MADGE KENNEDY
 IN
"The Blooming Angel"
 Shades of Barnum!

P. T. Barnum bunced the world with a white elephant but she went him one better when she jazzed up the town with a pink elephant and a brass band. It's a typical, zippical made Kennedy comedy.

Always Boosting for Lincoln County.
 The H. & S. Agency-Farm Department, under the management of Mr. W. H. Barrett, is doing some REAL BOOSTING for North Platte and Lincoln County. As a starter for 1920, Mr. Barrett has contracted with The World-Herald for a seven weeks' advertising campaign which will be devoted entirely to Lincoln County. In addition he has mailed the following letter to over 200 real estate dealers in eastern Nebraska, Iowa and Illinois. March 9, 1920.

Dear Sir:
 DO YOU KNOW that existing conditions in Lincoln County, Nebraska, were never more favorable? This feature should be sufficient evidence to assure you of the advisability of devoting your time in dealing in Lincoln County lands. Appreciating this fact, we have increased our listings in order to protect you in handling your prospects for we realize that, if we are not lined up at this end to take care of your business, we are not going to be able to hold you with us.

You have, no doubt, watched with interest the advance in the price of lands in eastern Nebraska, Iowa and Illinois—lands which are no more productive than those in Lincoln County, where from two to five acres can be bought for the price of one acre in eastern Nebraska, Iowa and Illinois.

Eastern farmers do not realize the advantages and opportunities to be had in Lincoln County, Nebraska, where the land will produce as many dollars per acre as the high priced eastern land.

We have had no land boom in Lincoln County—just a gradual increase in value due to developments and natural conditions. NOW IS THE TIME FOR YOU TO LINE UP WITH US and assist us in the sale of Lincoln County farms and ranches.

Our service will consist of good advertising literature and persistent newspaper advertising. Our first advertising campaign for 1920 commences March 17th through the Omaha World-Herald and will run for seven consecutive weeks. WILL THIS BE OF ANY SPECIAL ADVANTAGE TO YOU?
 What are your proposals as to cooperation at this time?
 Yours very truly,
 THE H. & S. AGENCY,
 by W. H. BARRETT,
 Manager Farm Department.
 The H. & S. Agency has also published a very attractive pamphlet descriptive of Lincoln County for distribution.
 WE SAY—CONTINUE THE GOOD WORK.

Twentieth Century Club Meeting.
 The regular meeting of the Twentieth Century Club was held at the home of Mrs. C. F. Spencer Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Wilson Tout and Mrs. Mary Elder assisting hostesses. Mrs. Gilfoyle conducted the singing in her very efficient manner. Miss Walker sang a solo with Miss Emma Bogue as accompanist.

The business of the evening consisted of the election of officers; the adoption of resolutions favoring congressional action in support of the Newland Reclamation and Conservation Commission; and a contribution for the restoration and maintenance of the birthplace of Longfellow, the poet, at Portland, Me.

The Club listened to a splendid health talk by Miss Louise M. Murphy, a Nebraska public health nurse, who is giving this week to Lincoln county under the auspices of the Woman's Club to create an interest in medical inspection of school children, their mental and physical development, in general hygiene and sanitation.

Delegates to the biennial meeting of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs which meets in Des Moines, Ia., in June, were elected Mrs. Geo. Frater being a state delegate, Mrs. R. A. Cotterell was elected to represent the Club.

Mrs. Geo. Frater and Mrs. W. C. Shelver were elected delegates to the Sixth district convention which meets at Chadron in April.

The election of officers for the year beginning in June resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Geo. Frater; vice-president, Mrs. W. C. Shelver; recording secretary, Mrs. Wilson Tout; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Joseph Roddy; treasurer, Mrs. W. A. Skinner; press correspondent, Mrs. Chas. F. Spencer.

The Fiddler and the Fire.

This is the title of the lecture to be given next Monday night by Fred G. Bale. It is the fourth number of the Lecture Course and will be given in the Franklin auditorium at eight o'clock. The lecture is a plea for the conservation of our national resources and it germinates thought, grips human interest and galvanizes into action. Mr. Bale was Prosecutor in the Juvenile Court of Columbus, Ohio, for four years. At that time a yearly average of 1500 children passed thru the court and were under his observation. You can see the opportunity he had to get the child point of view and study the remedies for juvenile delinquency. Every holder of a season ticket is admitted without further charge. General admission is 50c for adults and 25c for school people. Monday, March 15th.
