

TABERNACLE CLOSSES.

The Union Evangelistic Meetings at the Tabernacle closed on Tuesday night with 32 conversions. This made a total of 252 during the meetings. Evangelist Rayburn preached on Noah to one of the best audiences of the month. At the close of the sermon the converts were assembled in the center of the room and the Evangelist gave his parting advice to them. He urged them to join some church, to study their bibles and to live a Christian life. Rising votes of thanks were given to W. R. Maloney Co. for the use of the piano and to Dr. Twinem for the use of the land on which the tabernacle was built. Others who have done good work for the meetings were thanked by Mr. Rayburn and Mr. Wickland. Mr. Rayburn left on the night train for his home in Newton, Kansas, where he will spend a few days resting before beginning his next meeting at Canon City, Colo.

Study Club Meets.

Tuesday evening The Study Club was entertained by Mrs. H. C. Brock at the home of Mrs. A. R. Cumming on West Fifth Street. It was the last meeting of the year and was devoted largely to business matters. Mrs. R. L. Graves, Mrs. W. H. Munger, Miss Florence Stack, Miss Bessie Salisbury and Miss Gertrude Baker were elected to membership. The following officers were elected for the next year: Mrs. Ira L. Bare, President; Miss Villa Whittaker, Vice-President and Miss Florence Stamp, Secretary-Treasurer.

Banquets Agency Force.

The J. E. Sebastian Insurance Agency held an all-day convention and gave a banquet to the entire force and friends on Tuesday of this week. The morning session at the Palace Hotel was devoted to discussion of Salesmanship, the Policy and Selling lead by E. S. Albritton, Second Vice-President of the Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance Co. of St. Paul. Mr. Albritton is in charge of agencies for the company and gave counsel and help to the selling force on this occasion. Luncheon was served at the Country Club at noon and during the afternoon the guests were entertained with music and singing. Miss Trovillo sang several songs. The Banquet at the Palace Hotel was attended by over 60 including Misses O'Hare, Sullivan, Trovillo, Mrs. Henry Kahler, members of the Rotary Club, and the agency force. Out of town guests were Jessie A. Wooters, Kearney, O. R. Taylor, Paxton, A. O. Johnson, Tryon and H. E. Mason, Paxton.

The tables were beautifully decorated with cut flowers, Japanese table service and lanterns. Prizes in the contest for business for agents were awarded by Mr. Sebastian as follows: Senior Class, First Prize of $100 to William Smith. Second prize of $50 to A. W. Bullard; Junior Class First prize of $50 to Miss Josephine O'Hare. Second prize of $25 to John F. Brooks. Speeches were made by Mr. Dixon for the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Moore for the Rotary Club and H. W. Allstrom, Secretary of the Company at St. Paul. Mr. Sebastian was toastmaster.

"The Sebastian Agency ranks 5th out of the companies 17 agencies with 12 full time agents out of the North Platte office. They have submitted eight hundred thousand dollars worth of business since Jan. 1st and will close 1920 with at two million for 1920," said Mr. Albritton. All parties present enjoyed the evening and admired the growing organization and the work it is doing.

Hall Insurance Popular.

The County Clerk's Office reports 206 policies for State Hall Insurance issued in the two months ending July 6. This is a remarkable record and shows the popularity of insuring a growing crop against hail.

P. O. INDEPENDENTS TO PLAY AT HOME SUNDAY.

After winning eight out of ten games played with surrounding teams and establishing a reputation of having the best amateur team that North Platte ever had the Post-office Independents will take advantage of their first opportunity to show their prowess at home Sunday, July 11th, when they will meet the crack team from Stapleton. Both teams are looking forward to this game as an opportunity to add further laurels to their crown of honors.

The Postoffice team is composed of boys who grew up here and boys that everyone knows. All of them saw service during the war and helped establish America's National Pastime in every country in the world.

Fred Peterson is Manager and Harley Tiley is Captain.

Golf Contest Party.
The Seiberger team gave a party to the Halligan team, winners of the golf tournament Tuesday night at the Country Club. The tournament started about the middle of May and closed recently. About one hundred people were present and spent the evening at dancing and cards. At the close a two-course lunch was served. The guests pronounce the hosts to be good entertainers even if they can't play golf.

Over The Top Again.

The Near-East Relief Campaign has completed its quota for North Platte. At the meeting at the Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening, cash and pledges were taken for $612.06 which was more than the quota assigned to North Platte. Dr. S. G. Dorey, of Denver, gave a fine lecture on Armenia and Syria. His appeal was overwhelmingly against the Turk who started in to do the same to the Armenians that Germany tried to do to the Belgians. Captain Shilling, who is County Chairman of the Campaign, is pleased at the results in Sutherland and North Platte and will continue the campaign until every part of the County has been canvassed.

Do You Buy a Car Every Year?

If you do, you won't need this advice. You know it. But if you are buying a car for the first time, your satisfaction of ownership will depend largely on your selection of a dealer.

A good dealer is one who sells a good car to start with, then backs up the sale with ability to provide for the needs the new buyer may not foresee.

Don't make yourself dependent upon an inefficient dealer. This organization is steadily growing more efficient each year.

Some day you'll buy a car.
