Most people keep their returned checks. They look them over and check them up. Each time they see this form it impresses the name of the merchant. It is a good standing advertisement and is treasured by the maker. By its terms it prevents possible dispute and saves collection charges. When the address is placed after the signature it gives one a valuable mailing list. A number of the most progressive firms in North Platte are using the Universal Check now. The members of the Community Club of Hershey were hosts at a get-together meeting Thursday night and entertained an assemblage that filled every seat and occupied every inch of standing room in the opera house and there were many who could not gain admission. A returned soldier told of his experiences in the trenches of France, a young ladies glee club rendered a number of selections in an exceptionally pleasing manner, a young lady violinist contributed to the excellence of the program and splendid selections were rendered by a male quartet and a lady vocalist. An address was delivered by S. J. Koch, one of the substantial and successful men of the Hershey vicinity. Short talks were made by President Edwards, Director Gibbs and Secretary Bare of the North Platte Chamber of Commerce. Following this program a two reel comedy was shown. As a result of this very successfully conducted meeting, of which W. C. Knight and G. M. Smith were the presiding officers, thirty-five names were added to the membership roll of the Club. Secretary Bare says he never attended a meeting where the real community spirit was so much in evidence. The meeting was a great surprise to the North Platte men for when they accepted the invitation to attend they expected to talk to a crowd of about fifty men and when ushered into the big audience of men and women and children they almost got "cold feet".

Armenian President Asks American Aid

Dr. H. Ohandjanian, Armenian President

Erivan, Armenia: Dr. H. Ohandjanian, President of the Armenian Republic, has sent an urgent cablegram to Charles V. Vickrey, General Secretary of the Near East Relief, 1 Madison Ave., New York City, requesting immediate assistance to prevent the starvation of the Armenian people before the next harvest can be gathered. President Ohandjanian's message reads:

"Owing to hail, rain and field mice, the harvest in Armenia fell below expectations. Standing crops appeared well, but owing to poor seed, returns were not as good as was expected. Maximum returns 140,000 tons, only sufficient for eight months for one and a half million people. Food crisis critical and intensified by new Turkish invasion of Armenia. It is estimated that 100,000 peaceful inhabitants of Sarikamish and Kars region have been forced to renew the life of refugees and flee towards the interior of Armenia. There are also large numbers fleeing from Bolshaviks in Azerbaijan and Southern Russia, and coming to Armenia. Farmers, fearing famine, are unwilling to sell crops, thus leaving the cities foodless. In addition to the Armenian crops, ten thousand tons have been purchased from neighboring countries.

"In order to save Armenia it is necessary to secure flour from America, 50,000 tons, maximum requirement. In the name of the Armenian Government and the Armenian People, I beg that you use your wide influence in order that the Near East Relief may secure and ship the flour needed. I am sure that in this serious crisis the Near East Relief will not fail to continue its aid to Armenia in her struggle for existence.

"H. OHANDJANIAN, 'President of Armenia.'

SHRINES BEYOND ALL PRICE

United States Has Many That Are Inexpressibly Dear to the Hearts of the People.

This old Plymouth church belongs to the noble dead, to the living only as trustees, but by way of pre-eminence it belongs to the generations that are as yet unborn. Civilization journeys forward partly on books, partly upon the memorial days of great men, who are builders of the state, upon organized laws and finally upon historic buildings.

No one can fully value the influence of the Temple in Jerusalem upon the Hebrew state. In like manner the Parthenon was like an invisible teacher, whose strong hands shaped the plastic soul of the Greek race. There are half a dozen buildings in Great Britain, including Westminster abbey and St. Paul's, and to take those buildings out of England's life would be like taking the intellect out of man's body.

The people of the United States have but a brief history, only three centuries, but they have Independence hall, Mount Vernon, that shaft at Gettysburg, Faneuil hall, Old South church, Lincoln's house and shrine at Springfield, and old Plymouth church, priceless shrines for the American people.—Newell Dwight Hillis.
