

NOW I don't like.
TO BE too personal.
BUT I saw you.
THE OTHER day.
WHEN YOU stood.
LOOKING at our window.
AND THERE was something.
IN THE expression.
ON YOUR face.
THAT SAID you thought.
THE DISPLAY was pretty.
AND THAT was enough.
TO MAKE me feel.
WELL paid.
FOR ALL the work.
OF PUTTING in.
THAT WINDOW display.
AND NOW right here.
WHILE WE'RE talking.
ABOUT it.
I WANT to suggest.

THAT IT might pay you.
TO STOP often and look.
AT OUR window.
BECAUSE every week.
WE PUT in something.
THAT IS worth-while.
LOOKING at.
AND EVEN if you.
DON'T NEED it just then.
WHEN YOU do.
COME TO need it.
YOU'LL remember.
THAT YOU saw it.
IN OUR window.
AND YOU'LL know
RIGHT WHERE to come.
AND GET it.
NOW isn't that
SOME idea?
ANOTHER poem.
NEXT WEEK.

The thirteen young ladies of the Nifecagee Camp Fire are to be assisted by four high school boys and many others, many of whom are of North Platte's best talent in giving this play. In securing Mrs. Tiley to coach them, the girls have the services of an unusually talented person along this special line, and not only are the girls being enabled to give a first class play, but they are learning much in the art of drama. The theme of this play, although a comedy, is of unusual merit and is being well worked out.

Are You a Good Citizen?
At a cost of many millions of dollars the government is endeavoring to take a census of its population. Will you assist to make this accurate and complete in North Platte?
