

ADMIRALS MEET ON BATTLESHIP PENNSYLVANIA

This photograph, taken at Guantanamo bay, Cuba, where the Atlantic fleet is at winter practice, shows Admiral Simpson boarding the battleship Pennsylvania to meet Admiral Wilson.

AERIAL FUNERAL IN SAN JOSE, CAL.

The coffin of Charles J. Abrames, aviator of San Jose, Cal., on the airplane which carried it to Oak Hill cemetery, outside San Jose. Abrames' dying request was that his body be taken to the cemetery in an airplane.

NIAGARA FALLS IN ITS WONDERFUL WINTER MANTLE

The impressive majesty of Niagara Falls garbed in its winter mantle of white. This great work of nature is even more entrancing in winter than in the summer months. Today the waters are frozen, and huge hillocks of snow and ice cover rocks and river. Under the great wall of ice the torrents of Niagara pour down, the crashing water hushed by its winter covering.

MASSACHUSETTS SILVER MINE FOUND BY RABBIT HUNTERS

General view of the Newburyport, Mass., silver mine which, after lying idle for nearly half a century, is again being worked. It was discovered 46 years ago by boys who were chasing rabbits. Modern methods of mining have made it possible to reopen the old mine.

MEXICAN CHURCH RUINED BY QUAKE

View of the ruins of the high altar in a church in the Mexican town of Teocelo, stricken in the recent earthquake.

PRINCE WHO IS AN AVIATOR

Prince Axel of Denmark, cousin of King George and also of the king of Denmark, is an aviation enthusiast and holder of an aviator's certificate. He was, during the war, a lieutenant in the Danish navy.

SCION OF THE NOBILITY

Arthur Valerian Wellesley, grandson of the duke of Wellington and son of Lord and Lady G. Wellesley. Lord Wellesley is attache at Rome for England at present.

"THE BROTHER OF PROMETHEUS"

Onorio Ruotolo, the Italian-American sculptor of New York city, thus crystallizes in marble the spirit and energy of Thomas Alva Edison, who was seventy-three years old on February 11. Ruotolo recently completed this study, which he calls "The Brother of Prometheus."

GLASS STEPS OUT, HOUSTON IN

David F. Houston, at right, receiving his commission as secretary of the Treasury from Carter Glass, the retiring secretary.

GINGER BOY

Ginger Boy was the smallest dog seen in the show of the American Pomeranian club in New York. He weighs two pounds, two ounces.

WELL-KNOWN WASHINGTONIAN

New photograph of Mrs. Thomas Marshall, wife of the vice president, and little Morrison Marshall, their adopted son.

ATLANTIC FLEET IN CUBAN WATERS

From front to back, the dreadnaughts Arizona, Oklahoma, Nevada, Delaware, Utah and Florida following the flagship Pennsylvania in winter maneuvers at Guantanamo bay.