Dye Old Skirts, Dresses, Waists, Coats, Stockings, Draperies—Everything.

Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains easy directions for dyeing any article of wool, silk, cotton, linen, or mixed goods. Beware! Poor dye streaks, spots, fades, and ruins material by giving it a "dyed look." Buy "Diamond Dyes" only. Druggist has color card.—Adv.

Rents for $10,000,000.

Two million dollars in rent from one building will be received by Capt. John Jacob Astor during the next 20 years, under the terms of a lease signed up last week in New York city. The property is the Hotel Astor and the Broadway between Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth streets. The block is part of the old Eden estate, which originally sold for $34,000.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. Catarrhal Deafness requires constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

Notice a la Dutch.

The Pennsylvania Dutch have their own way of saying things and generally they manage to make their meaning clear, although sometimes in unconventional language.

Over the bell on the front door of a house in a little town near Gettysburg was affixed a card reading:

The H. C. of Living had been discussed and the family felt as though it behooved them to watch the corners. The small daughter thought every night now too often to take in a movie, but mother insisted that constant going added greatly to expense. At supper Margaret remarked: "Nothing doing in the movie line tonight, dad; let's take a walk, that's the only thing that's cheap."

Praise Where Due.

The good old minister naturally wished to speak of all who had participated in the benefit concert, and, happily, could praise the efforts of most of the volunteer performers with sincerity and truth.

"And Miss Highty?" some one asked, "Did she sing well?"

The old gentleman hesitated, then smiled beamingly.

"Miss Highty's intentions were excellent—splendid—most to be admired!" he declared enthusiastically.

Sure Relief

For Mothers

Kansas City, Kan.—After motherhood I became weak and nervous, was run-down, so much so that I could hardly walk. I ached and pained all over. I was plainly speaking, a complete wreck when a relative advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This I did and in less than a month I was a well woman. Have been strong and healthy ever since.—MRS. ANNA TIMMERMAN, 303 S. 14th St. Sold by all druggists; made without alcohol into liquid and tablets.

ALLIES SOLID FOR CANCELLATION

Want United States to See It Must Compel Germany To Pay Obligations

TAXES ON ASSETS OF CAPITAL

Collection of Income Taxes on Profits From Sale of Capital Assets to Continue 'Till Constitutionality Is Settled.

Paris.—Great Britain's move for a mutual cancellation of war debts was made after full consultation with her allies, and is the first step in a concerted allied plan to compel the United States to see that the payment of war debts is dependent upon German reparation. Furthermore, it now seems clear that the 12 per cent export tax, adopted by the Paris conference, is intended, as a warning to America of the sort of reprisals the allies can adopt if the United States maintains an attitude of aloofness. Indeed, it is well recognized in allied circles that the proposed tax would operate heavily to the disadvantage of the United States.

The proposal to cancel war debts was made in the name of Great Britain largely because she is in a position to show that she would lose more than she would gain under such an arrangement. France, however, is not in the same position and the French government was unwilling to appear in the capacity of a beggar.

Senator Borah Predicts War.

Washington, D. C.—War between the United States and either Japan or Great Britain within the next few years if competitive navy building continues was predicted by Senator Borah of Idaho during a heated debate on the disarmament question in the senate. The debate followed hard upon the receipt of news that the Japanese had received overwhelmingly a measure providing that Japan enter into negotiations with the United States and Great Britain for a joint agreement on curtailment of naval building.

TAXES ON CAPITAL ASSETS.

Collection Will Continue Pending Decision of Supreme Court.

Washington, D. C.—Collection of income taxes on profits realized from the sale of capital assets will continue, Internal Revenue Commissioner Williams announces, until the constitutionality of that provision of the law has been determined by the supreme court, notwithstanding the recent decision to the contrary by a Connecticut court in which was known as the Brewster case.

