To The Public.

The Sammy Girls' organization makes the following statement concerning their finances. At the close of the war the girls had on hand $2500 of which they told the public. Since that time the public has asked what has become of this money, and also made unkind remarks concerning the same. The money was paid by check, for the following from one of the local banks, and any one wishing to examine the records of the Sammy Girls' organization may do so.

W. H. A. Rally.

The rally held Tuesday by the Women's Benefit Association of the Maccahees was attended by a number of delegates from western Nebraska lodges and the day was devoted to business pertaining to the good of the order with Grand Officer Miss Partridge as the honored guest. At six o'clock a banquet was served and at eight an open meeting was held in the Odd Fellow's hall. The evening program included addresses by Miss Partridge and Mrs. Babcock of Hastings, the latter speaking on the league of women voters. Mrs. McDonald rendered a solo, two girls gave fancy dances, a reading by Mrs. Kelso and a drill by the lodge team that was excellent. The team presented their captain, Mrs. M. K. Duke, with a basket of American Beauty roses.

We specialize in Diamonds. Dixon, at Dixon's.

Judge Grimes granted four petitions for divorce Saturday. Those receiving legal separations were Ida Casey from E. T. Casey on the grounds of desertion; Carl Krause from Rose Krause for cruelty; Dora Bales from Robert Bales for cruelty; Nellie Blankenship from Oliver Blankenship for cruelty.
