LOUDON SELLS HIS GROCERY

LOUDON'S BASKET GROCERY SOLD THIS WEEK TO LOCAL MAN.

A. H. Turpin, a resident of Lincoln County for a number of years, has purchased, the Loudon Grocery. The deal was closed last week to take effect yesterday. Mr. Loudon has planned for some time on making change in his business relations and has considered a number of offers but only last week did the opportunity come which he decided to take. Mr. Loudon is offering his residence property for sale and expects to move to Denver as soon as he can make the arrangements.

Mr. Turpin has had considerable experience in the retail business and comes well prepared to take up the business which has been so successfully run by his predecessors—Messrs. Tramp and Mr. Loudon. Just recently Mr. Turpin has been employed in the Equity Store having previously operated a ranch near North Platte.

Mr. Turpin, in an interview yesterday said he would continue the business along the same general lines that it has been conducted in the past, serving his customers with the best of groceries and produce at the lowest prices. The Tribune welcomes Mr. Turpin into the business life of the community and assures him that the business men of this city will give him a welcome.

NORTH PLATTE WOMAN OPENS A NEW DEPARTMENT IN STATE JOURNAL.

Mrs. C. F. Spencer, of this city, has been selected as editor of the genealogical department of the Sunday State Journal. The department was opened in last Sunday's Journal and appears under the title "Look Up Your Family Tree." It treats of all matters of genealogy and family history having more especial reference to giving information about the colonial pioneers. All inquiries should be addressed to Mrs. Spencer and information in answer to inquiries published there should be sent to her. The department promises to be of special help to those interested in family history and Mrs. Spencer is very capable in handling this subject.

COURT OF HONOR IS ORGANIZED

LOCAL COUNCIL OF BOY SCOUTS ORGANIZES THE COURT OF HONOR.

The crowning event in the life of a Boy Scout is when he appears before the Court of Honor for examination for promotion to higher rank. In order that this examination may be given in proper form and with the proper setting, the Local Council of the Boy Scouts has organized what is called a Court of Honor. This is not a new method of giving the examinations but is used by all cities having the Local Councils.

The president of the Council and the Scout Commissioner are members of the Court of Honor ex officio. The others are selected by the Council. The members met yesterday and organized by electing E. E. Carr President; Geo. M. Carey, Secretary; John B. Edwards, J. C. Holliman, M. E. Crosby and Dr. H. A. Fenner, members.

The purpose of the Court is to give examinations to the Scouts as they pass from the Tenderfoot Class to the Second Class and from the Second Class to the First Class and to award the Merit Badges.

Following are the rules of the Court of Honor:

1. The Court will sit the first and third Wednesday of each month from four to six p. m. at the office of the Chamber of Commerce.
2. Notice of Application for conferring of honors by the Court must be given by Scoutmasters in writing at least one week in advance.
3. Applicants must conform to the questions appearing in the Scout Manual.
4. Applicants must salute the Court on entering and stand at attention during all examinations.
5. All applicants for honors showing proficiency in the work and successfully passing of work given by Scoutmasters, said card to be signed by respective Scout Master.
6. All sessions of the Court of Honor are open to the public.

MRS. J. S. HOAGLAND PASSED AWAY AT OMAHA SUNDAY NIGHT.

Word was received here yesterday morning of the death at Omaha on Sunday at eleven p. m. of Mrs. J. S. Hoagland. She was on her way to the Springs when she reached Omaha and owing to her condition it was decided to stop there until she recovered enough to continue the journey. No thought was entertained of her being seriously ill and those accompanying her placed her in friends' hands for a few days and returned to North Platte to take care of some pressing business engagements expecting to continue the journey to the Springs in a few days. The shock of her sudden death was severe to the members of her family and many friends of this community. She survived her husband, the late J. S. Hoagland by only a few weeks. Funeral services will be held at Lincoln on Wednesday and interment will be beside her husband at Lincoln. A delegation of Rebekahs will attend from here.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM OFF TO SCOTTSBLUFF TOMORROW.

The North Platte High School Football Team will leave tomorrow to play at Scottsbluff on Thursday. That is Armistice Day and the Scottsbluff people wanted a game at that time. A day or two ago it was thought that another game would be arranged for Saturday while on the trip but plans did not work out and the second game has been abandoned.

SHOOTING CRAFS IS PRETTY COSTLY FOR SUTHERLAND MAN.

Fred Stegeln, of Sutherland, who appealed his case from the decision of the County Court last month, was brought into District Court yesterday and after reviewing the case Judge Eldred gave him a fine of $300. Shooting Crafs is a form of gambling which is against the law and this fine should be warning to others of what they may expect if brought before the court.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL

LINCOLN COUNTY NOW ORGANIZED TO MAKE IT A SUCCESS.

The Fourth Annual Red Cross Roll Call will start Thursday, Nov. 11th, and continue for one week. This is the annual renewal of membership in the Lincoln County Chapter and is carried on in each of the places where a branch has been established.

Mrs. J. F. Clabaugh has been appointed chairman of the Roll Call for Lincoln County. She has selected her committee to handle the drive in the different centers in the County and has appointed as chairmen of the local committees: Mrs. Allison Wilcox, North Platte; Miss Winkvist, Brady; Mrs. Dolan, Maxwell; Rev. Knight, Hershey; R. A. Scott, Sutherland; Mrs. Killen, Wallace; Mrs. Phillips, Somerset; B. F. Teel, Ingham; C. W. Thomas, Dickens; Mrs. O. M. Swanson, Wellfleet.

The drive in North Platte will be conducted by a committee which has divided the city into twenty-two districts. Each district will be canvassed by a committee.

The membership fee is one dollar.

The Red Cross is too well known to need to have its work explained. Part of the membership fee is returned to the Lincoln County Chapter where the officers place it to the best advantage. C. L. Baskins is Chairman of the Lincoln County Chapter and A. W. Shilling is Secretary-Treasurer.

FATHER FLANAGAN AND HIS BOYS GIVE ENTERTAINMENT SUNDAY.

Before a crowd that packed the Keith Theatre to the doors, Father Flanagan and his boys gave an entertainment Sunday evening which was most interesting from start to finish. The boys made their own plea and with songs and speeches brought their work before the audience.

Father Flanagan is conducting a home for boys of all races and creeds. He is doing a great work and when the appeal was made for funds for a new building the crowd got on its toes and gave just about $1250. Father Flanagan expressed himself as very well pleased and sends his thanks through The Tribune, to those who gave so liberally. He stated after the program, that North Platte broke all previous records for giving to his home.

Once is TOO OFTEN to buy Poor Shoes

There are many cheap shoes to be had, too many. Possibly because some dealers figure "there is one born every minute."

But they soon learn, a man never goes back for another pair of poor shoes.

We believe as you do, "the best is always most economical in the long walk." We will not sell a pair of shoes unless we are sure they're good shoes.

Good Beyond all Doubt.

Never have we had such a line of Men's Shoes. Black or Brown Kid in broad or English toe.

PRICED FROM $6.00 TO $15.00