"The same question," the commissioner declared, "is involved in the Eldorado and Ryerson cases, which were argued in the supreme court some weeks ago. A decision in these cases undoubtedly will settle the general question. In view of the severe penalties provided by law for false or fraudulent income tax returns, taxpayers are warned not to omit from their returns for the year 1920 such gains and profits."

Say Atrocities Stories Overdrawn.

Washington, D. C.—Stories about alleged atrocities committed by French colonial troops in the occupied area in Germany, "originate in Berlin and appear largely in anti-French propaganda," Secretary Colby said, in a letter to Senator Spencer, republican, Missouri.

The senator made the letter public, with the explanation that it answered "many inquiries and protests" received about alleged misconduct of the French troops.

Farmers Oppose Repeal of Tax.

Cleveland, O.—Farmers of the country will oppose any attempt to repeal excess profit and income taxes. J. R. Howard, Chicago, president of the American Farm Bureau federation said farmers of the corn belt region, including Ohio, Indiana and Missouri, were ready to donate 50,000,000 bushels of corn to starving people of China and Europe. Railroad brotherhoods, he said, have volunteered to see that the grain was delivered to the seaboard.

Gas Overcomes 22 at Church.

Council Bluffs, Ia.—Eighteen children, one man and three women were overcome by gas during the Sunday school services at the First Baptist church here, Sunday morning at 10:15. The deadly gas was declared to be odorless carbon monoxide generated in the exhaust flue of the gas heater which was warming the water in the baptistry for the immersion of three of the children. All were taken to their homes after first aid had been administered.

Washington, D. C.—After developing some high spots in the case of Grover C. Bergdoll, the house military committee decided to ask congress for authority to find out how the rich draft dodger escaped from a military guard and went to Germany, the country he had refused to fight. The committee so voted after hearing District Attorney C. D. McAvery of Philadelphia, who declared there was no evidence to justify the charge that anybody connected with the war department had been corrupted with Bergdoll's money.

LEGISLATIVE NEWS

The Nebraska senate by unanimous vote has granted Lieutenant Governor Barrows, presiding officer, a two-weeks leave of absence to allow him to take an official trip as commander-in-chief of the National Sons of Veterans. He will visit seventeen cities in the east and attend twenty-one meetings. He will share honors with either President-elect Harding or Vice President-elect Coolidge as speakers at the annual Philadelphia Lincoln day program.

Governor McKelvie has signed Senate Files 80, 81 and 82, relating to child welfare—Independent investigation if minors are involved, in divorce cases where default is entered; making it felony to conceal or harbor a child under 16; and making it unlawful to cruelly treat or abandon a child under 16.

The house declares in favor of the bill requiring the governor, when filling a vacancy in the United States senate or house of representatives, or in the state legislature, to appoint one whose political affiliations are the same as those of his predecessor.

A bill introduced in the house by Representative McEllan allows owners of tubercular cattle killed by order of state authorities up to $25 per head for grade animals and $50 for pure bred, exclusive of federal compensation.

Personal liability of state officers, who are heads of departments, for deficiencies incurred within their respective jurisdictions may be imposed by the Nebraska legislators as a needed check upon some official activities.

Although women enjoy suffrage rights, they are not so situated grand and petit juries in Nebraska, the members of the lower house having sustained the majority report submitted by the judiciary committee.

The question of whether or not orientals are likely to become a menace in Nebraska, is covered by the Davis bill, which would deprive aliens ineligible to citizenship of owning Nebraska land.

A bill setting aside November 11, Armistice day, as a legal holiday, passed the committee of the whole in the lower house. This makes ten statutory holidays in Nebraska, in addition to any special day designated.

The house committee on revenue and taxation turned in a favorable recommendation on Representative Miner's bill providing for real estate assessments every two instead of four years.

An anti-cigarette bill by Anderson of Hamilton provides for the repeal of the present law and tacks a fine from $50 to $100 upon anyone manufacturing, selling, or giving away cigarettes.

