The sunsets of the desert which seems to drown the world in a flood of crimson; the vastness of Arizona's aridity; the power of pioneer dauntlessness; the depth of primitive loves; the riproaring, racy, recklessness of Tom Mix roll them all into one skyrocket photodrama and you have "Desert Love" at the Keith, Wednesday and Thursday.

Banquet to Cadet.

The thirty-five boys who are members of the high school cadets had one of "the times of their lives" Friday evening when they were guests of the mothers of the boys at a banquet held in the basement of the Lutheran church. Other than Commandant Reynolds and Rev. Koch, only cadet boys were present, and with a dinner such as appeals to a boy, and with cheers and songs they made merry the evening with an enthusiasm that convinced the mothers that their efforts to please their sons had been eminently successful. The dinner prepared and served by the mothers was such as to completely fill the "aching void" of each boy, and if one helping was not enough he was given two.

This "mixing" of mothers and sons is to be commended, the fact is such events should be more frequently given.

A Hudson speedster, owned by Fred Tetro, living south of Brady, was stolen Saturday evening from Dewey street near Sixth where it had been parked. Sunday morning men coming from Brady reported a car ditched south of the Keith ranch and upon going there Sheriff Salisbury round the Tetro car. He brought it to town and turned it over to the owner. The thief had evidently struck out for the hills and had become mired on the bottom land.

Loren Elyer will arrive this week, and Catched Ramsey and Infielder Holiday have been in town for a week. Julesburg has asked for a game next Sunday, but whether this will be accepted depends on whether weather conditions this week will permit the boys to get in the proper shape.

STYLE WITH A CAPITAL "S"

"Comfort is the first consideration with me when I buy shoes, but of course I want a good looker too. I like soft, pliable leather, roomy toe and hooks instead of eyelets. It's no fun bending over long enough to fool with eyelets when I lace 'em.

I have worn this same style of Shoe Market shoe for a long while now and can recommend it to any man who wants a good, reliable shoe."

Just as this pleasing illustration creates a favorable impression, so Shoe Market Shoes appeal to everyone who sees them. The Oxford shown above comes in soft, dark brown kid or calf.
