EDITORIAL.

Travelers report the Lincoln Highway between Brady and Gothenburg to be in very bad condition. Many tourists are detouring to the south side to escape the sand on the Lincoln Highway.

It is a surprise to us to find a number of people in North Platte sending printing jobs to other towns. The newspapers of this city depend in part on the job printing departments and they are entitled to the support of the people who live here as long as they can do the work and do it satisfactorily at a reasonable price.

SCRAPPLE.

A Column of Nonsense.

The other day when we started over to Hendy & Ogier's Garage to buy a Ford car for our wife a man stopped us and asked us why the First National Bank did not upholster the ledge between the pillars on the west side of their new building.
