TO RESTORE THE HOLY LAND

Zionist Organization of America is Proceeding Along Comprehensive, Far-Reaching Plans.

The Zionist organization of America will prepare the Holy Land in every way for immigration of Jews from Russia, Poland, Galicia, Roumania and "other pogrom ridden countries," it announced. Large tracts of land in Palestine will be bought, and the plans provide for conservation and development of water power, inauguration of sanitation and drainage in cities and towns, irrigation, a forest station, survey and development of natural resources, and establishment of technical laboratories for agricultural purposes.

Basing its project on its confidence that Great Britain will assume a mandate over Palestine for the specific purpose of establishing there a homeland for the Jewish people, the Zionist organization has gone into comprehensive detail in its Holy Land arrangements, it stated. These provide for a school system from kindergartens to a university, financial loans to agricultural and industrial organizations, rehabilitation of devastated Jewish colonies, maintenance of hospitals and nurses' training schools, an anti-malaria campaign and improvement of housing conditions in Jerusalem, Jaffa and other cities.

SETTLED HIS RIVAL'S HASH

Man's Remark Could Only Be Classified as a Remarkable Inspiration of Genius.

Every man thinks all sorts of things about his rival, but not every man is genius enough to say exactly the right thing to lower his rival's opinion of the same rival. But recently a remark was overheard in a downtown restaurant which proved that one man possessed that ability. He and his best girl were eating when the other man entered the restaurant. Immediately he came to them, shook hands with the girl and, after being introduced to the first man, talked a few minutes.

Now, the girl had quoted this second man so much that his name to the first man was like the sight of a red flag. And she firmly expected a stormy session when the intruder left. But instead of that the escort calmly went on with his eating, offering only one comment: "There's one man I'll never be jealous of again."

CORN WEEVIL IS EASY TO HANDLE

Florida County Agent Reports Most Valuable Work in Control of Harmful Insect.

SERIES OF MEETINGS HELD

As a Result of Illustrated Lectures Great Many Farmers Have Built Tight Cribs for Proper Housing and Fumigation of Corn.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The Marion county (Florida) agricultural agent, co-operating with the bureau of entomology's field agent in Florida, reports his most valuable work to be controlling the corn weevil. During the current season approximately 50,000 bushels of corn were raised in this county. The agent held a series of meetings and gave illustrated lectures about the evils and control of the corn weevil, with the result that a great many farmers have built tight cribs for the proper housing and fumigation of their corn, and as a direct consequence many thousands of bushels of corn have been salvaged.

Crib Is First Essential.

An airtight crib large enough to store a reasonable amount of corn is the first essential in combating the weevil. It is also necessary that the corn be thoroughly dry to prevent heating before it is placed in the cribs for fumigation. The best results usually follow where the husks are removed from the corn, so that the grain can be placed in an open crib for a period of ten to fifteen days where it will have access to plenty of light and air. This also operates to free the grain from the weevil, which cannot withstand light, especially sunshine.

Apply Carbon Disulphid.

After the corn is thoroughly dry, it should be placed in an airtight crib and four pounds of carbon disulphid should be applied for each 1,000 cubic feet of space in the crib. If the husks are not removed, the quantity should be doubled. The application should not be made on damp or rainy days, as too much moisture prevents speedy evaporation. A second fumigation should be performed within 25 to 30 days after the first. Ordinarily, two fumigations are sufficient to save the corn crop, although it is essential to watch the grain closely thereafter, and, if necessary, to make use of the carbon disulphid treatment a third time.

WINDBREAK FOR LIVE STOCK

Good Protection From Winter Winds and Gives Animals Chance to Stay Outdoors.

Right now when the winter winds are blowing there are many farmers who wish they had a windbreak on the exposed side of their homes. They are a fine protection for live stock and give the cows a chance to spend sunny days outside when the cold winds would otherwise be very uncomfortable. If the soil is not too moist the Norway spruce makes a satisfactory windbreak. The white pine is also quite generally used for that purpose.

SERIOUS PEST OF POTATOES

Flea Beetles, Colorado Beetles, Early and Late Scab, Can Be Controlled or Prevented.

The most serious enemies in potato culture are flea beetles, Colorado potato beetles, early and late blight, rot, scab and powdered mildew. Most, if not all of these, can be controlled or prevented by frequent and thorough applications of a combination of lime and copper-sulphate with water, which is nothing else but the great fungicide bordeaux mixture.

