POPULAR YOUNG WOMAN AND WELL KNOWN BUSINESS MAN ARE MARRIED

A pretty wedding took place Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the McFarland home when Miss Lucille McFarland became the bride of Paul A. Nolan in the presence of a few close relatives. Rev. Patrick McDaid performed the ceremony and Miss Marjory Arnold played the wedding march. Just before the ceremony Paul Harrington sang 'Love's Garden of Roses.' Miss McFarland was gowned in tomato colored organdie and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses, sweet peas and lillies of the valley. Miss Gertrude Arnold acted as bridesmaid and wore a dress of yellow organdie and carried a bouquet similar to the bride's. Chas. Nolan, brother of the groom, was best man. The house was decorated with palms and ferns.

After the wedding the couple left for a wedding trip to Denver and Casper. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Nolan will be at home to their friends in the Prosser apartment on west Fifth street.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mose McFarland, and is one of North Platte's most popular girls, having attended the local schools and is very prominent in social circles.

Mr. Nolan, a young business man, also attended the local schools and is an ex-service man who has a host of friends in this city.
