

We have Proper Presents for Brides and
Sweet-Girl
Graduates.

MOTHERS and FATHERS:—

When your daughter graduates, or when she weds, give her something which will be worthy of the occasion.

FRIENDS:—

The best time to show your true appreciation is when your friend graduates or marries.

When a present comes from our store the recipient knows that the one who sends it bears towards her the kindest thoughts.

Lawrence-Matthewson Wedding.

A pretty wedding occurred at one o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Matthewson when their daughter Alice became the bride of Dewey Lawrence, Rev. Stevens performing the ceremony. The house and table decorations were in red and white, represented largely in vases of cut flowers. The bride, who was attended by her sister Miss Ethel Matthewson, of David City, wore a gown of white satin and georgette crepe and carried a bouquet of white roses, while the maid was gowned in white messaline and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. The groom was extraordinary sale of ladies highest Lucy Matthewson rendered the wedding march.

Dinner followed the ceremony and later Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence left on a wedding trip to Denver and Salt Lake. Upon their return they will live on south Locust street.

The bride for some time was employed as stenographer in the office of Beeler, Crosby & Bagkins and in addition to her business qualifications is a finished musician. Mr. Lawrence is a Lincoln county boy, having spent the greater part of his life on a farm near Hershey. Coming here several years ago he entered the train department of the Union Pacific in which he is now employed.

Be Prepared.

Your boy will be prepared for any emergency if a trained Scout. Help prepare him by supporting Boy Scout and Camp Fire Girl Campaign.