HARM BY WHITE ANTS CAN BE CONTROLLED

Insects Are Especially Injurious to Foundation Timbers.

Woodwork Can Be Protected From Attacks of Bugs by Proper Construction—Coal Tar Creosote is Quite Efficient.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Damage by white ants is serious to many classes of crude and finished forest products. These insects are especially injurious to foundation timbers and woodwork of buildings and to material stored therein. Damage to timber in contact with the ground is especially serious in the South.

The woodwork of buildings can be protected from the attack of white ants by proper construction and these insects can be eliminated where already established, say entomologists.

Where possible make the foundation of buildings entirely of stone, brick, or concrete, including stone columns or pillars in the basement to support the floor above; make walls and flooring in basement or cellar of concrete, and lay concrete floors on a gravel base.

Where stone or concrete foundations are impracticable, use timber impregnated with coal-tar creosote.

Lay basement window sills and frames over concrete and do not allow woodwork to come in contact with the ground. Never sink untreated timber in ground or moist concrete; let no wood be in contact with the ground.

Complete dryness of the foundation and basement walls and flooring is an important means of rendering buildings safe from attack; therefore, provide for air spaces between the ground and wooden flooring and lay concrete floors on a gravel base.

Promptly examine the foundation timbers and other woodwork in the basement to determine the approximate point of entrance and the extent of damage already accomplished. After removing the damaged wood drench the ground with kerosene oil.

Then replace damaged timber with rock, brick, concrete or metal work; or substitute, for the foundation, timbers impregnated with coal-tar creosote.

Since termites always require access to damp earth, shut off this source of moisture and the insects will not be able to extend their galleries farther and will perish.

Full information concerning the control of this pest is contained in Farmers' Bulletin 1037.

LESS PICKLES ARE PICKLED

Estimate of 2,162,036 Bushels in 1919 Compared With 6,818,322 Bushels in Year 1918.

Of 509 pickle packers on the lists of the bureau of crop estimates, United States department of agriculture, 405 reported that they had contracted for and harvested 40,211 acres of cucumbers in 1919. This compares with 65,487 acres reported by 475 packers as having been contracted for and harvested in 1918. Based on reports received from the packers as to the average yield per acre this year, it is estimated 2,162,036 bushels were produced in 1919 on the contracted acreage reported, as compared with 6,818,322 bushels in 1918. No stock procured in the open market is included in the above estimates.

Frequently no scales are at hand when the feeder is trying to feed a balanced ration. The following estimates of the common feeding stuffs will be handy: A quart measure of cottonseed meal weighs 1.5 pounds; wheat bran (course), 5 pound; wheat middlings (course), 8 pound; wheat middlings (fine), 1.1 pounds; mixed wheat feed (6), 1.1 pounds; cornmeal, 1.5 pounds; oats, 1.2 pounds; rye bran, .5 pound; linseed meal, 1.1 pounds; gluten, 1.2 pounds.

MANURE APPLIED IN WINTER

No Better Place Than on Fall-Sown Crops—Practically No Loss of Valuable Fertility.

If stable manure of any kind is available during the winter, there is no better place to apply it than on the fall-sown cover crops, or on clover and grass sods. When thus applied, there will be practically no loss of fertility—much less than if the manure is kept in yards, especially if uncovered.

INDIGESTION

Caused by Acid-Stomach

Millions of people—in fact about 9 out of 10—suffer more or less from indigestion, acute or chronic. Nearly every case is caused by Acid-Stomach.

There are other stomach disorders which also are sure signs of Acid-Stomach—belching, heartburn, bloating after eating, food repeating, sour, gassy stomach. There are many ailments which, while they do not cause much distress in the stomach itself, are, nevertheless, traceable to an acid-stomach. Among these are nervousness, biliousness, cirrhosis of the liver, rheumatism, impoverished blood, weakness, insomnia, melancholia and a long train of physical and mental miseries that keep the victims in miserable health year after year. The right thing to do is to attack these ailments at their source—get rid of the acid-stomach. A wonderful modern remedy called EATONIC now makes it easy to do this.

One of hundreds of thousands of grateful users of EATONIC writes: "I have been troubled with indigestion for about nine years and have spent quite a sum for medicine, but without relief. After using EATONIC for a few days the gas and pain in my bowels disappeared. EATONIC is just the remedy I needed."

We have thousands of letters telling of these marvelous benefits. Try EATONIC and you, too, will be just as enthusiastic in its praise.
