EDITORIAL.

We certainly congratulate the men who organized the Lincoln County Hereford Breeders Association on their good work. There is no reason why their goal of 100 members by spring will not be reached if they will put the energy into the Association which the cause deserves. We would suggest that other associations could be formed for other breeds of live stock which would not need to be antagonistic in any sense to the Hereford people, and which would mean a new impetus to the raising of fine stock.

Representative Kinkaid should be returned to Congress rather than his Democratic opponent, T. C. Grimes has been County Superintendent of Custer County for a number of years. He has never been seriously mentioned by the educators of this state for any educational position. His ambition to be Congressman does not seem to be based on any performance in the past. He has made a good County Superintendent, let him stay there.

We are for Cox for President, for the following reasons: (1) Cox has made a good record as Governor of Ohio, which has required executive ability; Harding has been in the legislative branch of the government with no experience as an executive. (2) Cox is for the League of Nations with necessary reservations; Harding according to his Des Moines speech is against it in any form. (3) Cox is not a member of the Senatorial oligarchy which is trying to foist its control on this country; Harding is its spokesman at present. On the wet and dry question we fall to discover any difference. Each is supported by about as many wets as the other. Unless there are developments unknown to us at this time we expect to vote for Cox.

SCRAPPLE.
A Column of Nonsense.

The other day when we were going over to Patterson's Drug Store to buy a present for our wife, a man stopped us and asked us what we were going to do while Ed Davis is in the Legislature this winter. We hadn't thought of that and so we stepped across the street to get any suggestions Ed might have. Ed wasn't in but his Indiana friend was sitting in the chair and the man who lives on South Locust Street was leaning against a pile of flour. We talked of several things and then asked them what they would do. We said it was so comforting to have a friend who was always ready to find an answer to any questions one has and we will surely miss him while he is in Lincoln this winter serving the people of Lincoln County as their representative. The South Locust Street man asked if we were sure Ed would be elected and we started to tell him how certain we were when the man from Indiana broke in with the remark that Ed would be elected by the biggest majority ever cast for State Representative. The Locust street man said he didn't see how that could be and Indiana asked him if he didn't know that Ed had already served two terms in the State Legislature and that he would be more valuable to Lincoln County than any one else on that account if for no other reason. At that Ed's Locust Street friend said he was visiting Ed in Lincoln two years ago, while he was in the legislature and he remembered how the other representatives used to come to him about important matters because he was experienced. He said Ed was rather quiet but that his influence was big with the other members and that when Ed was against a measure it carried a lot of weight. We were glad to hear that as Ed is a friend of ours but we wanted more to know what we were to do while he is gone than what he is going to do while he is there so we brought up the question again. Indiana suggested that we could write him if we had any difficulties but we thought he would probably be too busy to write letters. The South Locust Street man said we could likely save our questions until he came back and we said we could do that with all but the most pressing. Indiana mentioned several people like Rich Birge and Trev Doucet and Perry Carson and Ernest Tramp, all fast friends of our, who would help us out while Ed was away and we were just going to give our opinion of each when we saw Ed coming down the street and Indiana said maybe we had better not mention anything about it to Ed as it might make him feel bad to talk about anyone else taking his place in our friendship so we just said How-do-you-do when Ed came in and talked about the weather and as Ed didn't say anything about it we didn't either and then we left. And now we know.

Very beautiful, also reasonably priced, blouses are now on display at E. T. Tramp & Sons.

The League of Women Voters will hold a meeting at Brady, Wednesday evening at which questions pertaining to the coming election will be discussed from all political points of view.

TO COMMITTEES AND FRIENDS OF THE SALVATION ARMY DRIVE:

At a meeting on Sunday afternoon of the Local Advisory Board of the Salvation Army for the purpose of checking of the different workers in the drive it was found that Lincoln County was yet short of its quota eleven hundred dollars. After a careful canvass of the situation it was found that in the city a great many sections and individuals have not yet been canvassed. The Advisory Board is very anxious that the County go over the top in this most important work. Some captains reported that the work of their ward was not yet done and these were requested to send their committees back if possible and thoroughly clean the work up and where committees could not serve, to create new ones and so complete the work.

In a message received Saturday from State Headquarters by Chairman J. Q. Wilcox, it was stated that two counties had gone over the top, Omaha, which has a quota of $90,000.00 begins its drive this week.

Local committees that have been at work report a very successful effort as nearly every one is very friendly to the Salvation Army.

The Board decided at its Sunday meeting to continue the drive thru this week and it is urging committees who have not finished the work to finish up as quickly as possible. If the committee has visited your home and you were not there please hand your offering to some member of the Advisory Board or the Canvassing Committee for your Section and save them an extra trip. They are all busy men. So altogether now for a final wind-up and for at least a thousand dollars Over the Top by Saturday night.

Committees turn in your reports as soon as you have finished to the Local Chairman, Mr. J. Q. Wilcox, for his daily reports that go in each day to State headquarters.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE.

GET EGGS NOW!

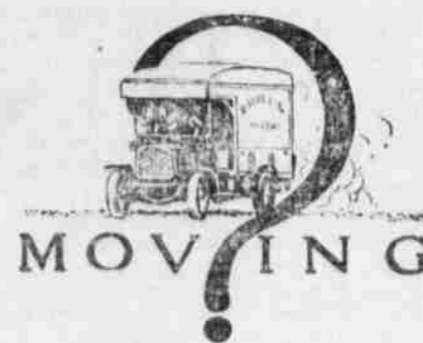

There is only one reliable way to secure eggs from your hens in winter and in summer, and that is to feed for them. A hen cannot lay a single egg more than the nourishment she receives will permit. Therefore, to get eggs now, give your hens Blatchford's Egg Mash, which is composed to the last ounce of wholesome, egg-making materials.

Blatchford's
"Fill-the-Basket" Egg Mash
Contains a greater VARIETY of ingredients than any other mash on the market

When hens are fed Blatchford's Egg Mash they receive in proper form all the materials they require from which to manufacture eggs. It includes meat scrap, fish scrap, milk albumen, blood alfalfa, and over twenty other ingredients. It does make hens lay. You will receive more eggs from it than from any other laying mash on the market. It is therefore the best and least expensive for you to buy. Use it and get eggs—now!

Have You Ordered the Telephone Moved?

Notify us as far in advance as possible when you want telephone service at your new location.

The first of every month more people move than at other times, and at such periods a longer notice than usual is necessary.

We want our subscribers to have telephone service at the hour and minute they need it, but it is often difficult to make changes when desired unless we are given an advance notice of a telephone to be moved or installed.
