HARRY DIXON

PROMINENT IN LODGE, SOCIAL AND BUSINESS LIFE.

J. S. Hoagland, senior member of the firm of Hoagland and Hoagland, Lawyers, died at his home here last Friday after a very brief illness. He was born Febr. 10 1847 at Jersey City, N. J. At an early age, his father William VanFleet Hoagland brought the family to Illinois where they went to farming. Here our friend went to the country school and later taught several terms of school. Here he learned the carpenter's trade. Then the Civil War came and as soon as he could enter although not yet eighteen, he enlisted and served during the balance of the war. After his discharge he returned to his home and shortly married Miss Marie Waples at Bunker Hill, Ill. Two boys, Walter and Arthur were born here.

In 1873 the family moved to Lincoln, Nebraska and in 1878 J. S. Hoagland became sheriff of Lancaster Co. He was the second man to hold this office. At the close of his term as sheriff he engaged in the lumber business in Lincoln but took up the study of law and was admitted to the bar in the early 80's.

He came to western Nebraska in 1883 as president of a Soldier's colony and settled on a homestead in Logan Co. He opened a law office in North Platte and drove a broncho team fifty miles to his homestead every week until he proved up on his claim. Then he moved his family to North Platte and has lived here since.

Judge Hoagland was a member of the Episcopal church at North Platte for many years and active in the life of the church. He was a prominent worker in the Odd Fellows and was honored with many appointments and offices the most important of which were in the state encampment. He was a member of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Nebraska for 20 years and was once elected Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment. When the Odd Fellows home was established at York, Judge Hoagland was appointed Chairman of the Board of Trustees and he held this place until a few years ago. In 1895 he was state Senator from this county and served one term. Upon coming west he began his activities in the G. A. R. and held many important places until in 1918 he was made Department Commander for Nebraska. During all this time until recent years he was practicing law and was known from Kearney to the state line for his ability in civil and criminal procedure.

Last winter he took Mrs. Hoagland to Florida for her health driving his car the whole way there but on the return trip he contracted pneumonia from which he did not fully recover. The immediate cause of his death was cancer of the bladder which was not discovered until shortly before his death.

He is survived by his wife, Marie L. Hoagland, son Walter who is senator from this district and his partner in the law firm of Hoagland and Hoagland and his son Arthur who is Assistant Secretary of the Fidelity Reserve Co. of North Platte.

WHY SUFFER SO!

Why suffer from a bad back, from sharp, shooting twinges, headaches, dizziness and distressing urinary ills? North Platte people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Could you ask for stronger proof of merit? Ask your neighbor.

Mrs. A. G. Wessburg, 708 W. 4th St., North Platte, says: "I have been a terrible sufferer from kidney disorder and backache. The doctor said I had a floating kidney and it was so swollen that it was plainly noticeable. I had awful pains through my kidneys and I could not stand on my feet long. My kidney acted frequently, too. My doctor advised an operation. I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills however and got a box. After a couple of days use, the pains became less severe. The swelling gradually went away and I was completely cured. Since then I have felt no return of kidney trouble."

(Statement given August 7, 1907.)

On June 7, 1920, Mrs. Wessburg added: "As the years go by my faith in Doan's Kidney Pills grows stronger. It is many years since Doan's cured me of kidney complaint and since then I have enjoyed good health."

"REJUVENATION"

THREE ACT COMEDY TO BE GIVEN LAST NIGHT OF CHAUTAUQUA

"Rejuvenation," a sharp, clean, wholesome three act play in which politics, woman suffrage and prohibition are woven around the elixir tablet of eternal youth, is to be the big climax last night of our chautauqua.

The Wales Chautauqua Players, a thoroughly professional New York cast selected by Mrs. Wales will present this clever comedy with Miss Madeline Armistead as leading lady.

The Daily Beacon, Paris, Illinois, has this to say of the Wales Chautauqua Players and "Rejuvenation"—"Rejuvenation," a three act comedy dealing with love, politics, and intrigue, proved to be a delightful entertainment to a large chautauqua audience in the big assembly tent Wednesday night. The play was presented by the Clara Vaughan Players, everyone of whom is an artist in this line.

It is a story of a woman eighty years old who, makes a backward flight for youth by the aid of elixir tablets. From eighty to fifty then thirty-five and finally twenty, where cupid steps in and captures a victim. In the meantime she is having brilliant success in politics and comes very near being nominated for the governorship of the state. Her male associates are battling with each other, while an effeminate English Lord brings out the humor of the situation.

The play is full of hearty laughs and it will be a well pleased crowd that leaves the tent last night of chautauqua.
