tion with the County Fair this yearat least we heard one man on the went. Ed wasn't in the store but a street say it was no good. We have friend of his from Indiana was there been wondering if others thought this and he said Ed would be back in a would suggest to improve the Fair. We would be glad to hear from any for his wife. So we thought we would of our subscribers and to receive sug- wait. Ed's Indiana friend was a real gestions as to how the Lincoln County nice man to talk to and after we had Fair can be improved another year.

Too much credit cannot be given the men who give freely of their time and talent in the preparing of exhibits for the State and County Fairs. This year a group of men headed by E. A. Olson, prepared an exhibit for the state fair that took over fifty prizes. The prize money about paid the expense of transportation. The advertising which Lincoln County gets from such an exhibition is of so much value that it should be looked after every year very carefully and it would be no more than right if the men who prepare and take care of the exhibit were paid what it is worth. Thanks, Mr. Olson, as you have thanked your assistants.

The Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce will act on the not be in a position to have an in- real dry like-"Why not tie a rope on car in good condition with extra telligent opinion on the subject but the hind end of Rhiley's car and tie it would seem to us that a closer ac- it to the other cars and let him pull quaintance between the people of them round and so save gasoline?" Frontier County and the people of Lincoln County would be highly de- had better go so we went and now sirable and that such a delegation we know from North Platte would be one way of securing this close relationship. We know that if at all possible, the North Platte Chamber of Commerce will plan this trip and go in a body.

SCRAPPLE. A Column of Nonsense.

The other day as we were going over to Dickey's Laundry to get our clean shirts, a man stopped us to ask $2.00 us how we liked the fair. We told him we liked it pretty well and asked will but the races and that it seemed a shame to burn up so much gasoline when it was so high. We talked a little more and then went on to get our shirts but we got to thinking what a shame it was to burn up all of There seems to be some dissatisfac- that gasoline. We decided to go over and talk it over with Ed Davis so we way and what this man and others minute as he had just gone over to Davis's Garage to buy a Nash Car visited a while we told him what a shame it was to burn up so much good gasoline at the fair when nearly everyone knew just how it would come out as well before the race as afterwards.
