THE HOLY SPIRIT.

"The Holy Spirit is to reprove the world of sin, of righteousness and of judgment. He is to break up the false peace of sinners by showing through His gracious operation the Savior whom unbelief rejects. He lays bare before the mind sin in its true form, and awakens a sense of shame and sorrow because of it. It is the Spirit which arouses the soul to hunger for that righteousness which alone is imparted to man through the ascended Savior, who is seen and known through faith. The Holy Spirit also warns of judgment and makes evident that the prince of this world with all who trust in him are doomed. This is a guarantee that all who are with Christ are safe. We may well, therefore, pray for and welcome the Holy Spirit to reveal to us the Savior in such a way as to make us hate our sins and to give us a true and living faith in Christ as our Advocate and Intercessor at the throne of grace. Thus we will be filled with the righteousness of Christ and may look with confidence and joy to the day of judgment."

If you are interested in learning something more of the Holy Spirit, and of the Savior of the World, come to the CHURCH OF THE OPEN DOOR next Sunday at either eleven or eight o'clock.

The choir will sing.
There is room for all.
You will be heartily welcome.

SMITH-WOODHURST.

A beautiful wedding took place at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning at the St. Patrick's Church when Miss Hazel Smith became the bride of Thurston Woodhurst. Mrs. Edward Titchner was at the organ and as a prelude played the Tannhauser Wedding March by Wagner, after which Paul Harrington sang "Ava Maria" followed by "At Dawning."

The bride was gowned in dutchess satin, trimmed with pearls and wore a beautiful tulle veil which was held in place by sprays of lilies of the valley and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and sweet peas. Miss Bessie Smith, sister of the bride acted as maid of honor and wore a dress of orchid organdie with hat to match and carried a large bouquet of sweet peas. Miss Helen Smith was bridesmaid and was dressed in light green organdie with hat to match and carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

Sherwood Woodhurst, brother of the groom, was best man.

Little Mary Jane Sprigg, cousin of the bride and Leota Miller were flower girls.

The church was profusely decorated with cut flowers, ferns and palms.

Rev. Patrick McDavid performed the ceremony after which the recessional was played by Mrs. Titchner.

A breakfast was served at the Smith home immediately following the wedding. Here a color scheme of lavender and green was carried out.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of Omaha, Mrs. Clarence Tollison of Kearney, Sherwood Woodhurst of Grand Island and Miss Marjory Daugherty of Kearney.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Smith of this city and is well known in social circles. She is a graduate of the local high school and has been employed at the Clinton Jewelry store for the last year.

The groom is the son of Judge and Mrs. Wm. H. C. Woodhurst and has lately been appointed manager of the Woodhurst Insurance Agency.

The young folks left for a short wedding trip to Omaha after which they will be at home to their friends on West A street.
