Reports from the camps already in existence were very favorable and general results satisfying. It is probable that several additional camps will be organized.

To Vote on the Code Bill

The supreme court decision affirming the legality of the referendum petition puts the code bill squarely into a campaign that is already loaded down with more issues than the smartest voter can keep in his mind. The result of the decision will be to hold up the law until it can be voted on. The department heads must stop drawing their five thousand dollar salaries and more or less confusion will descend upon the whole state house. It is the most serious set-back Governor McKelvie has yet experienced.

Organize for Base Ball Season

A meeting for the purpose of organizing a ball team was held Friday at the Landgraf barber shop, a number of fans attending. Messrs. Hensley and Dedmore were elected managers and R. C. Langford treasurer. It was the sense of the meeting that a salaried catcher and pitcher be secured and that other positions be filled by local players. Todenhoff, of Stapleton will be added to the pitching staff when necessity requires. With a salaried catcher and pitcher there is ample material in town to put a strong team in the field.
