Suffered for Years

Miserable From Kidney Trouble

Doan's Made Mr. Barnett Strong and Well.

"I suffered untold agony with my kidneys for years," says John Barnett, 30 Virginia Place, Buffalo, N. Y. "Sometimes I felt that I would burn up with fever, but every now and then would have a severe chill. Often my clothes were wringing wet with perspiration. The kidney secretions were unnatural in color and odor and burned terribly. At night my shoes were so tight on my feet that I could hardly get them off and my hands swelled so I couldn't hold a teacup. My back! Oh, how it ached! I walked with two canes and was all bent over like an aged man. When the terrible pains shot through my kidneys my knees would give way, and many times I had to be lifted to my feet by people on the street. I didn't care whether I lived or died I was so miserable. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of all kidney trouble. Doan's made me strong and well."

Choice in Adoption Runs to Young Girl Infants

WASHINGTON.—The census bureau is publishing vital statistics for 1920, as fast as they can be compiled, but the enumerators will never catch up with the population. Reports from cities throughout the country show a general increase in births during the first two months of this year compared with the corresponding period of last year. This increase was practically uniform in all sections. Milwaukee and Seattle were the only places to report a decrease.

Adoptions generally show even a greater ratio of increase than births. Many cities reported a commensurate decrease in the number of babies which had been abandoned by their parents during the year.

The desire of mothers who cannot support their babies to assure a good home for them rather than trust to the comparative uncertainty of an institution, has been evidenced through several instances of babies being "auctioned off" in some cases even before birth. People adopting babies generally want them extremely young. Girls appear to have a slightly better chance than boys of obtaining parents.

New York reported 22,500 births this year, compared with 21,165 last year. Foster parents usually prefer girl babies one year of age or under. Other cities reported as follows:

Atlanta—600 and 490. Adoptions increased. Preference girls.

Cleveland—3,276 and 3,050. Very few adoptions, but always more applications than children.

Milwaukee—1,744 and 1,801. No special preference on sex, but apparent prejudice against "red heads."

St. Paul, Minn.—903 and 721. Adoptions doubled. Preference "blond boys of two years."

St. Louis—2,483 and 2,121. Boys have slight advantage in adoptions.

San Francisco—1,543 and 1,372. Adoptions increased. Baby boys under year have the call.

Swiss Afraid They Are to Be "Cosmopolitanized"

FOREIGN advisers state that Switzerland is today putting up the greatest fight of her life to save herself from being "cosmopolitanized." Never since the day that William Tell shot the apple off his son's head have the Swiss faced a situation in which they felt that their national and individual existence was so threatened as now, and that from a danger that no people, no nation, no race has ever yet faced.

For even New York, with its hundreds of thousands of various nationalities, still remains essentially American.

But Switzerland is convinced she can hope for no such luck, if she permits herself to be swamped with the waves of people that are now pouring over her borders.

While Switzerland is still attracting hundreds and thousands of political refugees who for one reason or another are persona non grata in the new states, and even the old ones, that are growing out of the peace conference adjustment, yet by far the principal number now seeking to ooze into Switzerland are men of great wealth, usually war profiteers, who are seeking to escape the burden of taxation awaiting them if they continue their citizenship in any one of the countries that went to war and now has a war indebtedness to pay off.

In a small country like Switzerland, however, this situation is dangerous. The Swiss see clearly that all of this vast wealth now coming into the country eventually will be invested in Swiss industries. That means all the financial, industrial and economic life of the country will soon be in the hands of foreigners.

Then from private control to public control is but a step. The nationalization laws of Switzerland at the present time are very loose and easy.

As a consequence the Swiss are now putting up a valiant fight to save themselves from this "cosmopolitanization" largely through the revision of their nationalization laws and their regulations permitting foreigners to reside in their country.

Peace Treaty Amenities Between Two Secretaries

THE greeting which George H. Sanderson, secretary of the senate, received at the White House executive offices when he delivered the peace treaty there, could hardly be called cordial.

Mr. Sanderson inquired politely for Mr. Tumulty, the president's secretary, and was informed that he was busy.

Mr. Sanderson took a seat and waited. After Mr. Tumulty got through giving the newspaper men "the inside" of the president's mind, he leisurely devoted himself to other tasks more important than the reception of the senate's representative.

Mr. Sanderson cooled his heels in Mr. Tumulty's outer office for an hour and a quarter. Then an attendant appeared and ushered him into the presence of Mr. Tumulty. The greeting scarcely exceeded a curt nod.

"I have with me," said Mr. Sanderson, "the treaty of peace which the senate has directed me to return to the president. Here it is."

"All right," said Mr. Tumulty gruffly, "put it down."

Mr. Sanderson deposited it on Mr. Tumulty's desk.

"And this accompanies it," Mr. Sanderson continued, placing before Mr. Tumulty a copy of the senate's resolution formally notifying the president that the treaty had been rejected.

"I should like a receipt," said Mr. Sanderson. Mr. Tumulty signed his name to a scrap of paper which read as follows:

"Receipt is acknowledged of the treaty of peace with Germany signed at Versailles on June 28, 1919. Time 11:45 a. m."

The two secretaries bowed stiffly and Mr. Sanderson and his receipt returned to the senate.

One of the first persons he met as he entered the capitol was Senator Borah of Idaho, leader of the "Irreconcilables."

Mr. Sanderson showed him the receipt and the senator's face beamed.

Are These Boundary Farmers Suckers or Badgers?

FARMERS living along the western end of the northern boundary of this state believe they live in Illinois, but really inhabit Wisconsin, while over toward Lake Michigan some Illinois citizens are paying their home taxes to Wisconsin authorities in good faith.

This situation was explained to the miscellaneous subjects committee of the Illinois constitutional convention at Springfield, by Elam L. Clarke, delegate from Waukegan.

Through errors made by surveyors in 1831, he said, the boundary observed since by Wisconsin and Illinois is 3,200 feet north of where it legally should be at the Mississippi river and 2,900 feet too far south at Lake Michigan.

This would throw a part of the city of Beloit, Wis., into Illinois. The legal boundary, the one fixed in the present constitution, is a line from Lake Michigan to the Mississippi at latitude 42 degrees and 30 minutes north.

As it does not coincide with the line observed by the two states by almost half a mile at each end, the two crossing about the center, Mr. Clarke is asking that the situation be taken care of by the new constitution.

SEEKS FOE OF JAP BEETLE

Specialist Has Been Detailed to Bring to This Country Enemy of Horticultural Pest.

The Japanese beetle is going to have its old enemies on its trail in this country. The United States department of agriculture has sent a man to Japan to find those enemies and send them across the ocean. They will then be established in the sections of New Jersey where the beetle has gained a foothold, and they are expected to aid greatly in the control of the pest.

The agent employed in Japan is familiar with Japanese conditions and is a specialist in this kind of work. It is expected that the task will require his sojourn in Japan for two or three years. While something is known of the parasites of the Japanese beetle a great deal is still to be learned only under field conditions where the beetle lives with all the enemies that prey upon it. The beetle reached this country with importations of greenhouse plants, and thus far apparently has been comparatively free from molestations by natural enemies.
