First Presbyterian Church.

The Sunday School will give an Easter program at ten o'clock and all members are urged to be present and on time. At the eleven o'clock hour there will be the reception of members and the baptism of children followed with the communion. It is especially desired that every member of the church be present for these services as there is to be a large number to be received into the church. The service at eight in the evening will be the calling of the roll of the service flag of the boys whose names were entered on it as an act of honor. All the boys whose names appeared are requested to be present at 7:45 p. m. Dr. Kerr and Loren Sturges will favor us with talks. There are two gold stars on the flag and in answer to their names. Norman Moulton will read taps after which the flag will be placed amongst the sacred memories of the church. The choir will render their Easter music at this evening service. You are cordially welcomed to these services and especially the parents of the boys.

The annual congregational meeting of this church will be next Tuesday evening at six o'clock at which time there will be the annual church dinner for members and friends of the church. Every member of the congregation is urged to be present.

"THE HOUSE OF BETTER VALUES"

EASTER

the turning point

April 4th 1920,--Easter, marks the passing of winter monotony--the turning point--the real beginning of cheertful spring.

Clothes have a definite place in the transition.

The way to do is to step forth in new wearables--reflect the ambition and the vigor that comes with the new season.

Kuppenheimer good Clothes express the "Spring" feeling properly. They are nice in their American fashion--they are earnest in their quality of material and workmanship. And they are true in their wear-worthiness.

Typical American clothes—for men who want good appearance and 100 per cent value.

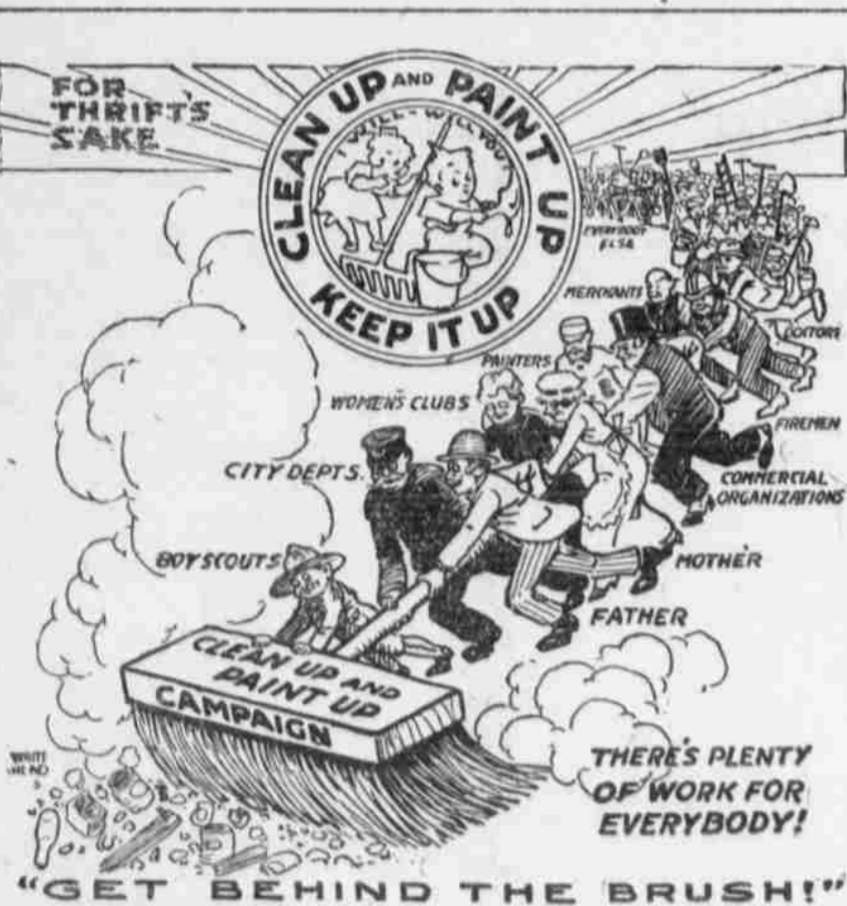

The hat, the shirt, the scarf — accessories for your Easter outfit are ready for you here.
