GOOD CLOTHES.

Woodgate-Putman.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the F. H. Woodgate residence Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 when his daughter Goldie Viola Woodgate became the bride of Richard B. Putman, Rev. C. F. Koch, officiating. To the strains of a wedding march rendered by Mrs. Harold d'Ayes, the contracting parties took their places, the bride being attended by Mrs. Albert Baker and the groom by Herbert Woodgate.

The bride was becomingly gowned in white georgette and carried an arm bouquet of roses. The guests were limited to the immediate relatives.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Putman will leave shortly for Caspar, Wyo., where they will make their home.

The bride is well and favorably known in both city and county, having lived for a number of years near Farmington before the removal of the family to North Platte. Mr. Putman came here from Newtonia, Mo., and is highly esteemed by acquaintances.

Infants Dresses a complete line at Wilcox Department Store.

Know what a buckaroo is? Well, look in the dictionary, and you likely won't find this: Buckaroo (buck-aroo)—A gay dog; one who doesn't give a dern; a rip-snortin' Ang-bustin' devil-may-care critter from away back, headed for the land-knows-where. Better see the Buckaroo at the Crystal Saturday.

If you are at all in need of a new spring silk dress you surely cannot afford to miss the Big Dress Sale beginning Saturday morning at Block's.

The more we see of primary elections the less we think of them. The cost of a primary election in Lincoln county is about four thousand dollars; as a rule less than fifty per cent of the voters go to the polls; party organizations have become disrupted and mob politics rule; the voters don't appreciate their given right to select candidates, and the candidates selected are not a whit better qualified than under the old convention rule. Under convention nominations the candidates were distributed throughout the county; under the primary system the Platte Valley has the votes to dictate the nominations and gobble all the offices.

Remember, we guarantee our alterations, and we are doing it to your entire satisfaction absolutely FREE of charge. BLOCK'S.

TONIGHT "Engaged by Wednesday" as given by the Niagara Camp Fire Girls. The special scenery is in place and the cast all ready to give you an evening of wholesome laughter and unflinching interest. You can't afford to miss it. Tickets only 50c and 25c. Franklin Auditorium, Friday evening, April 9th.
