

HELP THAT ACHING BACK!

Is your back giving out? Are you tortured with backache and stabbing pains? Does any exertion leave you "all played out"? Feel you just can't keep going? Likely your kidneys are to blame. Overwork, colds, hurry and worry tend to weaken the kidneys. Backache is often the first warning. Headache and dizziness may come, too, and annoying kidney irregularities. Help the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills—the remedy recommended by thousands. Ask your neighbor!

An Iowa Case

Jennie Mace, Sabula, Iowa, says: "I had a great deal of trouble with dull, nagging pains through my back. There was a constant dull aching in the small of my back and sharp pains would dart through my hips and into my spine. I was very nervous and felt miserable. I took Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of the trouble."

A Kansas Woman Testifies

Mulberry, Kans.—"My son, at the age of 10 years, was taken with pneumonia. We had three doctors. Then he took chicken-pox and measles and last typhoid fever. He got through them all in one winter, but it left him with such a cough I feared he could not get well. I got Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and gave it to him; it cured him entirely. I lived near Monroe City, Mo., when my son was sick." MRS. JANE S. CARROLL.

Eaton's Gets Her Up!

"Over a year ago," says Mrs. Dora Williams, "I took to bed and for 10 months did not think I would live. Eaton's helped me so much I am now up and able to work. I recommend it highly for stomach trouble."

Eaton's helps people to get well by taking up and carrying out the excess acidity and gases that put the stomach out of order. If you have indigestion, sourness, heartburn, belching, food repelling, or other stomach distress, take an Eaton's after each meal. Big box costs only a trifle with your druggist's guarantee.

EXECUTIVES TAKE OATH OF OFFICE

Ceremonies are Simple and Most Dramatic for Generation. Mr. Wilson Unable to Take Part.

USUAL CEREMONIES LACKING

Mr. Wilson Yielded to Warnings of Physicians and After the Signing of Documents
Went to His Home.

Washington.—Warren G. Harding Friday took the oath of office as the twenty-ninth president of the United States at 1:39 p. m.

Before the cheering had died away Mr. Harding stepped forward and extended his arms in a gesture embracing the whole crowd of 50,000 who stood before him, and started his inaugural address.

Ten feet away with her eyes upon his face stood Mrs. Harding.

Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts was sworn in as vice president and president of the senate at 12:10.

Thirty-three senators were inducted into office as members of the sixty-seventh congress.

With ceremonies entirely lacking in pageantry or ostentation Mr. Harding took the oath on the east steps of the capitol.

The program began at 10:30, when the joint congressional committee, headed by Senator Knox, Pennsylvania, and Uncle Joe Cannon, Illinois, motored to the Willard hotel and formally took under escort the president-elect and the vice president-elect.

At the White house President Wilson joined the party and the procession of motor cars, under escort of cavalry, started for the capitol.

In the first car rode President Wilson, President-elect Harding, Knox and Cannon. The second car contained Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Harding, Senator Nelson and Representative Tucker. In the third was Vice President Marshall, Mrs. Coolidge and Senator Overman. The fourth carried Vice President-elect Coolidge, Mrs. Marshall and Representative Reavis.

Following were secret service men and newspaper correspondents.

President Wilson, on advice of his doctors, did not stay for the inauguration of Mr. Harding. After signing bills Mr. Wilson left the White house for the last time, a halting, ashen-faced figure, exerting every ounce of his will power.

A crowd which gathered outside the White house grounds to see him leave stood hushed by the spectacle of the bent, gray-haired man, shuffling to an automobile.

Attendants had to lift his feet on the steps and help him into the car.

During the ride to the capitol Mr. Wilson remained oblivious to the crowds, which cheered intermittently.

Not once did the president lift his high silk hat; he seemed to think that the tribute was all for Warren G. Harding.

On the Bible used by George Washington at his first induction into office and on a verse of scripture extolling the virtues of a humble faith in God, Mr. Harding pledged his best ability to the presidency. In his inaugural address he reaffirmed his reverence for the traditions of the fathers and reiterated his belief that the supreme task ahead was to bring the country once more to normalcy.

Before Mr. Harding had been president an hour he had revived a precedent set by George Washington by conferring with the senate in executive session, submitting in person the nominations of his 10 cabinet officers. All were immediately confirmed. Within another hour he had gone to the White House "to hang up his hat and go to work."

John S. Williams Resigns.
Washington.—John Skelton Williams of Richmond announced his resignation as comptroller of the currency. The resignation was accepted by President Wilson, effective at once.

Costa Ricans Sent to Frontier.
Managua, Nicaragua.—Costa Rican forces numbering 2,500 men have been sent to the Panama frontier by the government.

