

VAUDEVILLE A JOY BILL COMING!

Comedy and Novelty Feature the Bill coming to the KEITH Thursday Next

It's Really an All Joy Bill That is Coming to the Keith Theatre on Thursday Next

There are three acts who devote their ability to laugh-making very successfully, and one decided novelty. But there is enough mirth to satisfy the most exacting. The Fitzgerald Duo inaugurates the bill with balancing and barrel jumping. Sue Stead and Sister proffer excellent harmony singing with instrumental accompaniments. The fun feast commences with Campbell and Grover, two colored comedians who handle syncopation and humor in a riotous manner. Saxon, Chanard and Leonard contribute singing, dancing and music in a lively manner and send the audience home in a good humor.

EDITORIAL.

Some people may think there are too many traveling men and there may be too many but that is no reason for saying that the commercial traveler is a luxury. He is the apostle of cheer and brings to the merchant who is tied down to his store a breeze from the centers of industry which is heartening. No great invention has made any rapid headway until a man with a vision has gone to the prospective buyer and overcome his prejudices by showing him the merits of the invention. Everyone wants to take out some life insurance and yet no one ever goes to an agent and asks for a policy. The agent hunts up the business. The commercial traveler is reliable or he could not hold his job. He is a business man using business methods. He is cheerful; he is usually companionable; his life is spent away from home on the road. Many concerns have tried to get along without traveling salesmen and some have succeeded but nearly all have finally come to this method of selling goods. He is one of us and we are for him.

In former issues we have tried to show that the Board of Education here in North Platte had the legal and generally acknowledged right to make dancing one of the school activities and that it acted in good faith and with popular approval when it did so. It is well at this point to call attention to the fact that the right and wrong of the dance, its moral and its immorality nature is a question foreign to the discussion. One extreme condemns the dance as absolutely wrong; the other extreme says there is nothing wrong in it. Most of us know that as an institution it has its dangers. Wherever decency exists there we find safeguards thrown about the dancers—it may be in the form of the policeman at the public dance, the welfare worker at the social dance, or the chaperone at the private dance. Regulation and control have seemed necessary especially with young people. The danger exists in the unregulated dance. The Board of Education recognized this and ruled that teachers and mothers must be present, that no outsiders should be allowed to take part, that the dancing should be only a part of the evening entertainment and that it should not last late. Members of the Board of Education were also invited to be present. Thus we believe the Board of Education acted lawfully and in good faith in making dancing one of the school interests and that it recognized the danger in the dance in making restrictive regulations to govern school dances.

CAT SCORED USUAL VICTORY
Japanese Legend Merely Another Feather in the Cap of the Ever-Conquering Feline.

There is an enchanting story told by the Lady Sei Shonagon, a beauty of Japan of nine centuries past, of the emperor's favorite cat—herself a spoiled beauty. She had received a cap of honor and had been raised to the third rank of nobility, with the title of Wiyobu-no-Ototo, or "Chief of the Female Attendants," and was a cat of many graces. Unfortunately, on a day of disobedience, her lady-in-waiting summoned the emperor's dog, Okinamaru, to startle her into good behavior. He barked obediently, and the cat dashed madly behind the screen, where his majesty sat at breakfast, and sought refuge in his arms. The emperor, much shocked, sent for the lord high chamberlain, and pronounced sentence on poor Okinamaru. A thrashing and exile! The Lady Sei describes him as hitherto a happy dog and much esteemed. But a short time before he had been carried in a procession in a willow litter, with peach blossoms and hollyhocks on his head! He was now an outcast on dog island, "and none so poor to do him reverence." He may possibly have found life easier without the hollyhocks, but it is interesting to see that the eternal cat is victorious as ever. The dog is vanquished; the lady-in-waiting ruined, and the cat lies in the emperor's lap and purrs. So was it always; so will it ever be, writes L. Adams Beck in Asia Magazine.

NEW SCRAPPLE.

A Column of Nonsense.

Hon. E. S. Davis,
Lincoln, Nebr.

