MILLIONS FOR WAR MEMORIAL

Indiana Legislature Appropriated Nearly $10,000,000 for Legion Structure at State Capital.

A suitable national headquarters building of the American Legion in Indianapolis was assured with the passage of three bills by the state legislature, appropriating almost $10,000,000 for a war memorial structure, which will house the Legion's main offices.

Five city blocks in the heart of Indianapolis will be used for the memorial project. The building will be erected in the middle block, with the remaining plots transformed into a magnificent city plaza. At one exterior of the memorial site is located the Federal Postoffice building, erected at a cost of $6,000,000. Facing the outer end of the plaza is the $3,000,000 city library.

Tentative plans for the construction of the buildings are now in the hands of a state commission, of which Postmaster General Will H. Hays is a member. Selection of the architect will be made by the National Institute of Architecture, following a contest in which all architects of America have been invited to participate. The legislature set aside a fund of $100,000 to defray expenses of the contest and to award the artist whose designs and plans are adopted a prize of $50,000.

Invitations have been issued to national headquarters of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Women's Relief Corps, Service Star Legion, American War Mothers, Spanish War Veterans and Women's Auxiliary of the Legion to occupy quarters in the Memorial building along with the Legion.

To Dr. T. Victor Keene, national executive committeeman of Indiana, will go much of the credit for making the war memorial possible. Dr. Keene fathered the movement from its infancy and fought for it when other Legionnaires, although supporting the fight, were fearful of success. Dr. Keene was the first officer of the reserve corps of any branch of service called to active duty during the World war. He was a colonel, medical corps, in command of base hospital 70 overseas.

THE "MOTHER OF THE BONUS"

Friendly Title Assigned to Kansas Woman Member of the Legislature and Called "Legistady."

Mrs. Ida M. Walker, first woman member of the Kansas legislature, is honored by American Legion members of that state with the title of "Mother of the Bonus," for it was Mrs. Walker who drew up and pushed through a state bonus, which grants ex-service men one dollar for each day of military or naval service during the World war.

Although Mrs. Walker cannot qualify for membership in the Legion or in its Women's Auxiliary, she has been a tireless worker for the cause which brought the organizations into existence, and for which they now stand. During the World war she was state director of women's work in the Belgian relief fund and also served as food administrator for her county. The "Mother of the Bonus" also assists her husband in the publication of a weekly newspaper and is a former president of the Kansas Federation of Women's Clubs.

The advent of Mrs. Walker to the legislature resulted in the coining of a new word. At loss to distinguish between male and female members, the recent session decided to refer to women lawmakers or "legistadies."

LEGION LAWMAKER ALL THERE

Youngest Member of North Dakota Legislature Produces Results for His Fellow Buddies.

To Robert J. Boyd, a member of Gilbert C. Grafton Post No. 2 of the American Legion at Fargo, N. D., goes the honor of being the youngest member of the house of representatives of the North Dakota legislature. He is twenty-five years old.

A former president of the Fargo Trade and Labor assembly and an active member of the Pressmen's union at Fargo, Mr. Boyd was active in support of several bills advantageous to organized labor. He was also a strong advocate of legislation backed by the North Dakota department of the Legion.

Among the results of his work are: the passage of bills making Armistice day a legal holiday, protecting the Legion emblem and increasing tax for bonus fund from three-fourths to one mill on taxable property. He also led the fight which resulted in the passage of a resolution urging congress to pass the Fordney five-fold compensation bill, a measure backed by the Legion.

Victory for the Legion.
The closing of the United States public health service hospital for tubercular ex-service men at Markleton, Pa., by order of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Ewing Laporte, is regarded by American Legion officials as a great victory for the ex-service men's national policy in regard to disabled veterans. This hospital was first denounced as an improper place for the treatment of tubercular ex-service men by S. W. Galbraith, Jr., national commander of the American Legion, in a speech in Philadelphia last November. His stand followed numerous investigations made by government authorities, and a public appeal from 96 tubercular veterans being treated there.

First in Membership Contest.
In the first published list of leading posts in the Kansas membership contest of the American Legion, Cal Mathewson post No. 280 of Edmond, Kan., takes first place. Next in order are the Legion posts at Sterling, Elkhart, Weir and Logan. Seventy-eight posts in Kansas have already passed their 1929 membership, while ten posts have no delinquent members.

Got Skin Disease?

Purify Your Blood

A great part of the maddening and mortifying skin troubles that plague humanity are due solely to disorders of the blood. Relief from these can be had only by removing the impurities that cause the itching.

For this you must take an internal blood remedy. Outside applications have no effect on the cause of the torture. Their relief is shortlived. You must get right after the blood itself. S.S.S., the famous old herb remedy, has helped enrich the blood of thousands, and relieved their itching skin torture, during the last fifty years. Get S.S.S. from your druggist today, and after starting with it write us a history of your case, addressing Chief Medical Advisor, 837 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Georgia.

HER REALLY BRIGHT THOUGHT BELIEVES IN SAVING PENNIES

Mary Ellen Had Shrewd Scheme for Making Sick Children Satisfied With Their Lot.

Little Mary Ellen McKee is, as she terms it, "just half past four," and lives around the corner from the Union hospital in Terre Haute, says the Indianapolis News. Recently she received a tricycle, which she rides morning, noon and night. At first her rides were confined to her own street, but the other day she wished to ride around the corner.

"But the little sick children at the hospital will see you, and then they'll be unhappy because they can't ride, too," her mother told her.

Mary Ellen was silent a minute. Then she said earnestly: "Well, then, mother, I won't ride past the hospital. When I get in front of it I'll get off and push it like it was hard work, and then they won't be unhappy. They'll be glad they can lie in bed and not have to push things like tricycles."

Simple Deduction.

"Saw Mr. and Mrs. Bangs going to church this morning."

"Did she have on a new hat?"

"Why, I think not."

"Then I must drop in and see poor old Bangs."

"What's the idea?"

"Why, if they were going to church, and she hadn't on a new hat, he's had another bad attack of heart trouble."

Rich New York Banker Certainly Cannot Be Justly Accused of Undue Wastefulness.

Russell Sage made a great record but there's another rich old man who is hot on his trail.

This man is a New York investment banker, who is largely interested in a southern railroad. Once a year he makes a trip of inspection over the property in a private car. Usually he takes with him two big valises, into which his extra clothing is packed. Arriving at the end of the road he sends his valet to a barber shop, which he has patronized once a year for years, to arrange for a bath. A porter carries the two valises there and back. For this he receives a tip of 5 cents. The banker pays 25 cents for his bath. After bathing he returns to the private car. He sleeps in it in the railroad yard rather than pay the fancy price the hotels charge.

The financial man's valet never washes out his employer's shaving cup. The banker does not believe in wasting soap.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Culinary Note.

"What'll yez have for lunch, num?"

"What have we in the house, Mary?"

"Well'm, there's some ham scrap from yestidday, a hunk o' that beef roast, two pieces o' sausage an' a stalk o' celery."

"Good! I guess we'd better make some chicken croquettes."—Richmond Times-Dispatch.
