

Women Picket the Republican Convention

We protest against the continued disfranchisement of women for which the Republican party is now responsible. The Republican party defeated ratification in Delaware. The Republican party is blocking ratification in Vermont. The Republican party is blocking ratification in Connecticut. When will the Republican party stop blocking suffrage

© U. & U.

The Women's national party decided to picket the Republican convention in Chicago, and this shows one of the banners their pickets carried to the Coliseum. The women holding it are Miss Alice Paul and Mrs. Abby Scott Baker.

How America Is Aiding Stricken Poland

Children of Grodno, Poland, learning gardening under the supervision of workers of the American joint distribution committee. A thousand children are cared for here daily while their mothers are at work.

British and Arabs Keep Order in Jerusalem

Mounted English and Arabian troops mingling with a crowd in Jerusalem during the holy week festivities to keep order. The observance of Christian, Jewish and Turkish religious holidays at the same time has been a constant source of friction in Palestine.

Disabled Soldiers Have an Athletic Carnival

A monster athletic carnival in which wounded soldiers, nurses and members of the detachment participated, was given at the U. S. A. general hospital No. 41, Fox Hills, Staten Island, N. Y. This photograph shows the prize winners in the decorated wheel chair contest.

Debs Gets Notification in Prison

For the first time in history a candidate for president of the United States has been tendered the nomination and has accepted it while a prisoner in the penitentiary. The unique event occurred at the Atlanta federal prison, when Eugene V. Debs, serving the second year of a ten-year sentence for violating the espionage law, formally was notified of his nomination for the presidency of the Socialist party. Debs is here shown greeting Seymour Steadman, his running mate.

STUDYING OAT SMUT

Experts of the office of cereal investigations, department of agriculture, making tests of different varieties of oats in order to determine their susceptibility and resistance to the destructive smut disease. They work on the government experimental farm at Arlington, Va.

HULL OF SHAMROCK IV.

Shamrock IV, on the ways at the Jacobs shipyards, City Island, N. Y., where it has been overhauled. This photograph shows the peculiar shape of the hull of the cup challenger.

Loyal to the Flag in Hawaii Schools

The schools of Hawaii are modeled largely after those in the states. Here are seen a number of pupils pledging allegiance to the flag.

Cattle Show in Ruins of Ypres

Scene during the cattle show held in the market square of war-wrecked Ypres, Belgium. Visitors from all parts of Belgium attended this show. It was organized by the provincial council of western Flanders in honor of the visit of the duke of Portland and members of the allied agricultural relief committee.

THANKS FROM ARMENIA

Archbishop Khoren of Erivan, capital of Armenia, who has come to the United States to present to President Wilson a hierarchical letter from the Catholic Armenians, expressing the gratitude of the Armenian people for the great work which the American people have done through the Near East relief.

Camel Meat Is Put on Sale in Paris

The zoo in Paris was unable longer to feed many of its animals, and the camels were sold to a butcher, who slaughtered them and offered the meat to his customers as a substitute for beef.

PRIZE WINNING POSTER

Among the art posters on the prevention of tuberculosis shown in New York by the Art Alliance of America is this one, made by Florence Rupprecht of the Buswick high school. It was selected by prominent judges as the best of the 500 exhibited.