Attend Convention in Lincoln
 W. H. Barrett, manager of the farm department of the Hollman & Sebastian Agency, has just returned from Lincoln, where he attended the Nebraska Realty Dealers' Association convention which was held in the Lincoln hotel in the city. Matters of legislation tending to establish the business upon a professional basis and to eliminate irresponsible and transient dealers, commonly as "curbstoners", were considered and referred to the legislative committee. The Nebraska association took steps to affiliate with the National Board of Realtors.

After the adjournment of the realty dealers' convention Mr. Barrett was joined by J. E. Sebastian, general manager of the Hollman & Sebastian Agency, and together attended the annual convention of the Union Fire & Automobile Insurance Companies, which was also held at the Lincoln hotel. The report of the president shows a wonderful growth in all lines of insurance, particularly in the automobile and farm insurance departments, for the year 1919 and predicted a greater increase for 1920.

Steals Muskrat Hide!
 Breaking a light in a south window of the Lipshitz building and unlocking the lower sash, a thief entered L. Lipshitz's place of business Tuesday night and stole therefrom between eighty and ninety muskrat hides valued at over three hundred dollars. Mr. Lipshitz feels pretty certain that a non-resident who was in his place Tuesday is the guilty party. He offers a reward of $150 for the arrest and conviction of the thief and the return of the hides.

Democratic Party in Bad
 William Jennings Bryan in a dinner at Hotel Astor, in New York, stated that the democratic party could not go before the country in the national election and explain why it failed to reach a compromise on the peace treaty. He said that he loved his party uppermost and that failure to reach a compromise and insisting that the treaty be made a party issue could not be explained.

The diploma representing one of the bar-reliefs of the Arc de Triumphant in Paris, will bear the name of the deceased soldier with a recognition from the French people signed by the President of the French Republic. An interpretation accompanies the diploma.

NORTH PLATTE BIRD IS AWARDED SWEEPSTAKE PRIZE

J. A. McDonald, of this city, received a telegram Wednesday afternoon from Lincoln stating that his Light Brahma pullet which he had on exhibition at the state poultry show had been awarded champion of the show, at which 2,800 birds were exhibited. Mr. McDonald's Light Brahma cockerel won first premium in its class. Two years ago at the state show Mr. McDonald won the sweepstake with a bird of the same strain.
 M. C. Rodgers won the first prize for cockbirds of the Light Brahma strain at the show this week.

The premiums secured by the North Platte poultry breeders is evidence that their birds are among the best not only in the state but in the west.
Will Consider Social Evil
 Next Monday evening the city council, the county commissioners and the physicians of the city will hold a conference to consider the social evil, and discuss the advisability of establishing a public clinic and the possible quarantining of subjects. This conference follows the meeting of the council held last week at which Mrs. Barnes, a representative of the state board of health, made an address in which she severely attacked social conditions in this city.

 A photograph of the Mexican wanted for complicity in the murder of Thursday of last week has been secured from Council Bluffs where he was in jail for a crime committed. This photograph has been attached to post cards containing a description of the man and the cards mailed broadcast over the country. It is hoped that by means of this photograph and description the Mexican may be apprehended.

Appoints Chief of Police.
 At the meeting of the city council Tuesday evening Mayor Stretz presented the name of George E. Winslow for chief of police and the council unanimously confirmed the nomination. The appointee has been a resident of the city for a number of years and has followed the business of a contractor and builder. He has had past experience as a peace officer.

 The American Company has not as yet announced its price, but it will probably meet the advance made by the Great Western.

FOR SALE.
 New modern house, oak finish, corner location, with very little expense could be made into a double house. Rent from half would make goodly payments on property. Priced at cost of construction. Phone Red 834.

Proof of Convexity.
 The proofs of the convexity of the earth's surface are numerous and some of them exceedingly simple. If, standing on the seashore, in a clear day, we view a ship leaving the coast in any direction, the hull or body of the vessel first disappears; afterwards the rigging, and lastly the top of the highest mast vanishes from sight. Navigators have sailed around the earth. Among the earliest of these was the famous English sailor, Sir Francis Drake, who sailed from Plymouth, England, on December 13, 1577, and arrived at the same place on September 26, 1580. Many other early navigators, by sailing in a westerly direction, arrived at the country they sailed from. The form of the earth's shadow, as seen upon the moon in an eclipse, indicates the globular figure of the earth, and the consequent convexity of its surface.

Wisdom in Old Saying.
 The ancient proverb, "Shoemaker, stick to thy last," is said to have originated in ancient Greece. The artist Apelles painted his pictures and placed them by the wayside to hear the comments of passers-by. On one occasion he heard a shoemaker criticize a shoe in his picture as faulty, and he corrected the error. But when the shoemaker, noting that his advice had been accepted, criticized the drawing of the leg, Apelles was forced to cry out, "Shoemaker, stick by thy last," that is, you may criticize in your own department, but not otherwise.

A Scriptural Bull.
 Even the Bible is not free from bulls. In chapter thirty-seven of the book of Isaiah appears the following confusion of ideas: "Then the angel of the Lord went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians, a hundred and four score and five thousand; and when they arose early in the morning behold, they were all dead corpses."
