EDITORIAL.

We read in the Sunday Bee a dispatch from Stanton, Nebr., which said "All farm laborers salaries have been cut to ———." We used to work on the farm for wages but that is behind the times now. They work for salaries up there in Stanton Co.

Chas. M. Schwab, President of the Bethlehem Steel Co., said recently that the great need of the world today is to work and save. "This," he added, "applies to men of means as well as working men." Mr. Schwab certainly is progressive in his ideas regarding the man of means even if he is behind the times in suggesting that people should save.

Lincoln County has an exceptional record in the matter of meeting the quota in the various drives and campaigns. Are we going to fall down on the Christmas seals? The Committees are at work and solicitors will continue to cover the city and county in an attempt to beat the record of last year. Those who can should buy more stamps until the number sold in this county is satisfactory.

In reporting the facts in a recent issue of the Tribune regarding the death of Mrs. O. M. Pennington we said "blood poison set in as the result of late treatment." This was an error as we are informed that the physician in the case said the cause of infection was unknown. We certainly did not mean to cast any reflections on anyone, especially those who ministered to Mrs. Pennington and attended her during her sickness. Everything possible was done for her and we regret that our report was so misleading.

WRESTLING MATCH DRAWS A FAIR SIZED CROWD AT FIRE-MAN'S HALL.

A fair sized crowd watched Bobby Bylund win over Fred Bartell in a two-round wrestling match Wednesday evening. A lively preliminary was a draw. Bylund won the first fall in 55 minutes with a wrist lock and leg scissors which Bartell could not break. In the second round he threw Bartell in five minutes with a wrist lock. Geo. Carey was Referee.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Katherine Roche transacted business in Sutherland the latter part of the week.

The newest and biggest line of boys' clothing in town for just one-half price at the Star Clothing House.

Alvin Weingand arrived Friday morning from Denver to visit during the holidays.

Mrs. Frank Mayo, of Oconto, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Luther left for her home this morning.

Christmas Candles 2c a pound at McMichael's Grocery.

The Yeoman Lodge will give a paper hat social at the K. C. Hall on the evening of December 23. A prize will be given for the best paper hat and the committee in charge asks that every Yeoman wear a paper hat of some kind. The committee promises a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Emerson and children have been visiting at the Elmer Coates home for a few days and they left Friday morning for California where they will stay for the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. Weingand is expected the latter part of the week to spend the holidays in this city. From here they expect to leave for California where Mr. Weingand is at the present time.

Thomas Healey and son Darrell arrived home Friday from Denver where they were called by the serious illness of Luke Healey. Mr. Healey reports that his father is somewhat improved.

FIRST BASKET BALL GAME OF THE SEASON AT MAXWELL.

The second team of the North Platte High School went to Maxwell last evening and won a game of basket ball from the Maxwell boys by a score of 32 to 20. A good sized crowd of high school students accompanied the team.

LARGE REAL ESTATE DEAL ON NORTH SIDE GOES THROUGH YESTERDAY.

Julius Pizer purchased the two story building now occupied by the Logan Bulck Auto Co. yesterday from Julius Mogensen for a consideration of $25,000. This gives Mr. Pizer another large holding in business blocks and shows that there is renewed activity in real estate transfers.

PRESBYTERIAN CHOIR TO GIVE CHRISTMAS CANTATA SUNDAY EVENING.

The members of the Presbyterian Church choir under the direction of Mrs. H. M. Gilfoyl will render the cantata "The Star of Bethlehem" by Carrie Adams, Sunday evening. This is one of the best of the modern productions and the choir has worked hard to make the presentation creditable. It will be given in place of the regular Sunday evening service.

LOCAL MOVIE PRODUCTION DRAWS LARGE CROWD TO THE SUN.

The Romance of the Platte Valley was given four times Tuesday and four times again on Wednesday to crowded houses with many unable to get in at the evening shows. While not as finished a production as some we get at North Platte it had enough local color to make up for any shortcomings in artistic merit and the peculiarities of the actors as portrayed on the screen gave a touch to the picture which most productions do not have. The cost of producing the picture is high and the returns probably will not be undue. The film should be preserved as a historical treasure for coming generations.

WELL KNOWN LINCOLN COUNTY YOUNG FOLKS ARE MARRIED.

Charles L. Perkins and Miss Ruby H. Rowley were married Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. H. E. Hess officiating. Following the ceremony a splendid dinner was served.

Charles Perkins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Perkins of this city and has lived here most of his life. He attended the local schools and served in the Great War. During the past few years he has been farming and it is to a farm home that he will take his bride.

Mrs. Perkins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Rowley and is well known in this community. She has lived her all her life and has many friends. The bride wore a navy blue satin dress and carried white roses.

There were about forty guests present at the ceremony. The house was decorated with pink and white carnations.

The Tribune extends congratulations to these young people.

POPULAR NORTH PLATTE GIRL BECOMES BRIDE WEDNESDAY.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wessburg when their daughter Miss Essie was united in marriage to William Arthur Robinson, Rev. Sheak performing the ceremony.

The bride was unattended, being given away by her father. She wore a beaded white satin gown and a beautiful tulle veil and carried a shower bouquet of Opheelia roses and ferns.

Master Bobbie Robinson acted as ring bearer, carrying the ring in a rose.

The young couple left on a midnight train for Iowa where they will visit the groom's parents until the first of the year when they will be at home in North Platte.

Mrs. Robinson is a well known and popular lady of North Platte, having resided here all of her life.

Mr. Robinson is a prospective business man of the city being in partnership with his brother O. R. Robinson and uncle, A. J. Salisbury, in the S. & R. Service Station.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Overstreet left this morning for Lincoln where they will spend the holidays.

"THE BIRD OF PARADISE"

When "The Bird of Paradise" the Tully perennial favorite returns to the Keith for its annual visit, Florence Rockwell will again be seen in the title role. Miss Rockwell will be the seventh actress to assume the role of Luana and the third season for this talented actress in the part. Her characterization of the Hawaiian girl is said to be one of the best attempted.

Mrs. Guy Popejoy entertained Wednesday evening at a dinner in honor of Mrs. Ella Mae Lanyon, who will be married in the near future to John Cohagen. The table was prettily decorated for the occasion with a miniature bride and groom making the center piece. Miss Marcelles and Miss Rubis assisted in the serving. Christmas candies 25 cents a pound at McMichael's Grocery. Our store is replete with wonderful gifts for Xmas and at just the right prices, such as the Star Clothing House always maintains.

An Absorbing Tale of Romance and Adventure

A Princess of Mars
By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Rivaling the weird creations of Jules Verne and Edgar Allan Poe, it is hardly too much to say that this is the most remarkable piece of imaginative fiction of this generation.

Gripping in its thrill and charm, delightful in the purity of its love story, it also opens to the mind a new vista of speculation and fancy—something outside of earth.

Written by the author of "Tarzan of the Apes," "Tarzan and the Jewels of Opar," and other stories which have fascinated and delighted millions.

Soon to start as a serial in this paper.

Do Not Miss It!

A record in our artistic gift envelope will be the solution of your Xmas
