Frederick Kade Passes Away.

Frederick Kade, one of the early settlers of Lincoln county, passed away at his home in Pomona, Cal., Tuesday. For several years he had been in poor health, resulting largely from an accident, having been run down by an automobile. Mr. Kade came to Lincoln county in the early seventies as a member of either the Third or Fifth Cavalry and was stationed at Ft. McPherson. Receiving his discharge he took up a homestead where he lived for a number of years, later moving to this city. Eight or ten years ago he went to California to make his home. He was married a second time, his last wife passing away May of last year.

Did you know that a Chandler standard touring car is still $2095 delivered in North Platte. You know the record of these good cars—maybe you did not know that many former small and cheaper cars are now equal and some higher in price than the Chandler, and all of its old price mates are now from $300 to $900 higher. Consider both value and price, and you will find no profiteering here.—J. V. ROMIGH, Dealer.
