The War Mothers have decided to make the Armistice Day Party and Dance an annual affair. The celebration this year was a great success. Thanks are offered by the War Mothers to the Temple Craft and those merchants who so kindly helped to make this a financial success.

N. M. Graham, Division Director of Vocational Rehabilitation for this District, was in the city Saturday, conferring with Miss Sarah Kelly, in regard to the vocational training of some of the Lincoln County boys who served in the war. Mr. Graham was formerly Superintendent of Schools of South Omaha.

Suit was filed in the District Court Saturday by Lloyd B. Hazen through Wm. E. Shuman, his attorney, against the Union Pacific Railroad. He asks for $15,000 damages for an accident which occurred at the round-house in the local yards. The case will probably come up for trial some time during the early part of next year.

The "Skywayman" showing at the Crystal tonight and tomorrow will likely be of much public interest as it features Lt. Omar Locklear whose recent death brought sadness to his admirers everywhere. Locklear was undoubtedly great in his chosen field, a pioneer of the air whose thrilling deeds have helped to make ordinary aeroplane travel seem safe and pleasant. His wonderful accomplishments, in spite of the fact that they eventually cost him his life, have been of real service to the public and to those forwarding the new science of air travel. Ten per cent of the rental receipts of this film are given to the widows of the men who lost their lives just after completing this picture.

Miss Eva Hoagland returned to Lincoln Sunday where she is attending the State University, after spending the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Hoagland.

The Nebraska College of Agriculture distributes free of charge publications dealing with such subjects as foods and cookery, food preservation, dietetics, textiles and clothing, house construction, household equipment, house furnishing, household management, health and hygiene, recreation, etc. Those interested should ask for a list of these publications and then check off those desired and return the list.

THE HAPPINESS OF EARLY SELECTION.—"My Christmas shopping is one of the pleasures of the year," a lady remarked in our store the other day. "And," she added, "I always come here to do it, and come here early, because I know I'll find what I want." Of course, we aim always to have what is newest and most attractive—goods the quality of which is above question or reproach. But much of the pleasure of Christmas shopping is due to this, customer's custom of doing it early. It is not to early now. The Sign of the Big Ring—CLINTON, THE JEWELER—"GIFTS THAT LAST."

The Nebraska College of Agriculture has two publications which offer many suggestions about butchering on the farm. One is called "Pork and Beef" and deals with all phases of killing and caring for the meat from these two kinds of animals. The other is called "Woman's Part in Home Butchering." It deals with the making of lard, sausage, bologna, head cheese, and the handling of the various other by-products at butchering time. Both publications may be obtained free. Ask for Extension bulletin 52, "Pork and Beef" and food circular No. 25, "Woman's Part in Home Butchering."

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL SCHEDULE FOR THIS YEAR ALMOST COMPLETED.

The local high school team has had a wonderful season so far with only two more games to be played. On next Friday the Curtis Agricultural School will send its best men over here to try the locals and a good game is assured. The Aggies have a bunch of big fellows and they are said to be well coached although the individual players are inexperienced. The game will be held at the Fair Grounds beginning at 3 P. M. Season ticket holders will be admitted without additional charge. Thanksgiving Day Grand Island plays here.

LINCOLN COUNTY SHOULD HAVE A COUNTY FARM BUREAU

We would hardly try to get along without a Commercial Club or a Chamber of Commerce in North Platte. The Farm Bureau does for the Farmers, even more than the Chamber of Commerce does for the city people. A paid secretary has been found necessary in order to make the Chamber of Commerce a success. A paid man, called the Agent has been found necessary in order to make the Farm Bureau a success. He looks after the interests of the farmer in a similar manner to the way the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce looks after the interests of the city merchants and business men. The two might be combined into one office but no one man could be expected to attend to all the work of that office. Farm Bureaus are being organized in Nebraska at the rate of one a week. Each comprises a county. When will this fine big county of ours get into the game?

You will be pleased with the arrangement of our store for the Xmas shopping. Dixon, the Jeweler.

A. J. Novak of Gothenburg, was a business visitor in North Platte this week.

METHODIST HOSPITAL TO BE CONSIDERED AT OMAHA TONIGHT.

The Committee of the Methodist Church Conference, having charge of the Hospital work in this state will meet in Omaha tonight and it is probable that some action will be taken regarding the location of the institution proposed for Western Nebraska. Geo. Carey, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and John Edwards, Director, left last night for Omaha to meet with the Board tonight. General Manager Jeffers will join them in presenting the merits of North Platte as the location for such an institution. The building will probably not be built for some time yet but the location may be decided at any time.

LISTS OF LINCOLN COUNTY PRODUCE SHIPPERS ISSUED

R. A. Smith, Supervisor of Agriculture for the Union Pacific System, has issued a number of lists that are interesting and instructive. One of these is a list of Fruit Dealers who have shipped over the Union Pacific. It includes Frank Turpie, Route 1, North Platte; J. H. Bonham and M. H. Woodman of Sutherland. Another list naming the potato shippers includes A. T. Yarter, Brady; E. W. Coker, Sutherland; H. J. Griffith, Sutherland and H. Nicholson, Sutherland. The list of Hay shippers is longer including the following Lincoln County firms: Leyboldt-Pennington Co., North Platte; Carl Wickstrom, Hershey; Harrington Mercantile Co., North Platte; J. McCullough, Brady; Murphy & Johnson, Brady; G. H. Rosentrater, Brady; W. W. Winquist, Brady; C. C. Carlton, Brady; R. Camblin, Brady; W. C. Dolan, Maxwell; L. J. Hansen, Maxwell; C. W. Burkland, Sutherland and John Cox, Sutherland.

MRS. W. H. McDONALD ENTERTAINS TRAVEL AND STUDY CLUB.

The Travel and Study Club met at the home of Mrs. W. H. McDonald last evening and listened to a parlor talk by Mrs. W. P. Killen of Wallace. The subject was "Travels in Italy." Mrs. Killen told of Naples, Rome and Venice and showed many views and photographs of ruins, scenes and buildings there. Mrs. Killen is planning a tour of parts of Europe for the coming summer and will conduct a party of sightseers through the countries visited.
