

Monster Locomotive in Perilous Plight

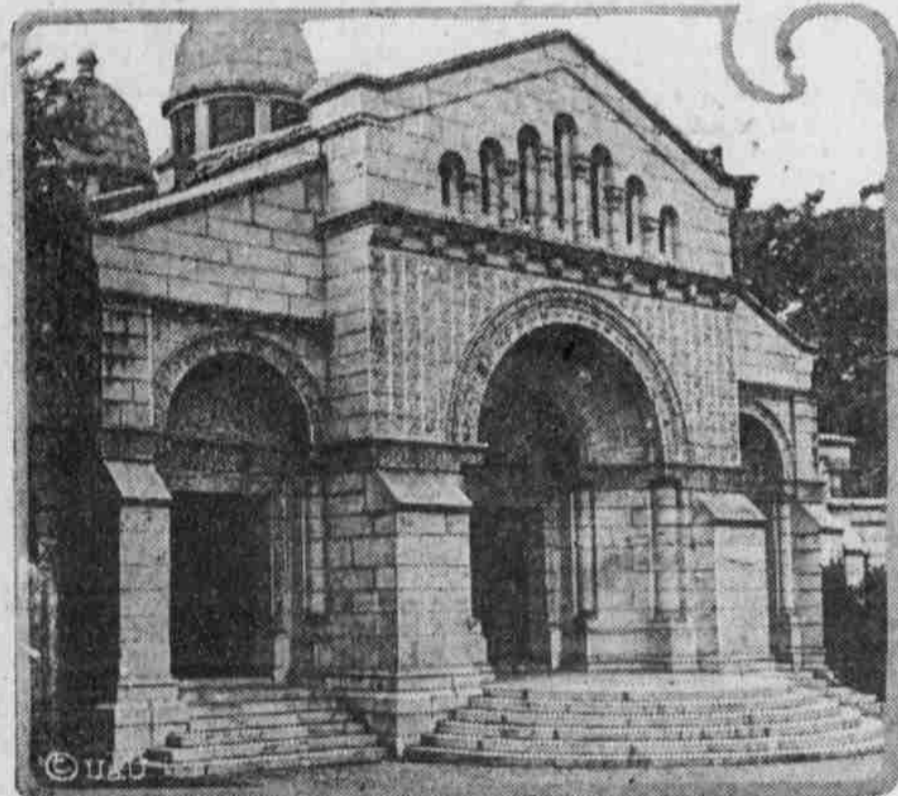

The collapse of a bridge near Greencastle, Ind., from under a battleship type of locomotive developed an unusual problem for the wrecking crew. The bridge had just been built and had been approved by engineers but the locomotive had hardly brought its full weight on it before it sank with a roar and a crash, the center falling 25 feet to the ground, leaving the locomotive suspended with the front wheels on the bastions of one side of the bridge and the rear wheels on the other.

Poles Bringing in Bolshevik Prisoners

This photograph, just received from Warsaw, shows Poles bringing in bolshevik prisoners taken during the repulse of the red invasion of Poland.

Where Vanderbilt's Remains Rest

View of the magnificent mausoleum in the little Moravian cemetery at New Dorp, S. I., where the body of William K. Vanderbilt was laid to rest beside those of William H. Vanderbilt, his father, and Commodore Cornelius, his grandfather.

American Princess Fled Russia

The Princess and Prince D. N. Goltzine, who have landed at Boston from a tour of Russia, Japan and China. The princess was Miss Frances Simpson Stevens of New York, a graduate of Wellesley college. She married Prince Goltzine in Boston in 1919. The prince then went to Japan and China with his bride and they were in Omsk when Kolchak was in power. They then went to Vladivostok, but were compelled to flee by the approaching bolshevik army. They managed to reach a Russian vessel and escaped to Japan.

CLAIMS CHICAGO SITE

An attorney in Philadelphia has started legal action in behalf of Wladislaw Burdinsky of Poland to recover from congress the equivalent in money of the value of the ground on which Chicago is situated. Burdinsky is a descendant of Count Pulaski, and the claim dates back to 1779, when Pulaski was awarded by congress 850 acres in Northern Illinois, the territory on which Chicago is now located. In recognition of his services in the revolutionary war. Two Chicago women are believed to be direct descendants of Count Pulaski and should the claim be allowed, will become two of the richest women in the world. They are Mrs. Martha Schuster and her niece, Mrs. H. P. Booth, whose portrait is here presented.

BORIS OF BULGARIA

King Boris, the young and unmarried ruler of the battle-scarred state of Bulgaria, as he is today.

Doughboys Bring German Brides Home With Them

American soldiers from the army of occupation with their German brides arriving in New York on the transport Pochahontas. Some of the brides were war widows and some of the soldier bridegrooms brought back, as step-children, children of their former enemies.

Building Homes for the Chicago Homeless

The Chicago Housing association has undertaken a great social experiment in the erection of many homes for families which had nowhere to live owing to the house shortage in that city. The homes are of brick, two stories, and the tenant pays rental of about $35 a month which is applied on the purchase price. The house is sold at exact cost.

Polish Women Fighters Enjoy a Rest

This photograph, sent from Warsaw after the bolsheviks started the drive on that city, shows members of the Legion of Polish Women, fighters who helped to defend their city, laying their feet after a hard day's march.

WINS PRIZE FOR HAIR

Mrs. Lottie Shanks, who won first prize in a "hair" competition at Be-mondsey, England. This is the second time she has won a first prize for her long tresses.

On Their Way to Help Armenians

The wife and three children of Capt. Ernest A. Yarrow, successor to Col. William N. Haskell as director of near east relief activities in the Caucasus, who have sailed to join him in Tiflis, Georgia.

WORTH KNOWING

Ancient Romans used gold dust to powder their hair.

A new Belgian law prohibits the manufacture, sale or keeping in stock of matches containing phosphorus.

There are more motors for hire than private cars in Japan.

Mexico is now exporting oil at the rate of 132,000,000 barrels annually.

During a recent morning fog about 300 tons of solid matter was deposited on London.

OLDEST WEST POINTER

Brig. Gen. Horatio Gibson, 93 years old, the oldest living graduate of West Point, and his daughter, Mrs. George W. Wallace. He is president of the Astor Club of 1847.