

$45.00 Suits
$22.45

The Gigantic Unloading Sale

$25 Overcoats
$12.45

AT THE

STAR CLOTHING HOUSE

Is the Real Live Issue of Current Events in This Community. The Wonderful Success of this Sale is Proof of the

Extremely Low Prices

they are making on their entire stock and the popularity of this business firm. It simply goes to prove that honesty, reliability; high grade merchandise and big value giving are the real issues of success in business.

The Big Cut Price Sale is Still in Full Swing

20 TO MORE THAN 50 PER CENT OFF

If you don't know, ask for the store that does the business---any one will tell you---and then follow your nose to the

ONE LOT EXTRA
HEAVY BEAVERETTE
COLLARS, MOLE-
SKIN ULSTERS
PRICE $30.00 GO AT $16.45

Star Clothing House

The Store of Immensity

The Store of Values

Everything for Men and Boys to Wear at Cut Rate Prices.

ALL SILK SHIRTS
50 Percent
OFF

DR. O. H. CRESSLER,

Graduate Dentist

Office over the McDonald
State Bank.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. H. S. White has been spending the past week with friends in Kansas City.

David Lawler and sons Harvey and Lester, of Paxton, attended the K. C. Initiation Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert LeDioyt of Paxton, are guests at the W. H. LeDioyt home.

Miss Irma Scherbauer returned to her home in Hastings Wednesday after visiting at the home of Mrs. E. N. Ogier.

Prices are down on some merchandise but not on everything. Wilcox Department Store is giving you One Fifth OFF on everything in its entire stock.

Miss Mabel Carter, teacher in the Senior High School, left Wednesday for Omaha to attend the State Teacher's Association.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Saddle, of Paxton, who have been transacting business in this city for a few days left yesterday for their home.

Father Patrick McDaid leaves next Tuesday for Ireland to visit his mother. He will be absent about three months. His parishoners presented him with a purse of $575 to assist in defraying his expenses.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Day left on Wednesday for Boulder to visit at the home of the latter's sister Mrs. P. H. Lonergan, from there they will get to California where they will probably locate.

Miss Hazel Preston, Mrs. Willoughby and Miss Myrtle Wilcox entertained the lady clerks of the Wilcox Department Store at a party at the home of Miss Hazel Preston. All were masked until a late hour. A delicious two course luncheon was served.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION HOLD MEETING.

One of the most interesting and instructive sessions held yet by the Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association was held in the Franklin Auditorium, Wednesday afternoon. The program opened with a selection by the Cade Band, followed by an Exhibition drill by the High School Cadets. Miss Antonides explained the Point System used in the school, papers were given by Misses Smith, Cone and Nyberg on the work of the English Department and by Misses Tilford and Dye and Mr. Stephens on the work of the Mathematics Department. The meeting was especially lively and the seventy-five or more who attended pronounced it an exceptional gathering.

For Sale—Two small soft coal stoves. Mrs. A. J. Salisbury, 513 Sycamore.

FORMER ACTOR GETS INTO TROUBLE HERE.

Some excitement occurred Wednesday night at one of the local hotels, when a former member of the show company which was here that evening, came to the hotel after the show and finding out the room where one of the ladies of the company was sleeping entered it and began to cause trouble. It seems that he had been discharged from the company some few days ago but has been following the troupe from place to place until at Sterling, Colo., he had to be confined. According to reports he was released on bail at Sterling but followed the company to North Platte. He was given a jail sentence but he claims he is innocent of intending any wrong.

Doctor Fetter spent the first of the week in Brady on professional business.

Bernice Eshleman, of Hershey, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Mrs. Nellie Kane and children, of Sutherland, were business visitors in the city Thursday.

Nov. 6th will be bargain day in the Whittaker Millinery Department at Block's. Special prices will be given on all hats until stock is cleaned up.

CITY AND COUNTY NEWS.

Mrs. E. A. Garlich, who has been making her home at Stanton, Nebr., is visiting friends in the city and will leave the latter part of the week for Oakland, Calif., where she will spend the winter.

If you are looking for good entertainment tonight go to the Crystal and see Buck Jones in "Sunset Sprague" and Fatty Arbuckle in "Back Stage." If the two of them can't amuse you something tells us it can't be done. Come and try the test and if you are not entertained and amused go see a specialist.

Mrs. W. M. Jeffers, of Omaha came yesterday to attend the funeral of the late Lon Graves. She is enroute to Salt Lake City.

Early Friday morning all of the friends of Miss Georgianna Badgerow and Allan Smith, both of this city, were surprised to learn that Rev. Curry had united them in marriage. The young couple left Friday morning on Number Sixteen for Omaha. Mrs. Smith is employed in the Austin Jewellery Store and Mr. Smith is a fireman on the Union Pacific. They will reside in this city upon their return.

Mrs. John Able left yesterday for her home in Roscoe.

Mrs. Sadie Allison, of Wallace, was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Leo Tighe, who has been visiting the home folks for several days, left yesterday for Lincoln.

Rev. Doctor S. G. Dorey, State organizer of the Near East Relief addressed the pupils of the Junior and Senior High Schools this morning at a joint assembly. The pupils pledged themselves to educate, clothe and feed one Armenian child for one year.

Buy Shoes As You Do Tools

The skilled artisan knows the value of proper tools, with staying quality, whether the Shovel or saw in which he uses.

Its the same with Shoes. For work or sport in winter weather you could ask no better combination than [wool hose and these warm, yet wieldly, water proof high Shoes.

Special Price $9.00.

SHOE MARKET

AVES YOU ONEY ON SHOES

IF YOU WOULD ENJOY

The Best In Life

Attend to the Call of the Church.

First Evangelical Lutheran Church,

REV. C. FRANKLIN KOCH, Pastor

Morning Worship 11 o'clock

Evening Worship 8 o'clock

Sunday School 9:45 A. M.