Men convicted of assault and sentenced to the state penitentiary will be barred from parole under a bill passed in the lower house by an almost unanimous majority.

Dr. George A. Young, of Syracuse, has been appointed a member of the state board of veterinary examiners by Governor McKelvie. His term will be for three years.

The state legislature has been requested by Governor McKelvie to make appropriations for running the state government the next two years of $26,845,207.

The Nebraska American Legion has refused to endorse a bill recently introduced in the state legislature providing a cash bonus for ex-service men.

A bill introduced by Yeiser of Douglas, asks for repeal of the workmen's compensation law. No provision is made for a substitute.

A bill, introduced by Johnson and Norval, provides that all loaves of bread shall be of uniform weight "unless otherwise marked."

The house committee on miscellaneous subjects voted to report for indefinite postponement the Legion's boxing bill.

The lower house passed Smith's pound for pound bread bill by a vote of 83 to 5.

A state industrial commission with complete control of all industries is provided for in a bill by Epperson of Clay. The board would be composed of three members appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate.

When the time limit for filing bills in the senate was reached a total of 349 bills had been introduced to that body. With the 617 bills introduced in the house it is evident that a lot of hard work is to be done before adjournment of the fortieth Nebraska legislature.

Attention of the legislature will be called to the fact that twelve statutes passed in 1919 are identical to laws embodied in the civil administrative code. It is likely that a committee on correlation will be named to repeal the duplicated laws.

Every member of the house took a hand in the introduction of bills at this session of the legislature. Usually there are a few solons who put in no measures of their own, but not one missed out on getting a bill in this time.

THE AMERICAN LEGION

(Copy for law department supplied by the American Legion News Service.)

WELL KNOWN IN HOME STATE

James T. Duane, Commander of Massachusetts Department, Known to Many of His Buddies.

James T. Duane, commander of the Massachusetts department of the American Legion, is perhaps better known to the Legionnaires in his state than any other Legion official. He is said to have met more than 50,000 former service men and women during the time he was head of the military division of the Massachusetts state treasury department, which had charge of the distribution of the state bonus.

When Mr. Duane sailed for France with the Twenty-sixth division, he was a private; when he returned to America after participation in almost every major offensive of the war, he was the captain in command of the company with which he went overseas as a private. He had also served as a battalion commander for a time during the Argonne-Meuse drive.

Mr. Duane has been a retail salesman in Massachusetts and New York, a member of the theatrical profession and assistant manager for an electric and gas company. During his career as a state official, he was in charge of the disbursement of $20,000,000 in gratuities to veterans of the war.

As a member of the state welfare and post activities and state executive committees of the Massachusetts department of the Legion, Mr. Duane was instrumental in blocking the proposed transfer of ex-service mental patients to the old State Insane asylum at Worcester, Mass., and in the establishment of a permanent staff of teachers in the various Public Health Service hospitals.

RULES IN SOUTH CAROLINA

G. Howard Mahon, Jr., Elevated to Department Commander of Legion in Home State.

Although G. Howard Mahon, Jr., of Greenville, S. C., commander of the South Carolina department of the American Legion, was severely wounded in action, spent long months in French, English and American hospitals and was discharged with disability, he has taken a prominent part in the organization of the Legion and in civic affairs of his state.

Mr. Mahon is now president of the Young Men's Business League of Greenville. Following his discharge from the hospital, which did not occur until April 3, 1920, he was elected commander of his home-town post and later department commander of the Legion.

Having attended the "Citadel" military school, Mr. Mahon developed an interest in military affairs at an early age. He was in command of the First battalion, 118th infantry from the time it was organized until he was wounded when the Thirtieth division routed the Boches at Bellecourt.

TO HOLD CORDIAL RELATIONS

Legion Representatives in Attendance at Recent Formation of Inter-Allied Veterans' Association.