Dear Ed—

The other day when we were going over to Art Rush's store to buy pretzels, a man stopped us and asked us how old a man should be to stop wearing cuffs on the bottoms of his trousers. We told him we didn't know and he said there ought to be a law on the subject and we are writing you to pass a law as to when a man is too old to wear cuffs on the bottoms of his trousers. You know trousers is usually called pants and while pants are not spoken of much in polite society it would do no harm to mention them in the laws for only a few people ever read the laws and they are mostly men. You know Ed, that it is all right for young men to wear cuffs there because they have a use and that it that as the young men gets taller we don't have to throw away his pants but can just turn down the cuff and iron out the crease. It is a great idea, Ed.

Then again Ed, a young man must look nifty when he goes a shining around the girls and he is shining most of the time and a cuff at the bottom of each pant leg is about the niftiest thing they have invented since we were a young man. But what some of these old fellows want to dress up in nifty we can't tell. Who are they shining around is what we would like to know and their wives should find out. So we say make the law.

Then again Ed, young fellows make lots of money and can afford to buy extra cloth on the bottoms of their pants legs but when a fellow gets old he should begin to save his money and not buy any more cloth in his pants than he needs for service. We say no waste of cloth in that way for the old fellows.

Then again Ed, we heard of a fellow the other day who dropped his eye glasses and didn't find them until the next day and all the time they were in the turned up part of his pants' leg. If he was an old fellow it served him right to have to go without his glasses all day just because he was trying to be nifty and if he was a young fellow you see how fortunate it was that he had cuffs to catch the glasses and so they did not hit the floor and probably break and he probably didn't have any more money to buy another pair.

So Ed, since we did not hear from you about the law to teach children how to chew gum artistically, we hope you will pass this law and keep some of these old fellows in this town from passing themselves off on poor unsuspecting people as young men, especially printers.

Yours truly,
A CONSTITUENT.

Nerve-Speed When Needed

LACK OF RESERVE FORCE CAUSE OF MOST FAILURES IN THE DAILY AFFAIRS OF LIFE

To feel weary without having earned it by hard work throws the mind into disorder and confusion.

A hundred people describing their weary condition would each tell it differently. One can't think, another is drowsy, the next feels weak, others are irritable, moody, depressed, apprehensive, as the case may be. To this great class of sufferers comes Rogo, one of the grandest reconstructive agencies ever devised for definite accomplishment. It intensifies the activity of the vital processes, provokes increased flesh, stimulates the production of red corpuscles, contributes to the defense of the system against depletion and consequent exhaustion, and in many other ways arouses the functional processes to make you feel that something has touched that one flickering vital spark you thought was about to go out. No amount of description can adequately convey the difference between the feeling of lack of nerve speed and the rebound; the freedom, the liberation from depressions that cause so many men and women to fall in their tracks, to go to sleep at the switch or stand still when the order is to go ahead. If you would really like to get acquainted with your real self get a $1.00 box of Rogo today. Ask any of the clerks at Geo. Frater's Drug Store or Jos. H. Stone's Drug Store.

Only America Can Keep These Pots Boiling

This snapshot of an American feeding kitchen in still prostrate eastern Europe shows what America means to the otherwise helpless childhood of the war-swept nations. Funds supporting these outposts of succor and other agencies for the relief of children stricken by the disease caused by under-nutrition have run out, and that the work may not cease, depriving millions of the innocent of their only hope for life, eight great American relief organizations under the name of the European Relief Council are banding together in a joint appeal to the American conscience in their behalf. These agencies are the American Relief Administration, the American Red Cross, the American Friends' Service Committee (Quakers), the Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, the Knights of Columbus, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A.

PURE BRED PUBLIC SALE

Mr. and Mrs. Chel Shelly of Fairbury are visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Brock this week. Mr. Shelly is editor of the Fairbury News and Mrs. Shelly will be remembered by many North Platte people as Miss Lulu Groff who visited the Brock family a number of times.

Mr. and Mrs. Oldt were delightfully surprised last evening when a number of neighbors and friends gathered at their home. Cards were played during the evening after which duty refreshments were served.

At North Platte, Nebr., Febr. 24, 1921, at livery barn. This is our annual sale of Duroc Jersey Bred sows, and we are also selling 11 head of Shorthorns consisting of 9 young bulls and 2 young heifers of real merit. This is all young, good stuff, with best of breeding, and quality. The bred sows are tried sows, fall and spring gilts, bred for March and April litters. If you need a brood sow or a herd bull, don't forget to attend this sale, as this is all good seed stock. Write for catalogue to owner, Frank Stralberg, North Platte, Nebraska.
