MILDRED STENNER.

We mourn the death of Mildred Stenner because we knew her so well. Her many friends and acquaintances miss her. Her family grieves for her. She was all joy and sunshine. Just past fifteen, she took special pleasure in expressing her life emotions by means of music and gymnasium exercises.

Mildred was converted in the Lowrey meetings and joined the First Baptist Church at their close. She took a leading part in the Sunday School, the Young People's Organization and the social life of the church.

In school she held her own. The other pupils liked her and called on her to take a leading part in their activities. She was especially happy in the gymnasium and when playing games and going through the exercises.

At home she was as noisy as a mirth-loving girl of fifteen can be and the other members of the family came to look to her to "carry on" when the trials and difficulties of the family circle came.

She was especially dear to her father and her last words were "Let's go, Daddy."

We extend to the members of her family our sympathy in their loss which loss is shared by many others, all of whom miss her.
