AND BOYS.

10 Cent Store

Clearance

SALE

BARGAINS

SATURDAY LAST DAY OF SALE

White Coffee Cups and Saucers 20c.	Graniteware 49c.
Laundry Soap 4c.	Palmolive Soap 8 1-3c.
Stationery 9c a box.	Outing Flannel 25c.
Ladies and Childrens Winter Underwear 98c.	Curtain Scrim 17 1-2c.
Ladies Colored Fibre Silk Hose 39c.	O. N. T. Crochet Thread 10c.
Ladies Black Hose 13c.	Shoe Laces 2 pair 5c.
Children's Black Hose 14c.	Clothlike Linen Writing Paper 9c.

W. J. O'Connor
 5c, 10c and 25c Store.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

If your car is not working to your satisfaction, or if it needs repairing or general overhauling let the Ewart-Harrison Motor Co. put it in first class shape for you. 721 North Locust. Phone 235.
 Bishop Beecher and Mr. Gering, of Omaha, will be here over the week end and will launch the nation-wide campaign of the Episcopal church in this district. Both Bishop Beecher and Mr. Gering will speak on this subject at the eleven o'clock service Sunday.
 Misses Julia O'Neil and Viola Oleson were hostesses to the F. P. F. club at a line party at the Keith Wednesday evening. Following the show a two course lunch was served at the Oasis.
 The county commissioners at their meeting Monday purchased a new 40-60 tractor made by the Minneapolis Machinery Co. One of the tractors which has been in use was traded in on the deal.
 The first rehearsal of the Community Chorus was held at the Franklin auditorium Wednesday, thirty members attending. With Mrs. Shriver as the very competent directress, the work started off in a very satisfactory manner.
 A delegation of eight or ten members of the local fire department will leave Monday for Scotts Bluff to attend the annual convention of the state volunteer firemen's association. The dates of the convention are January 21, 22 and 23.
 E. S. Davis, J. Guy Swope, Harold Langford, Harry York, Sam Van Dorn, C. M. York, Jas. Smallwood and Wm. Simants went to Paxton Wednesday for the installation of officers in the Encampment branch of the Odd Fellows.
 Mrs. E. D. Earhardt, of Cozad, who is at an Omaha hospital, is reported to be in a very serious condition. Mrs. Earhardt is a former resident of North Platte, Mr. Earhardt having been head baker of the Ideal bakery for a number of years.
 The entertainment committee of the B. P. O. Elks will submit to the trustees a proposition to finish off the third floor of the newer part of the building. This would give a room 40x75 feet in which the social functions of the members could be held.
 Diamonds—Dixon—Diamonds.
 Mrs. Sylvester Parr entertained at a luncheon Tuesday, with her mother, Mrs. Annie Church, and Mrs. Elizabeth Crusen as honor guests. Table decorations were violets, with violet place cards. Covers were laid for eight.
 We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors, the fraternal orders and post office force who so kindly assisted us and sent flowers during the long illness and death of our beloved father, the late P. H. McEvoy.
 HIS CHILDREN.

For Sale—An eight room house and three lots, garage and chicken house at 120 east Twelfth street, price $5,900. Also the former Julius Mogensen property at 109 east Ninth, modern house of nine rooms with closets, full basement and entirely modern; hay barn, smaller barn and smoke house on premises. Price $9,000. Inquire of George McKain at 109 east Ninth street. 1-2

Registered Shorthorn Cattle Sale.
 I. E. Burton and Geo. Russell will hold a sale of high class, useful Shorthorns at Maywood, February 11, 1920.
House For Sale
 Strictly modern 6 room house with garage, corner lot, on east Fifth. Also lot on west Fifth. Apply 1002 east Fifth or phone Red 1155. 1-2

Crystal, Saturday.
TOM MIX
 —IN—
"Hell Roarin' Reform"
 In which Tom ropes the boss and the moral regeneration of a bad town. A picture you may have seen before, and will want to see again. Also the Comedy—
Romeos and Jolly Juliets.

PUBLIC SALE

The undersigned will sell at public auction on his place about 12 miles northeast of North Platte, known as the Carl McGrew farm, Sec. 8-15-29

Wednesday, Jan. 28, 1920

Commencing at 1 o'clock, the following property, to-wit:

41 HEAD OF CATTLE
 13 head of milch cows, 5 fresh cows, 3 stock cows, 3 two year old heifers, 4 coming 2 year old heifers, 13 coming yearlings, 6 of which are heifers and 7 are steers, 5 fall calves, 1 REGISTERED WHITE FACE BULL, COMING 4 YEARS OLD.

10 HEAD OF HORSES
 Span bays, mare and gelding, 7 years old, wt. 2800; span geldings, 4 years old, wt. 2200; 1 gelding coming 4 years old, wt. 1100; span of smooth mottled mares, wt. 2400; 1 saddle mare; 1 colt coming 2 years old, 1 colt coming 1 year old.

11 HEAD OF HOGS
 Two brood sows and nine shoats weighing about 100 pounds each.

FOUR DOZEN CHICKENS

FARM MACHINERY
 Hay rack, walking plow, 2 harrows, hay sweep, hand corn sheller grindstone, wagon and box, buggy, hay rake, Rock Island lister, J. D. two row, lister cultivator, 2 Badger cultivators, 4 discs, 6-foot McCormick hay mower, 3 sets of work harness, Morse & Fairbanks engine and jack, DeLaval No. 15 cream separator, sod plow, about 50 tons of hay, incubator, 120 egg size, some household goods, and other articles too numerous to mention.

FREE LUNCH AT NOON

TERMS OF SALE—$20 and under cash; sums over $20, eight months time will be given on bankable paper bearing 10 per cent interest from date of sale. No property to be removed until settled for.

ED O'MARA, OWNER.
 H. M. JOHANSEN, Auctioneer. F. C. PIELSTICKER, Clerk