HAIL! HAIL!

Did You Ever See Such a Season, the Weather Feels Like Hail All the Time.

MR. FARMER:--Was there ever a season that you could so ill afford to loose your crop by hail as this season? You know there never was.

I am prepared to insure your crop up to $40.00 per acre.

In case of loss I will be with the adjuster in the field and see that you get a fair settlement. In most cases losses will be paid in cash as soon as settlements are made in field.

I will place your insurance in only responsible companies.

The outgoing class of '21 and the High School faculty were the honored guests at a banquet given Saturday evening in the Union Pacific Dining Room by the members of the Junior Class. A portion of the waiting room was used as a reception room and was secluded by screens and decorated with ferns and palms. At the appointed hour the guests filed into the dining room where a four course banquet was served. The room was decorated in green and white, ferns and palms. Table decorations were baskets of white roses, the class flower, and the menu was carried out in the class colors. A well selected toast list followed the banquet with Donald Yost, president of the Junior Class, as toastmaster.
