Things Apart.

My little niece was studying her geography and asked me to bound the state of Nevada. Her grandmother looked up and said: "I am surprised that a little girl that has traveled as much as you have must ask any one to help them with their lessons." Caroline said: "Grandma, when I travel, I travel for joy and not for geography."—Exchange.

POULTRY

KEEP POULTRY HOUSE CLEAN

Excrement Harbors Parasites, Contaminates Air and Breeds Contagion of Many Kinds.

Everything about a poultry house should be kept reasonably clean. As a rule droppings should be removed daily, for the accumulation of excrement harbors parasites, contaminates the air, and breeds contagion. After the dropping boards have been cleaned they should be sprinkled with road dust, coal ashes, or land plaster, to absorb the liquid excrement, the poultry division of the United States department of agriculture suggests. Nests in which straw or other similar material is used should be cleaned every three or four weeks, or oftener if it becomes damp or dirty.

Handy for Spraying Interior of Hen House.

The quarters should be thoroughly whitewashed at least once a year, late in summer or early in the fall. The whitewash can be made by slaking lime in boiling water and then thinning to the proper consistency for applying. The addition of four ounces of carbolic acid to each gallon of whitewash will increase its disinfecting power. The runs should be plowed occasionally in order to bury the accumulated droppings and also to turn up fresh soil.

KILL DEVITALIZING INSECTS

Paint Roosts With Kerosene Oil to Get Rid of Mites—Use Blue Ointment for Lice.

The protection from mites means simply to paint the roosts about once each week with kerosene oil and the lice can be killed off for the summer by giving each bird the blue ointment treatment at the beginning of hot weather. This has been told many times by poultrymen and probably there is no poultry fact that needs more frequent repetition than the best method of killing these devitalizing pests.

CULLING POOR LAYERS

- Cull all hens that show: 1. Well along in the molt with combs and wattles dried up. 2. All that have lay bones less than two fingers apart and small capacity. 3. Abdomen and vent dry and puckered. 4. Yellow shank and beak. 5. Apply all the test; don't apply just a part of it—do it right.

DRY MASH FEED FOR CHICKS

Animal Food in Some Form, Preferably Buttermilk, Should Be Kept Before Fowls.

A dry mash feed should be kept before the chicks continuously—a mash feed containing animal protein in some form, preferably buttermilk, meat scraps or fish scraps. These elements of animal protein in prepared mash feeds are scientifically dried and do not easily decompose.

GET EGGS FROM TURKEY HENS

Increased Production Can Be Obtained by Feeding Ground Oats, Corn and Other Cereals.

Increase of egg production in turkey hens can be done the same as with chickens, by feeding ground oats, ground corn, kaffr meal, barley meal, wheat middlings, linseed meal, and sunflower seed, in equal quantities. This can be fed dry in hoppers, or mixed with milk or water.

MITE IS ENEMY OF CHICKEN

Insect Does Not Bother Other Fowls to Any Extent—Carried About in Empty Crates.

Chicken mites do not feed to any great extent upon other hosts when chickens are at hand. They are carried about chiefly by the interchange of poultry and in crates and boxes in which fowls are shipped.

BOY SCOUTS

(Conducted by National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.)

HOW TO BECOME A SEASCOOUT

The seascout department is the "maritime" branch of the Boy Scouts of America. Any registered boy scout who is at least 15 years of age, and weighs at least 112 pounds is eligible. Seascouts are organized in units of "boat crews" of nine boys each; and in the primary class work, only one boat crew is necessary to organize a seascout "ship." At least two members of each boat crew must be first-class scouts. A group of boat crews is known as a "ship," and is led by an adult known as a seascoutmaster, who is aided and backed up in his work by a representative group of citizens called a ship committee.

Every seascout has a certain duty to perform for his ship; this duty being called his "billet," and indicated by a small blue and white device on his right sleeve. Billets include coxswains, stewards, yeomen, bakers, watermen, signalmen, carpenters, ship-smiths and sailmakers; each boy learning something of his department work so that when at camp or on a cruise, all necessary work goes forward without friction and very little supervision.

