

GOAL DUST LODGED IN MINER'S LUNGS

Tells how his cough was conquered and health restored.

"In November, 1916, I was working in a coal mine and the doctors said the coal dust had settled in my lungs. I couldn't lie down on my right side, coughed so I couldn't sleep and had constant pain in my right lung and under my shoulder blades. I coughed so hard the blood would spurt out of my nose. Finally the doctors had me change climate and live outdoors, but didn't improve.

"Then I came home and started on the Milks Emulsion. Thank God I did, as it did me a lot of good right from the start, loosening up the coal dust in my right lung. In a few weeks my lungs were free. I could sleep like a baby, had an excellent appetite and my cough left me entirely. I gained back 30 pounds in weight and went back to work in the mines completely restored to health."

G. H. Bunn, 6th Ave. & No. 13th St., Terre Haute, Ind.

"Thousands of victims of dust-filled air develop the same trouble that Mr. Bunn had. Milks Emulsion costs nothing to try, so why not at least try it?"

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all used of pills and cathartics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. It helps build flesh and strength, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases.

"This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

Salmon Fleets Sail for North

"Windjammers" in Vanguard of Fish Hunters Include Some Famed Boats.

RECORD CATCH NOT EXPECTED

Many Alaska Canneries Plan to Reduce Their Pack This Year and Others May Not Open at All.

Seattle Wash.—Big full-rigged "windjammers," some famous as American clipper ships long ago, already are spreading their sails and heading for Alaska, the vanguard of summer salmon fleets which go north every year to work with the scores of fish canneries that dot northern harbors and inlets.

Dozens of other craft, steamers, gas boats, barges and tugs, are going north with the sailing ships. Before winter they will all come plowing back with this year's fish catch canned and packed and stored in their holds.

No record salmon catch is expected this year, according to reports from Alaska. Most of the southeastern Alaska canneries expect to reduce their pack this year from one-third to one-half normal and several will not operate at all. One cause for the cut is the fact that all of last year's pack has not been sold. Low markets are given as another reason.

Short Catch Last Year.

Alaska's salmon output last year was 1,592,201 cases, the smallest since 1915. The high-water mark of Alaska's salmon years came in 1918, when, in response to a war call for food, the canneries sent 6,087,560 cases out.

Most of the salmon are packed in southeastern Alaska, a strip of territory that juts south between northern British Columbia and the Pacific ocean. Last year southeastern Alaska fisheries turned out 3,108,364 cases, against 775,557 from central Alaska and 708,290 from far western Alaska points. The central Alaska plants extend from Cape St. Elias westward to the Alaska peninsula. The far western plants are on the shores of Bristol bay and the Bering sea.

About 125 salmon canneries were operated in Alaska last year by nearly sixty companies. Several big concerns operated more than one plant. The Alaska Packers' association leading with ten. Libby, McNeill & Libby were second with nine. The Northwestern Fisheries company operated seven and the Pacific American Fisheries company four.

Nearly all the boats of the fishing fleets sail north from Puget Sound, although one of the largest fleets, that of the Alaska Packers' association, makes its headquarters in San Francisco bay. The Libby, McNeill & Libby and the Northwestern company boats winter here, the Libby boats riding in the fresh water of Lake Union. The Pacific American company operates from Bellingham. Portland, South Bend, Everett, Olympia, Astoria, Anacortes and other ports send their share of fishing vessels north.

Five or six thousand men are going north to spend the summer working at the fisheries. In the fall they will come back with the boats and the catch. For several weeks passenger steamers running to Alaska have been carrying capacity lists of cannery employees. The Northwestern and the Anacortes Fisheries company, both subsidiaries of the Booth Fisheries company, will use 1,500 men in the north this year.

CLOTH FROM HAIR OF COWS

Experiments at Pottsville, Pa., Show Products Closely Resembling Cheviot.

Pottsville, Pa.—Men's clothing made out of cows' hair will soon rival the wool taken from sheep, declare agents of a packing company, who have been experimenting with the product here. The new cloth resembles cheviot.

Cows cannot be clipped like sheep, but the hair can be taken from all steers killed, which, it is said, would make clothing for half the men in America.

Musician Discovers Tune Played By Submarines

London.—The tune which the deadly submarine played as it moved beneath the waves was discovered by an admiralty official who was an expert musician.

It has just been revealed that when the sea lords were seeking means of detecting the approach of a submarine, Sir Richard Paget, stripped to the waist was lowered head down into the water. He came up humming the exact note made by the moving submarine.

From this small and strange beginning sound detectors were perfected which saved many lives and resulted in the sinking of many U-boats.

Railroad Solves Important Problem.