American Legion representatives took an active part in the formation of the Inter-Allied Veterans' association in Paris recently. The association is composed of delegates from the Union Nationale des Combattants of France, the Comrades of the Great War of Great Britain, the Federation Nationale des Combattants of Belgium, the Associazione Nazionale Combattenti of Italy, Druzina of Czechoslovakia and the American Legion.

The primary purpose of the organization is to preserve the cordial relations between the nations associated in the war on the allied side. As one means of accomplishing this it is proposed that the membership card of each society shall be recognized by the societies in all the nations represented in the association.

The delegates who attended the Paris conference have been instructed to report back to their respective organizations the details of the amalgamation. Paris was merely the starting point, from which veterans of the World War may form their own League of Nations.

The committee which represented the American Legion at the Paris conference included Cabot Ward and Arthur W. Kipling of Paris Post No. 1; Norman C. Coster, department adjutant of France; E. Sadler and W. H. A. Coleman of London post; Edmond L. Gros, George A. Dunagin and E. J. Sellman.

TIMELY HINTS BY SETLIFFE

Illinois State Adjutant Offers Eleven Commandments Which He Has Found Useful.

Eleven commandments in "reverse English" have been found useful by William Q. Setliffe, state adjutant of the American Legion in Illinois, in building up the Legion's program for that state. They are as follows:

1. Don't attend meetings if it rains. You might get your feet wet, and you are not in the physical condition you were at the cantonments, or at Brest.
2. Don't think of going if it is a warm, moonlight night. There are lots of other things you could do that sort of a night. For instance—Oh, sort your own idea.
3. If you should attend a meeting, find fault with everything that's going on. If your officers are showing pep, demand to know in open meeting what political offices they intend running for.
4. Never accept an office in the post. Most offices have duties connected with them, and it is much easier to criticize the way the other fellow is trying to handle the job.
5. Get sore at the organization if you are not appointed on a committee.
6. If you are appointed, don't bother about attending the committee meetings. They often are a bore.
7. During discussion of a motion keep still. After it has passed, tell some one why they should have voted it down.
8. Forget to pay your dues. The post can get along awhile longer without your contribution.
9. Don't try to get new members. George will do it.
10. Don't do any work on post affairs, or any more than is absolutely necessary. When other members roll up their sleeves and give unselfishly of their time and ability to help things along, get up on your hind legs and howl that the post is being run by a clique.
11. Remember, you owe no duty or obligation to a sick or disabled buddy—your own personal comfort comes first.

DOCTOR IS DEPT. COMMANDER

Ira L. Parsons, M. D., Is Leader of the Mississippi Department of the American Legion.

Dr. Ira L. Parsons, commander of the Mississippi department of the American Legion, was one of the thousands of physicians who left lucrative practices to enter the military service during the World war. However, his case is exceptional in that he was 41 years old at the outbreak of the war.

Born in Lincoln county, Miss., Dr. Parsons was educated in the public and high schools of his native state, Mississippi college and Tulane university. Since graduation he has been engaged in the practice of medicine at Brookhaven, Miss.

Sixty-two French war orphans were cared for during the period of one year by the adoption fund raised by the American Legion. The total amount contributed by Legion posts in many parts of the country and individuals for 1920 was $4,650.

Back Given Out?

There's surely some reason for that lame, aching back. Likely it's your kidneys. A cold or strain oftentimes congests the kidneys and slows them up. That may be the reason for that nagging backache, those sharp pains, that tired, worn-out feeling. You may have headaches and dizzy spells, too, with annoying bladder irregularity. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. They have helped thousands. Ask your neighbor!

A Nebraska Case

E. D. Clark, 615 Fifth St., Aurora, Neb., says: "I had a severe attack of kidney complaint, as my kidneys had been weakened by hard work. I got so lame in the muscles of my back and across my hips I was unable to do anything. A friend advised me to take Doan's Kidney Pills and I got some. Less than two boxes cured me of the attack."