Seascouts study, in their regular meetings, knotting and splicing, cloud forms, parts of small boats, how to row, sail, and swim (life-saving is especially emphasized), types of vessels, black and tackle, foot drill, working canvas, camping ashore, and other things of the sea. As each ship advances in work it is promoted through "schooner," "barkentine," "bark," to the "ship" or highest class, these being seascout names for the progressive steps in marine knowledge. Ship class seascouts must make a 150-mile cruise annually to hold their grade; or, if inland, they must perform specified drills on the "drill mast" as an alternative. The seascout uniform is of khaki, the jumper having blue collar and wristbands. A khaki cap, blue cravat-neckerchief, and, in stoop class, side lace leggings complete the equipment. Billet marks and chevrons are worn on the right sleeve; merit badges and service stripes on the left sleeve. The seascout pin is worn on the cap by all first-class seascouts. The boy who wears this uniform and pin stands for a clean, vigorous type of American youth who knows something of the sea, who is standing by the scout oath and law, who is a national asset.

Particulars about organization work, leadership, etc., may be obtained from the seascout department, Boy Scouts of America, 200 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

SCOUTS INSTRUCT JAY WALKERS.

Four thousand one hundred and twenty-one adult jay walkers were presented in Detroit's downtown streets with anti-jay-walking cards by boy scouts, working for the safety first committee under the supervision of police traffic officers.

The card bore the following request: "Dear Friend: Do you know that a large number of people were killed here in Detroit last year by crossing the street in the middle of a block? It may take a moment more to go to the crossing, but it will be time well spent, both for the sake of your own safety and for others."

Fully 75 per cent of the jay walkers were women. In not one instance were scouts rebuffed when they offered the cards. Most of the jay walkers accepted the cards with a good-natured smile.

SCOUTS TO HALT FALSE ALARMS.

Scout firemen is the newest activity to be added to those of the Salt Lake council of the Boy Scouts of America. Co-operation with the fire department will be taken up wherever possible and in any way deemed fit by the fire chief. The purpose of this organization is to promote the safety of life and property in the city by the prevention of fires and accidents, the prevention of false alarms from fire alarm boxes and telephones.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Special Care of Baby.

That Baby should have a bed of its own all are agreed. Yet it is more reasonable for an infant to sleep with grown-ups than to use a man's medicine in an attempt to regulate the delicate organism of that same infant. Either practice is to be shunned. Neither would be tolerated by specialists in children's diseases.

Your Physician will tell you that Baby's medicine must be prepared with even greater care than Baby's food.

A Baby's stomach when in good health is too often disarranged by improper food. Could you for a moment, then, think of giving to your ailing child anything but a medicine especially prepared for Infants and Children? Don't be deceived.

Make a mental note of this:—It is important, Mothers, that you should remember that to function well, the digestive organs of your Baby must receive special care. No Baby is so abnormal that the desired results may be had from the use of medicines primarily prepared for grown-ups.

Where is Relief From Blazing Skin Diseases?

Must I Endure Forever the Torturous Itching?

The skin is fed from the blood, and upon the condition of the blood depends whether or not your skin will be healthy and free from boils, pimples, scaly irritations, red eruptions and other disfiguring and unsightly disorders. The sensible treatment that will show real results is a remedy that will cleanse the blood thoroughly and kill the germs that cause the trouble. And for this purpose no remedy ever made can approach the record of S. S. S. which cleanses the blood of the disease germs, at the same time building up the general health.

NOT MUCH VARIATION THERE

Old Resident Entirely Truthful When He Called the Town's Death Rate "Wonderful Steady."

Wearry after 12 months' hard work, the pretty tylist sought solitude among the healthy hills of Halehearty. The advertisements had attracted her. Halehearty was described as the best, prettiest, finest, and everything-est spot in the world.

"Tell me," she said on her first day, when she met a stanch old relic of the district, "what is the death rate in Halehearty?"

The local walking advertisement nodded his head reassuringly. "Wonderful steady, ma'am—wonderful steady!" he replied. "One death to each person."—London Tit-Bits.

TRULY AN AWFUL THOUGHT

Small Girl Feared She Had Somewhat Overdone Matter of Praying for Baby Brother.

The little girl came home to her mamma very much disturbed because little Susie, her neighbor, had a new baby brother to play with, while she, herself, was very lonely. Her mother comforted her and told her to ask God to send her a little brother, too. So the child began to pray for a little brother, and occasionally got impatient; but her mother told her to keep on praying and perhaps her prayer would be answered some day.

One day she was called into the mother's room, and her delight knew no bounds when the nurse took a wee thing up from the mother's side and laid it in her arms. "But a moment later, when the nurse picked up another bit of humanity, the child almost dropped the one she was holding, and a startled expression came into her face as she said: "Oh, mamma! Is God going to answer all those prayers that I prayed?"