Bedford, Ind.—Officials of the Monon railroad quickly solved the housing problem for Jess Enochs, in charge of a section gang at Salem. The house occupied by Enochs and his family had been sold and there was not a vacant one in town, so the railroad sent a combination sleeping and dining car, which Enochs has transformed into a five-room bungalow.

Crush Strikes at Inception

Spain Uses Iron Hand and Claps Labor Leaders into Jail.

BIG BUSINESS OPTIMISTIC

Republic Is Long Way Off, Is Opinion of British Government Official Who Has Been Making Study of the Situation.

London.—Big business men of Spain are backing their faith in the future stability of Spain by spending their money on big projects in their country.

England, it is stated, is apt to have nationalization of mines and railroads long before Spain overthrows the monarchy and sets up a republic.

This is the gist of what a British government official and business man said after a month's trip through Spain.

"Reports of strikes and rumors of revolution in Spain have been numerous.

Throw Leaders in Jail.

"But," said this official, "far from closing its eyes to strikes, the government seems to have a very summary way with them. In fact, it has a way which would not be attempted in Anglo-Saxon countries.

"The military promptly clap the leaders of the strike into jail, and it naturally dies down after that.

"The only trouble I saw in Madrid was a lockout by the employers against the employees in the building trades.

"It lasted in Spain for weeks and weeks before it was finally settled.

"I asked the Spaniards what would happen if there were a big national strike of railway men.

"The response was that most of the railroaders were of military age; that they would be promptly called back to the colors; that they would be enrolled in regiments of railway engineers and put back to work on the railways—not as employees of the roads, but as soldiers of the nation. Whether such a drastic program would be carried out I do not know, but it was discussed quite freely.

"Business men told me there was not as much unrest in Spain as there was in England, France and America.

"Spain is suffering from the same malady all civilized countries are suffering from—high cost of living and a consequent insistent demand made by the working class for much higher wages. The same vicious circle is being gone through with in Spain."

Sees Business Growth.

He said he found business men in Madrid, Spanish, English and French, preparing to invest their money in very large Spanish projects, which was the best sign that no serious trouble was looked for.

"In Spain," said he, "business men have a cynical saying that the revolution is always going to happen to-morrow, but that tomorrow never comes.

"Of course, there is dissatisfaction in the industrial cities, but 80 per cent of the people of Spain do not live in the cities, but are peasant farmers, loyal to church and king, and for the most part indifferent to politics."

Quit Lecture, Says Boy Sent to Death Chair

Jesse Walker, 19, who killed Samuel Wolchock in his stationery store at 208 Wyckoff avenue, Brooklyn, when attempting to rob the store, was arraigned for sentence before Supreme Court Justice Fawcett in Brooklyn. The Justice addressed the prisoner for several minutes, speaking of the gravity of the crime, but Walker shifted his feet uneasily. Then he burst out:

"I'm not here for a lecture. I am here to be sentenced."

The Justice regarded the youth gravely for a moment and without further comment sentenced him to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing.

Death is the punishment for house-breaking in Spain.

Music Quells Riot in Lucca

Italian City Is the Scene of Extraordinary Incident.

Bohemian Lad Playing on Hotel Balcony at Lucca Halts Madened Throngs.

London.—Lucca was the scene of an extraordinary incident recently which recalls the classic fable of Orpheus with his lute, who charmed wild beasts with his music.

So says a Milan dispatch to the Daily Telegraph, and goes on: "The playing of a boy violinist suddenly halted a mob in the streets of Lucca and the rioters abandoned their violent purpose. The violinist is Voss Prikoda, a Bohemian lad of eighteen, who wandered to Venice fourteen months ago and was at Lucca during the Socialist agitation. A great crowd assembled Enrico Matteotti, an anarchist leader, made a harangue which excited his hearers to fury and, ready for any excesses, they started through the main street to the public square.

"On the balcony of his hotel near the entrance to the square, the Bohemian boy was playing his violin to a few admiring people below. The first of the mob reached this group, listened to the violinist and remained fascinated by his playing. All the others stopped to listen and as the boy continued playing their fury subsided. Instead of smashing heads they applauded him, and half an hour later were all walking quietly to their homes."

Hogs as Government Aids. Lexington, Ky.—Five moonshine stills were raided by officers working here and in each instance hogs feasting on mush gave the clues. No arrests were made, lookouts firing signal shots to tip off the stillers.

DRUGS EXCITE YOUR KIDNEYS, USE SALTS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers, Drink Lots of Water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.—Adv.

No use grumbling; people won't act to suit you.—Ed. Howe.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callous. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callous right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!—Adv.
