OUR LETTER-BOX.

Benj. P. Baker of Maxwell in re-newing his subscription to The Tribune writes "I have been a subscriber to The Tribune for 34 years. The writer is now 85 years old and hopes to take The Tribune many years yet." The editor appreciates the loyalty of its old readers and will do everything possible to retain their good-will. We sincerely hope Mr. Baker will read The Tribune for many more years.

E. W. Crossgrove, Treasurer of the Highline Shorthorn Breeders' Association, writing from Farnam, says: "Your paper represents the agricultural interests of some of the richest part of Nebraska and in this territory there are some of the greatest herds of live stock in the state or in the United States, owned by representative men who take a keen interest in the upbuilding of the country." Mr. Crossgrove is right and a booster.

Mrs. J. L. Sinclair, 34 South Ave., Battle Creek, Mich., orders the Tribune sent to their address and adds—"We have just moved from North Platte and like it very much here."

A Soldier in U. S. A. sent us a communication, forgetful that we have declared time and time again that we cannot print anything communicated to us unless we have the name of the author or writer. We do not print these names unless we have permission but we must know the name.

Miss Amanda Mylander, who signs her name now as Mrs. E. M. Dixon, of Los Angeles, writes that she has a little girl thirteen months old and that her sister Martha is the proud mother of a ten weeks old daughter. Mrs. Dixon says she likes the Scraph column very much.

Myrtle A. Day sends us her subscription to The Tribune and asks us to send it to her at 1119 Boulevard, Shreveport, La. This is a long way from North Platte but their paper will be started that way twice a week and we trust Uncle Sam to see that it gets there.

The meeting of the D. A. R. which was held at the home of Mrs. L. R. Duke last Thursday was well attended. At this meeting, plans were made for the work of the year. A good musical program was rendered. The address by Rev. H. E. Hess was especially enjoyed. Rev. Hess spoke on the Pilgrim Parade in the Centenary Celebration recently held in Omaha.

The Nebraska State Railroad Commission and the Wyoming Public Utilities Commission met the Union Pacific Officials at Gering last Tuesday evening and the joint commissions gave the Union Pacific permission to extend their lines from Haig west into Wyoming. Eventually this line will connect with the main line at Medicine Bow. The banquet is said to have cost six dollars a plate.

The singer:
Miss Betsy Lane Shepherd,
famous soprano.

The test:
A direct comparison between her voice and its RE-CREATION by New Edison.

The Jury:
185 public audiences, aggregating over 100,000 people.

The verdict
(unanimous):
No difference!

Let us show you
The NEW EDISON
"The Phonograph with a Soul"
that made this phenomenal
record of realism

Come in and tell us which voice or instruments "get" you most quickly. We'll give you the "personal favorites" Realism Test. This test will show you what the New Edison's perfect realism does, how it brings the keener, finer, subtler joys in music.

Marriage licenses were issued during the past week to Glenn E. Jones, 21, a druggist of Merna, Nebr., and Miss Hazel L. Brooks, 18, of Hershey; Lual D. Brewer 19, a clerk of Hershey and Marie A. Bunting, 17, also of Hershey; John F. McDermott, 22 of Wellfleet, farmer and Violet A. Halsey 18 also of Wellfleet.

Real human men are the kind we like to see on the screen. Men who are a living shadow of the people who move about us—loving, fighting, hating—like the humans we know and understand. Such a character is Big Jim O'Kane as portrayed by William Russell in "The Man Who Dared" which will be the attraction at the Crystal Theatre Thursday and Friday. The author has made him no angelic sanctimonious hero. Neither has he made him an unreal, unscrupulous villain. Instead he is a regular man like you and I might know. Playing with him is Eileen Percy.

MOORE'S THREE WAY HEATER

STOVE THAT WILL KEEP YOU WARM

Heats all parts of house down and up-stairs like a furnace

Heat will circulate, ventilate the rooms and make warm floors

Moore's three-way heater does it all without a large investment for either stove or fuel

Slotted fire-pot and deflector at bottom of casing throws heat to the floor

All the time the casing reflects heat into the room

Rooms UPSTAIRS may also be heated by connecting register to the double collar or merely placing one in ceiling directly over the stove
