I have been a user of the Hawkeye Tires for several years and can't say too much for them. I do not believe that there is any better tire made than the Hawkeye Tire. Furthermore, I wish to say that my judgement on these tires is not derived from my experience alone, I have sold a good many of them and they have always given satisfaction. I sold a set to Dr. Twinem and several more thru out this Country and they are all more than pleased with the mileage they have been getting out of these tires.
Yours truly,
LAWRENCE ENZMINGER

I have had a set of Hawkeye tires on my Roadster for the past three years and they have had about Nine Thousand Miles out of them, and look good for about Five Thousand more.
Anyone wishing to see these casings I will be glad to show them to you.

I have a set of the Hawkeye tires, and have had them in constant use for about a year, and I am very much pleased with the service I am deriving from them.
Yours truly,