Monopoly on Tobacco.
Vienna.—Prices of tobacco, a government monopoly, will be greatly increased in the effort to secure additional revenue. Cigars will go up from 48 per cent to 233 per cent, according to the quality, and cigarettes from 100 per cent to 150 per cent.

Vienna.—Only 6 per cent of convictions were found by the profiteers courts last year, but the fines amounted to 4,000,000 crowns and goods were confiscated to the value of 200,000,000 crowns.

Ask Promotion by Seniority.
Chicago.—Promotion according to seniority, fitness and ability was urged on the railroad labor board in behalf of the railway clerks by J. F. Murray of the employees' committee in the rules hearing. Favoritism and a disinclination to change a man from one position were declared responsible for the fact that new men were often brought in to fill vacancies which employees contend should be filled by advancing employees from lower positions.

LEGISLATIVE NEWS

The American Legion boxing bill received the approval of the house in the committee of the whole after some changes were made in the original measure. Representative Mellor secured an amendment limiting the charges for admission to $1 a ticket. Supporters of the bill fought the Mellor amendment, but were taken by surprise and were unable to defeat it.

Legislative inquiry into the alleged landlords' combination and rent profiteering will be conducted on the correspondence plan. Those who wish to unburden themselves of information regarding the greedy apartment house owners are invited to write to the special investigation committee, of which Representative Foster is chairman.

Nebraska's permanent school fund will have to wait along without getting back the $261,734 which it lost in the Bartley defalcation of twenty-five years ago. An appropriation of that amount has been killed by the house committee on school lands and funds.

The new state pardon and parole board, comprising Governor McKelvie, Attorney General C. A. Davis and Secretary of State Amsberry, granted paroles to only eleven inmates of the Nebraska penitentiary, out of fifty-six making application early in February.

April 10 to 15 is the time at which the Nebraska legislature will wind up its work and adjourn, according to the opinion of those who have watched the proceedings in past sessions and know what to look for, judging the future by the past.

House Roll No. 332, a bill intended to place all public utilities in all cities and towns in the state under the control of the state railway commission, met a hard death in the committee on cities and towns of the house.

H. R. 100, requiring attendance of children in town and rural schools until the scholar has reached the age of 16 or has completed the course provided, was sidetracked for consideration in executive session.

Without much opposition, the bill fixing a uniform salary of $2,500 for deputy state officers and secretaries to the governor, the railway commission and the board of control was approved for passage.

Petitions have been presented to the state senate from 500 Nebraskans, most of them retailers of bread, opposing H. R. 24, providing for a standard weight bread loaf.

Teachers of the state will not be required to make an oath of allegiance to the state and United States governments before they are allowed to teach, the state senate making this provision.

The state senate has recalled Senate File No. 160, the reinforced Silman language law, which was advanced to third reading the preceding day, and tacked on two more amendments.

The house judiciary committee killed the anti-cigarette bill and the anti-capital punishment bill, the vote in committee being 7 to 4 on both measures.

More than $2,500,000 was lopped off Governor McKelvie's requested budget by the finance committee, which introduced appropriation bills into the lower house totaling $21,284,774.43.

The house medical committee killed the bill which would cut graduate nurse requirements from three years of training to two years' training.

Secretary Clyde Barnard of the senate says that he believes that body will be able to finish its schedule without a sifting committee.

Governor McKelvie has signed fifteen bills, or approximately 1.5 per cent of the total number introduced in the legislature.

A standing house committee killed a bill providing for annual reappraisal of school lands for leasing purposes.

The senate killed S. F. No. 76, a bill to license midwives, drafted by the Child Welfare commission.

The house committee on education has recommended indefinite postponement of the bill requiring all school teachers to take the oath of allegiance. Committee members contend that it is a useless reiteration.

The Osterman resolution declaring the week of April 4 to 11 "Corn Meal" week in Nebraska passed the house unanimously. The resolution paves the way for a concerted move in line with that being conducted in other states to encourage the use of corn meal and corn products.

The house passed a resolution to appoint a committee to draw up resolutions of congratulations to President-elect Harding and Vice President-elect Coolidge to be presented to them on the occasion of their inauguration March 4.

District judges of Douglas county, whose libraries were destroyed in the court house riot two years ago, are to be reimbursed for their losses. Senate File No. 209, authorizing Douglas county to reimburse the jurists, passed the senate, 17 to 9.

WHY DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND SWAMP-ROOT

For many years druggists have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine.

It is a physician's prescription. Swamp-Root is a strengthening medicine. It helps the kidneys, liver and bladder do the work nature intended they should do.

Swamp-Root has stood the test of years. It is sold by all druggists on its merit and it should help you. No other kidney medicine has so many friends.

Be sure to get Swamp-Root and start treatment at once. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send test cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.
