LOCAL AND PERSONAL

J. E. Sebastian left last night on a business trip to Omaha and other eastern points.

E. V. Jennings and Miss Mary Miller, both of Sutherland, were united in marriage by Judge Woodhurst Saturday.

Cut glass, fine line. S. AUSTIN.

Mrs. Fred Stoddard, of Lena, arrived a few days ago to assist in caring for her father, A. R. Adamson, who is critically ill.

For Sale—White ivory bed, sewing machine, three rocking chairs. 609 W. Fourth street.

Fifteen months on the rock pile and his heart still full of sun and moonshine. See how Lloyd (Ham) Hamilton does it at the Crystal Theatre, Tonight.

Lady bookkeeper wanted, steady employment. Inquire of Star Bottling and Mercantile Co.

The G. I. A. will meet Friday afternoon at the K. P. hall. There will be initiation services, following which a lunch will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Valerius will leave about April first for Detroit, Mich., to make their future home. They resided in that city prior to coming to North Platte.

Clinton & Son, Graduate Opticians, see them for Service.

Harry Block will within the next week start the erection of a new home on his lot on the corner of Fourth and Willow streets. It will be a two-story nine room house with stucco finish and will cost not less than $12,000.00. D. M. Hognett has been engaged to superintend the construction.

Dr. H. C. Brock, Dentist. X-Ray Diagnosis. Reynolds Bldg. Phone 148

The business of the Mutual Building & Loan Association for the year ending March 1st was $696,000, and the total resources on that date were $1,198,000. The loans on real estate held by the association amount to $1,141,000. It can thus be seen that the association is one of considerable importance among the financial institutions of not only North Platte but of the state.

Black Minorca eggs for setting $1.50 per setting or $10 per 100. Inquire of Otto Mesmer or phone 796F14. 18-5

C. F. Tracey, who as secretary of the B. of L. E. protective board has been in Omaha for six weeks attending the conferences of the board and the Union Pacific officials, came home Friday to spend a couple of days, returning to Omaha Sunday. The board will complete its work in a week or ten days.

Wanted to buy—5 or 6 room house. Also a Jack for sale. Inquire 516 East F St.

Inspector Moore, of the state auto license department, spent the latter part of last week in town, and will return here today or tomorrow. His business here is to look up licenses and records as regards stolen cars and also to see that car owners have taken out the 1920 license. Failure to take out a license subjects the violator to prosecution.

Framed Parchments just arrived at Dixons. Very fine variety and new versions.

See us for wall paper. The Rexall Store. 141f

Mrs. Ralph Garman returned the latter part of last week from Malvern, Ia., where she was called on business a week before.

W. C. Cole, for many years a farmer living west of the city and who sold his land last year, was married at Lincoln March 13th, to Mrs. Minnie Stewart, of Ord, Neb. They will make their future home in Omaha, where Mr. Cole is in the employ of the Updike Lumber and coal company.

For Sale—New four room house, modern except heat, full basement. Good location. Good terms. Phone Blk 260. 20-4

The Northwest Warriors is the name of a new organization that is being formed in the west and a lodge will be formed in North Platte within the next week or so. The object of the organization is to build up Americanism, and fundamentally to fight the red element, I. W. W.'s, and their like. An organizer will reach here soon to tell why the Northwest Warriors are necessary in order that the United States may be made safer for Americans.

A pair of properly fitted glasses will stop that headache, Clinton & Son Opticians.

A. R. Adamson, author, poet and master mechanic, who has reached the advanced age of past eighty-one years, has been confined to the house for some time and is now bed-ridden with an attack of bronchitis. His condition is pronounced critical by the attending physician, his advanced years leaving but little vigor with which to combat the trouble. We regret the condition of our old friend who has made North Platte his home for so many years and who is so well and favorably known to so many of our people.

Most up to date wall paper patterns at the Rexall. 141f

'Her Kindgm of Dreams'

There is a kingdom of dreams in every woman's dream and this is the story—a symphony on the pulse of life.

What an extraordinary food is BREAD

Not only is it the most nutritious, most economical food there is—not only is it simply delicious with butter, jam or toasted—but innumerable delicacies and appealing dainties can be made with it.

Use BAKE-RITE Bread when trying this appetizing recipe:

STEAMED BREAD PUDDING
2 cups fresh or stale bread crumbs	1 teaspoon soda
1/2 cup chopped suet	1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup hot water	1/2 teaspoon powdered cinnamon
1 cup flour	1 teaspoon powdered ginger
1 cup molasses	1/2 teaspoon grated nutmeg
1 cup currants	Few blanched almonds
	1 egg

Grease a mold and decorate it with almonds. Pour hot water over bread crumbs, add molasses, suet, flour, soda, spices, currants, salt and egg well beaten. Turn into prepared mold, cover with greased paper and steam steadily for two and a half hours. Serve with hotmilk or sweet sauce.

Give your family steamed bread pudding this evening and make them happy. WE USE COW BRAND FLOUR EXCLUSIVELY.

BAKE-RITE BAKERY.

Mrs. Hansen Passes Away

Mrs. Willads Hansen, aged seventy-five died at her home on east Fifth street Saturday morning of a complication of diseases. Funeral services were held at the home yesterday afternoon conducted by Rev. C. F. Koch.

The deceased was born in Denmark in 1884 and was married in that country to Mr. Hansen. They came to North Platte in 1883, and had since continuously made this city their home.

Bereaved are the husband and a niece, Miss Thea Hansen, who had made her home with her uncle and aunt since early childhood.

Gus Thiemann Dies

Gus F. Thiemann, who for several years had been located in town and followed the vocation of carpenter, died at the Ritzner hotel Thursday night from the result of a hemorrhage.

Though he had been a victim of asthma, his condition was about normal until the early part of last week, when he became worse, but it was not until Thursday a physician was called, but by that time his condition was such that medical aid was of no avail and he passed away about midnight. The funeral was held yesterday, the wife and son of the deceased coming from Grand Island to attend the service.
