

Where Disabled Veterans Learn Agriculture

One of the buildings (horticulture) of the college of agriculture, University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo., where the federal board for vocational education has placed disabled world war veterans who desire training in agriculture.

These Women Raise Their Own Vegetables

Women of Washington Heights, New York, have formed a raising and lowering association, to raise vegetables and lower grocery bills. Photograph shows some at work near their homes at 181st street and Bennett avenue.

America Gets Five German Warships

The five German warships allocated to the United States arrived in New York harbor the other day. After being exhibited and studied, they will be destroyed. The photograph shows the battleship Ostfriesland towing the cruiser Frankfort.

Pilgrim Fathers Leave for America Again

The "Pilgrim Fathers" leaving for America in the Mayflower centennial at Southampton, England.

Wounded Soldiers Meet Coolidge

Gov. Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, shaking hands with wounded soldiers in Boston, while they congratulate him on his nomination by the Republicans for the vice presidency.

HEADS FORESTRY SCHOOL

Franklin Moon, the new dean of the New York State College of Forestry at Syracuse, advanced to head the nation's biggest forestry school after service as its professor of forest engineering since 1912. A Yale forest school graduate, then United States federal forest service representative in Kentucky, he later became forester for the Hudson river forest reservation, the nucleus of what is now the interstate Palisades park.

Off for Europe in 30-Foot Sailboat

The Typhoon, with Casey Baldwin and Wallace Nutting on board, starting out from Baddeck, Canada, for Cowes, England. The boat is only a 30-footer and the men expect to make the trip in 22 days.

TO WED GREEK PRINCE

Princess Elizabeth, eldest daughter of King Ferdinand and Queen Mary of Romania, whose engagement to Prince George of Sparta, has been reported.

Ten Thousand at Canary's Funeral

Ten thousand residents of Newark, N. J., turned out to witness the strangest funeral procession ever held in that, or possibly any other city of the country. "Jimmie," a canary pet of Emilio Russomanno, a Newark cobbler, was being buried with honors. There was a band that played the funeral dirge, a white hearse, silk-lined coffin and carriages for the mourners. "Jimmie's" funeral cost Russomanno $200, but the cobbler said it was the last he could do for his late-lamented pet, and he considered the money well spent.

MISS DORA PALKIN

Miss Dora Palkin, a native of Connecticut, now practicing law in Washington, has gained the distinction of being the youngest woman admitted to practice in the United States Supreme court. She graduated from a Washington law school in 1916, and though only twenty-four years old now, she served during the war on the legal advisory council which rendered advice to hundreds of draft men.

First American Ship to Bremen

The U. S. S. Susquehanna, which sailed from New York with 1,800 passengers for Bremen and Danzig, the first passenger liner to sail under the American flag to these ports, and the first ship of the United States Mail Steamship company to be placed in commission.

FLYING TO AUSTRALIA

Lieutenant Hinkley, formerly of the British air forces, who is attempting to fly alone from England to Australia, via Paris, Rome and Egypt. He uses a small airplane with an engine of only 35 horsepower.

Heathen Used to Heat.
 "What reason did Blank give for refusing to contribute to foreign missions?" "Said we ought to concentrate our efforts on saving sinners right here at home, because if the people of this country aren't saved it's going to be a much greater change of climate for them than for the heathen."—Boston Transcript.